Rethinking Race and Identity in Contemporary British Fiction Sara Upstone, 2016-10-04 This book takes a post racial approach to the representation of race in contemporary British fiction re imagining studies of race and British literature away from concerns with specific racial groups towards a more sophisticated analysis of the contribution of a broad post racial British writing

Examining the work of writers from a wide range of diverse racial backgrounds the book illustrates how contemporary British fiction rather than merely reflecting social norms is making a radical contribution towards the possible future of a positively multi ethnic and post racial Britain This is developed by a strategic use of the realist form which becomes a utopian device as it provides readers with a reality beyond current circumstances yet one which is rooted within an identifiable world Speaking to the specific contexts of British cultural politics and directly connecting with contemporary debates surrounding race and identity in Britain the author engages with a wide range of both mainstream and neglected authors including Ian McEwan Zadie Smith Julian Barnes John Lanchester Alan Hollinghurst Martin Amis Jon McGregor Andrea Levy Bernardine Evaristo Hanif Kureishi Kazuo Ishiguro Hari Kunzru Nadeem Aslam Meera Syal Jackie Kay Maggie Gee and Neil Gaiman This cutting edge volume explores how contemporary fiction is at the centre of re thinking how we engage with the question of race in twenty first century Britain

Family, Identity and Mixedness Mengxi Pang, 2021-10-27 Approaching the question of identity through a lens that combines interactionist and intersectional perspectives and applies two strands of sociological theories Mengxi Pang invites readers to unravel the process of identity making and to delineate the effect of family and wider society on the formation of mixed identities in Scotland and challenge its lack of diversity It presents an intersectional approach to understanding diversity and social inequalities and in so doing allows for alternative knowledge sources and voices to be heard From looking at social groups such as race age sexuality and class alongside a nuanced evaluation of traditional sociological theories such as Marxism functionalism and feminism this book is an expert guide to the debates central to understanding the challenges individuals face in society Including personal stories and case studies students will be exposed to an authentic and real world view of how individuals have encountered discrimination Social Inequalities is an essential resource for anyone working and studying across sociology and anyone interested in challenging established ways of looking at the world Professor Anya Ahmed Dr Deirdre Duffy and Dr Lorna Chesterton work in the faculty of health and education at Manchester Metropolitan University UK

Feminist Approaches to Law Dragica Vujadinović, Antonio Álvarez del Cuvillo, Susanne Strand, 2022-11-15 This book raises awareness about gender perspective in political and legal theories and historical analysis The impacts of feminist political and legal theories as well as critical legal studies have been embedded in all the papers in different ways and degrees Differences among feminist political and legal ideas are visible in the different approaches The ongoing issue of defining gender for example is a recurring theme in the texts Some papers question the binary basis of the gender issue and the notion of gender as such while others start from the binary dichotomy and attempt to expand the consideration towards a multi dimensional understanding of gender identities The main focus is on a feminist reconsideration of all relevant fields of legal knowledge The primary aim is to demystify the seemingly neutral character of legal norms and legal knowledge and highlight the power relations at different layers beginning with male and female legal subjects of Western heredity in terms of culture ethnicity and race then moving on to different needs and power relations among female persons of different races and classes and finally addressing differentiating gender relations and identities beyond the framework of the women men binary codification i e also taking into consideration the multiple options of intersex transgender queering etc Taking seriously the issue of the maleness of political and legal theories is indeed a challenging and relevant endeavor for legal scholars The male bias is present not only throughout history but also in the present given that our universal categories of political and legal thought are still overburdened by unequal power relations It is also important to open our minds and knowledge production for a gender sensitive and gender competent intersectional approach which would also include various queer race and class based considerations These tasks should be of interest not only to critical legal scholars but also all those belonging to mainstream legal and political thought
