Theological Fragments Essays In Unsystematic Theology:

Theological Fragments Duncan B. Forrester, 2005-12 This book of essays hopes to show that there is an important place today for a modest and unsystematic theology consisting of theological fragments rather than some grand theory These theological fragments arise from and relate to specific situations problems contexts and communities Here Duncan Forrester asks What do the practices of Christian worship have to teach us about ethics How can a word of reconciliation be heard in Northern Ireland How do Dachau and the Rwanda genocide affect how we understand the Church Are the modern mass media a threat or an opportunity for Christian communication Duncan B Forrester is Emeritus Professor of Christian Ethics and Practical Theology in the University of Edinburgh Scotland Forrester on Christian Ethics and Practical Theology

Duncan B. Forrester, 2017-05-15 Bringing together articles and chapters from his considerable work in theological ethics India and the social order Duncan Forrester incorporates new writing and introductions to each thematic section to guide readers through this invaluable resource This book offers stimulating studies in three related areas Indian Christianity with particular attention to the caste system contemporary Christian theological ethics and the distinctive and challenging theological approach that Duncan Forrester has developed in relation to public issues such as prisons and punishment welfare provision social justice and poverty

Fragments for Fractured Times Nicola Slee, 2020-09-30 Nicola Slee one of the world's leading feminist practical theologians brings together 15 years of papers articles talks and sermons many of them previously unpublished Drawing on a wide and diverse range of her writing Slee demonstrates the richness and variety of feminist practical theological writing The Lyric Voice in English Theology Elizabeth S. Dodd, 2023-09-21 In this book

Elizabeth S Dodd traces the contours of a lyric theology through the lens of English lyric tradition She addresses the dominance of narrative and drama in contemporary theological aesthetics by drawing on recent developments in lyric theory Informed by the work of critics such as Jonathan Culler Dodd explores the significance of lyric for theological discourse Lyric is presented here as a short musical expressive and personal form that is also fragmentary embodied socially located and performative The main chapters address key moments in English lyric tradition This selective approach aims to expand the theological gaze beyond the monochromatic features of the traditional canon It covers Anglo Saxon hymns medieval lullaby carols early modern sonnets and the prophetic poetry of Romanticism but also Grime and hip hop performance poetry social media poetry and Geoffrey Hill Religion and Ecology in the Public Sphere Celia Deane-Drummond, Heinrich

Bedford-Strohm, 2011-04-28 A collection of essays from top scholars in the field of Religion and Ecology that stimulates the debate about the religious contribution to ecological debate Reformed Humanism David Fergusson, 2024-05-30 The volume comprises a collection of essays ordered in three parts each of which describes broadly the sub fields of theology to which these belong The essays tackle core themes in Christian doctrine the longstanding relationship of theology to philosophy and a series of challenges facing churches today While the volume represents a Reformed theological approach often with a historical focus it self consciously reflects an ecumenical and critical perspective The term humanism reflects an openness to insight understanding and correction from different fields of knowledge while its Reformed designation positions the work within a recognized theological tradition though seeking to avoid imprisonment by it A further feature of the collection is its attempt to overcome the curricular divisions between systematic theology Christian ethics and practical theology The third section in particular deal with issues in social ethics theological aesthetics the place of the church in a secular culture and the role of theology in the university

Pastoral Theology for Public Ministry Stephen Burns, 2015-10-10 What does it mean to be engaged in Christian ministry in a shifting spiritual and religious landscape Stephen Burns invites readers to think anew about the distinctiveness of public practices of pastoral presence Rather than narrowly defining pastoral care and pastoral theology pastoral counseling preaching youth groups visits to elders etc and theological academic categories history pastoral theology liturgy ethics and contemporary sociology he argues for a new imagination and practice of pastoral presence a presence that is representative public integrated and expansive Study guide included

The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 2014-01-07 Through a series of essays contributed by leading experts in the field The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology presents an introduction to practical theology as a major area of Christian study and practice including an overview of its key developments themes methods and future directions The first comprehensive reference work to provide a survey description and analysis of practical theology as an area of study A range of leading scholars in the field provide original contributions on the major areas issues and figures in practical theology Reviews an extensive range of methods for studying theology in practice along with sub disciplines in theological education such as pastoral care and preaching Covers developments in the discipline in a range of global contexts and distinct Christian traditions Shows how practical theology is relevant to everyday life

Desecularizing the Christian Past Enrico Beltramini, 2025-10-01 The essential objective of this study is to unpack the complicity between historians and secularization theory in the study of late ancient and early medieval Christianity and then suggest a way out In this work of historiography of religion Enrico Beltramini argues that religious history is inherently secular and produces distorted representations of the Christian past He suggests moving from an epistemological to a hermeneutical approach so that the supernatural worldview of the Christian past can be addressed on its own terms This work also engages Markus s saeculum and replaces Markus s secularized relationship between the Kingdom and the government of the civitas with the Augustinian association of the Kingdom and divine government

Feminist Theologies Stephen Burns, Rebekah Pryor, 2023-01-24 This assemblage of feminist theologies represents a series of vital entanglements Chapters are written from different cultures geographies and discourses and brought together around themes as specific and wide ranging as immigration detention hate crime discrimination rites of marriage and partnership and artistic and religious imagination The contributors variously echo celebrate question and contradict each other Despite the complexity and allied

as they are with liberation decolonial ecological queer and other theologies these perspectives seek not only to confront and resist the problems oppressions and omissions of hegemonic theologies but also to realize better worlds
