Theatrical Translation and Film Adaptation Phyllis Zatlin, 2005-10-12 Translation and film adaptation of theatre have received little study In filling that gap this book draws on the experiences of theatrical translators and on movie versions of plays from various countries It also offers insights into such concerns as the translation of bilingual plays and the choice between subtitling and dubbing of film

Theatrical Translation and Film Adaptation Phyllis Zatlin, 2005-01-01 Translation and film adaptation of theatre have received little study This text draws on experiences of theatrical translators and on movie versions of plays from various countries It looks into such concerns as the translation of bilingual plays and the choice between subtitling and dubbing of film

Translation, Globalisation and Localisation Ning Wang, Yifeng Sun, 2008 The essays in this anthology deal with translation studies in a global local context and from a Chinese perspective Topics such as globalisation postcolonial theory diaspora writing polysystem theory and East West comparative literary and cultural studies are all discussed

The Translation of Children's Literature Gillian Lathey, 2006-01-01 In the last few decades a number of European scholars have paid an increasing amount of attention to children s literature in translation This book not only provides a synthetic account of what has been achieved in the field but also makes us fully aware of all the textual visual and cultural complexities that translating for children entails Students of this subject have had problems in finding a book that attempted an up to date and comprehensive review of the field Gillian Lathey s Reader does just this Dr Piotr Kuhiwczak Director Centre for Translation and Comparative Cultural Studies University of Warwick

Translating Law Deborah Cao, 2007-01-01 This is an examination of legal translation in its many facets from an interdisciplinary perspective covering both theoretical and practical grounds and linguistic as well as legal issues The text analyses the basic skills and competence of the legal translator and various types of legal texts

A Companion to Translation Studies Piotr Kuhiwczak, Karin Littau, 2007-01-01 A Companion to Translation Studies is the first work of its kind It provides an authoritative guide to key approaches in translation studies All of the essays are specially commissioned for this collection and written by leading international experts in the field The book is divided into nine specialist areas culture philosophy linguistics history literary gender theatre and opera screen and politics Each chapter gives an in depth account of theoretical concepts issues and debates which define a field within translation studies mapping out past trends and suggesting how research might develop in the future

New Paths in Theatre Translation and Surtitling Vasiliki Misiou, Loukia Kostopoulou, 2023-08-09 This collection provides an in depth exploration of surtitling for theatre and its potential in enhancing accessibility and creativity in both the production and reception of theatrical performances The volume collects the latest research on surtitling which encompasses translating lyrics or sections of dialogue and projecting them on a screen While most work has focused on opera this book showcases how it has increasingly played a role in theatre by examining examples from well known festivals and performances The 11 chapters underscore how the hybrid nature and complex semiotic modes of theatrical texts coupled with technological advancements offer a plurality of possibilities for applying surtitling effectively across different contexts. The book calls attention to the ways in which agents in theatrical spaces need to carefully reflect on the role of surtitling in order to best serve the needs of diverse audiences and produce inclusive productions from translators considering appropriate strategies to directors working on how to creatively employ it in performance to companies looking into all means available for successful implementation. Offering a space for interdisciplinary dialogues on surtitling in theatre, this book will be of interest to scholars in audiovisual translation, media accessibility, and theatre and performance studies.

Translating Milan Kundera Michelle Woods, 2006-05-04. Translating Milan Kundera uses new archival research to view the wider cultural scope of the translation issue involving the controversies surrounding Kundera's translated novels. It focuses on the language of the novels, Kundera's lost works, writing as translation, interpretation, exile, censorship, and the social responses to translated fiction in the Anglophone world. Creative Writing Studies Graeme Harper, Jeri Kroll, 2008. Here creative writers who are also university teachers monitor their contribution to this popular discipline in essays that indicate how far it has come in the USA, the UK, and Australia. Teaching Poetry Writing Tom C. Hunley, 2007-01-01. Teaching Poetry Writing: A Five Canon Approach is a comprehensive alternative to the full class workshop approach to poetry writing instruction. In the five canon approach, peer critique of student poems takes place in online environments, freeing up class time for writing exercises and lessons based on the five canons of classical rhetoric: invention, arrangement, style, memory, and delivery.
