Theology Is For Proclamation:

Theology is for Proclamation Gerhard O. Forde, 1990-01-01 This book drags systematic theology out of the study sticks it into the pulpit onto the altar and under the waters of baptism so that it proclaims the gospel It sets limits within which discussions of ministry and ecumenism must occur if we are to remain proclaimers of the gospel Forde s work ought to be the centerpiece for years to come simply because in his inimitably impatient way he has it right James M Kittelson Professor of History University of Ohio

Christian Preaching Michael Pasquarello III, 2011-06-28 Michael Pasquarello has written a must read book articulating a Trinitarian vision for preaching His compelling argument is richly informed by traditional biblical hermeneutics creedal history understood as storied attestation of the witness of Scripture and liturgical theology and practice considered as embodied performance of the Bible s divine narrative Here is a clear summons to the church to abandon all lesser homiletic aims and to prayerfully and faithfully proclaim the holy gospel to the glory of God Charles L Bartow Princeton Theological Seminary Like all of Michael Pasquarello s work his newest book not only upholds the classical Christian tradition but also breathes new vitality into it In an era in which preaching is reduced to persuasive communication Pasquarello reminds us that the Christian message has a content that originates in and gives expression to the Father Son and Holy Spirit Richard Lischer Duke Divinity School One of the refreshing things about this fine book by Michael Pasquarello is that when he thinks about the ministry of preaching he is not afraid to measure the breadth historically or plumb the depths theologically Pasquarello has written this book like a good sermon faithfully thoughtfully prayerfully and with a profound word to speak We are in his debt Thomas G Long Candler School of Theology Boldly challenging homiletical accommodation to American culture Pasquarello seeks to change the subject of preaching from method and marketing to the Triune God who is the source and goal of our speech A welcome theological vision of preaching Charles L Campbell Columbia Theological Seminary Christian Preaching brings together two disciplines that have sadly grown apart such that they almost developed irreconcilable differences preaching and theology Pasquarello offers a brilliant critique of theology as technique and draws on the theology and sermons of Irenaeus Augustine Luther Wesley and others convincingly demonstrating that effective pragmatic preaching requires substantive theological engagement and vice versa This book accomplishes its purpose so well that it should be used not only in preaching courses but also in basic theology courses No preacher should be let loose on a congregation without passing through Pasquarello s Christian Preaching D Stephen Long Marquette University

Forde, 2017-01-01 The Preached God speaks directly to preachers calling them to deliver the truths of forgiveness life and salvation through both word and sacrament to all who listen The New Interpreter's® Handbook of Preaching, 2010-11-01 The New Interpreter's Handbook of Preaching is a major reference tool for preaching with articles on every facet of Christian sermon preparation and delivery This resource is both scholarly and practical It focuses on the most distinctive feature and greatest strength of homiletics as a discipline It is rooted in interdisciplinary scholarship and it develops theory geared to practice Its theory arises out of the study of both excellent preaching past and present and actual sermon preparation and composition When theory and practice critique each other it is possible to produce guidelines that assist greater excellence and economy in preaching the gospel Excellence in standards is an area in which homiletics needs to grow and this project will be both a means to encourage and develop it A guiding question throughout will be Will it preach The answers will be offered in the sense that here is something that works well rather than here is something to try Preachers will turn to this resource with the expectation that they will find scholarly treatment of topics brief bibliographies of relevant key books and articles along with practical methodological suggestions for preachers to employ The contributors are homileticians preachers and writers in various disciplines who are committed to the pulpit through practice

Religious Education in the African American Tradition Kenneth H. Hill, 2012-11 Schweitzer's goal in this book is to explore what postmodernity actually means for theology and how theology and the church may respond to its challenges He focuses on the life cycle as it is changing with the advent of postmodernity looking sequentially at segments of the life cycle using different lenses modernity postmodernity and responses from church and theology Schweitzer concludes with a theology of the life cycle Theology, Exegesis, and Proclamation Roland Edmund Murphy, 1971 The Doctrine of God in Reformed Orthodoxy, Karl Barth, and the Utrecht School R.T. te Velde, 2013-06-27 In The Doctrine of God Dolf te Velde examines the interaction of method and content in three historically important accounts of the doctrine of God Does the method of a systematic theology affect the belief content expressed by it Can substantial insights be detected that have a regulative function for the method of a doctrine of God This two way connection of method and content is investigated in three phases of Reformed theology The first seeks to discover inner dynamics of Reformed scholastic theology The second part treats Karl Barth's doctrine of God as a contrast model for scholasticism understood in the framework of Barth's theological method The third part offers a first published comprehensive description and analysis of the so called Utrecht School The closing chapter draws some lines for developing a Reformed doctrine of God in the 21st century
