Translation that Openeth the Window David G. Burke, 2009 In celebration of the work of the translators of the King James Bible and the fruit of their labors the authors of this volume representing a wide range of disciplines and perspectives examine the cultural and religious monument that is the King James Bible After David G Burkes introduction to the volume Alister McGrath Benson Bobrick Lynne Long and John R Kohlenberger III explore in part 1 The World of Bible Translation before the King James Version In part 2 A Kenneth Curtis Barclay M Newman and Charles Houser and Jack Lewis investigate The Making of the King James Bible In part 3 Leonard J Greenspoon Cheryl J Sanders Lamin Sanneh David Lyle Jeffrey and James R White review The World of Bible Translation after the King James Bible Paperback 296 pages Weary Throats and New Songs Teresa L. Fry Brown, 2003 Teresa Frye Brown s music ministry forms a background for her application of music as a metaphor to the preaching moment In this book she interviews numerous preaching sistas and uses categories from her homiletics courses to structure the data that she found in the interviews The result is a helpful Black Women s Commentary on the homiletic process The first couple of chapters provide information on ordination and call that every male minister of the Gospel should keep in mind It is a review of the gender barrier to ordination Interestingly enough this aspect of the book also demonstrated the resolve of our sisters to find ways and means to preach the gospel irregardless of these barriers While we should never accept discrimination in any form I did find the list of venues for women s in ministry to be a very helpful way to see other possible ways to minister apart from the pulpit in the church that all ministers male and female should look at Our sisters have shown us the way to greater ministry After call and ordination Brown moves to a discussion of Biblical exegesis themes and structures for sermons by Black women I found that this section demonstrated that while some women have a tendency towards preaching actively for liberation of women most of the themes such as purpose hope and liberation of the poor holds much in common with the Black male preacher From Amazon com The Abingdon African American Preaching Library Kirk Byron Jones, 2010-10-01 God s people need to hear a word from the Lord to know their God is with them and to transcend this world and be taken to the very feet of Jesus The preacher is charged with assisting in this mission While there may be different theological perspectives and different methods of sermon preparation and delivery one thing remains constant the need for quality preaching resources Drawing upon the rich and powerful tradition of the black church The Abingdon African American Preaching Library offers a wealth of thoughtful biblically grounded preaching aids including special days in the Black Church tradition To read the Introduction to the book click here Mourning and Mitzvah (25th Anniversary Edition) Rabbi Anne Brener, MAJCS, MA, LCSW, 2017-08-22 Fully revised with a new author s preface epilogue and over a dozen new guided exercises Anne Brener brings us an innovative integration of Jewish tradition and modern professional resources in this 25th anniversary edition of a modern classic Mourning Mitzvah gives spiritual insight and healing wisdom to those who mourn a death to those who would help them and to those who face a loss of any kind Mourning Mitzvah teaches you the power and strength available to you in the fully experienced mourning process When the temple stood in the ancient city of Jerusalem mourners walked through the gates and into the courtyard along a specifically designated mourner s path As they walked they came face to face with all the other members of the community who greeted them with the ancestor of the blessing May God comfort you among the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem In this way the community embraced those suffering bereavement yet allowed for unique experiences of grief School Activities
