Theology And The Political The New Debate Series Sic 5:

Crisis and Change Jan-Olav Henriksen, Tage Kurtén, 2012-03-15 A common basis for the project on which this volume is based is that one cannot understand religion and ethics without paying attention to the different contexts in and by means of which these cultural elements are expressed This approach makes both religion and ethics liquid and allows us to see them as based on specific contingencies rather than as expressions of some essential features The changing societal and cultural conditions in late modern Western societies pose new challenges for established religion theology and ethics Not only does religion itself appear to be in some kind of crisis but also many of the established ways of understanding and doing religion theology and ethics appear obsolete inadequate or dated Against such a backdrop the articles in the present volume represent attempts to rethink theology and religion with regard to these late modern conditions The volume is the result of a joint undertaking of two research groups one based in bo Finland and the other in Oslo Norway which have since 2006 focused on exploring the contextual character of theology in understanding both Christian belief and Christian ethics The challenge of the idea that Christianity appears in new ways and in new contexts and of investigating what that means is pursued in various ways

Orthodoxy, Process and Product Mathijs Lamberigts, Lieven Boeve, Terrence Merrigan, 2009 From 2002 2008 three research groups from the departments of systematic theology and church history at the Faculty of Theology K U Leuven joined forces in an interdisciplinary project entitled Orthodoxy Process and Product The aim of the project was a church historical and systematic theological study of the determination of truth in church and theology The present volume contains contributions from all senior members of the project research group The contributions are the result of a research conference in 2006 in which both the question of the nature of truth as such and the process of determination of theological truth was approached from many different angles Thus questions from philosophy systematic theology and history of church and theology are discussed including such themes as the implications of various philosophical theories of truth for theology the question of religious pluralism and its ramifications for theological truth claims theological truth claims in the thought of Gregory of Nyssa Augustine John Driedo and at the Second Vatican Council In addition the meta question of the relationship between the historical and the systematic aspects of theological truth and the way in which the historical and systematic theological disciplines interact play an important role in this volume

Justice, Unity, and the Hidden Christ Matthew John Paul Tan, 2014-01-07 Does social justice promote Christian unity With reference to paragraph 12 of Unitatis Redintegratio Vatican II s declaration on ecumenism this book argues that an emphasis on justice and unity without proper consideration of social context actually risks obscuring a clear public declaration of Christ by having Christians uncritically accept the presumptions that underpin the sociopolitical status quo This constitutes a failure in Christian interpretation the crux of which is a failure in ecclesiology Matthew John Paul Tan suggests the beginnings of a corrective with reference to works by Pope Benedict XVI theologians such as Graham Ward and postmodern theorists like Michel Foucault Ultimately Tan invites the reader to begin considering how answering this seemingly simple question will implicate not only theology but also philosophy and political theory as well as considering the need for the church to engage in a bolder confessional politics in place of the politics of the public square often favored by Christian and non Christian commentators Theology and the Political Creston Davis, John Milbank, Slavoj Zizek, 2005-06-17 A reassertion of the importance of theology to political action that goes beyond both liberal democratic theory and neoconservatism Paul, Philosophy, and the Theopolitical Vision Douglas Harink, 2010-02-12 The apostle Paul was a man of many journeys We are usually familiar with the geographical ones he made in his own time This volume traces others Paul's journeys in our time as he is co-opted or invited to travel sometimes as abused slave sometimes as trusted guide with modern and recent Continental philosophers and political theorists Kierkegaard Nietzsche Heidegger and Benjamin Taubes Badiou Zizek and Agamben Paul journeys here among the philosophers In these essays you are invited to travel with them into the regions of philosophy hermeneutics political theory and theology You will certainly hear the philosophers speak But Paul will not remain silent Above the sounds of the journey his voice comes through loud and clear Public Debate in the Civil War Era David Zarefsky, 2023-08-01

Public debate and discussion was overshadowed by the slavery controversy during the period of the U S Civil War Slavery was attacked defended amplified and mitigated This happened in the halls of Congress the courts the political debate the public platform and the lecture hall This volume examines the issues speakers and venues for this controversy between 1850 and 1877 It combines exploration of the broad contours of controversy with careful analysis of specific speakers and texts Uncertain Chances Maurice S. Lee, 2013-06-06 Maurice Lee's study illustrates how writers such as Poe Melville Douglass Thoreau Dickinson and others participated in a broad intellectual and cultural shift in which Americans increasingly learned to live with the threatening and wonderful possibilities of chance On the Idea of Potency Emanuele Castrucci, 2016-08-04 Sweeping through the history of Western philosophy of law Emanuele Castrucci deals with the metaphysical idea of potency as defined by Spinoza and Nietzsche upsetting entrenched theories of jurisprudence From classical Greek philosophy to Jewish biblical exegesis via Christianity from Aristotle's Metaphysics to its Arabic interpretations from the genesis of natural law theory Augustine Aquinas Duns Scotus Ockham to Kant and Enlightenment natural law theory to Carl Schmitt Castrucci shows how philosophical rationalism has failed to contain absolute power in a juridical sense The Renaissance of the Levant Michael Kreutz, 2019-03-18 Since the Mediterranean connects cultures Mediterranean studies have by definition an intercultural focus Throughout the modern era the Ottoman Empire has had a lasting impact on the cultures and societies of the Southern and Eastern Mediterranean However the modern Balkans are usually studied within the context of European history the southern Mediterranean within the context of Islam Although it makes sense to connect both regions this is a vast field and requires a command of different languages not necessarily related to each other Investigating both Greek and Arabic sources this book will shed some light on the significance of ideas in the political transitions of their time and how the proponents of these transitions often became so overwhelmed by the events that they helped trigger adjustments to their own ideas Also the discourses in Greek and Arabic reflect the provinces of the Ottoman Empire and it is instructive to see their differences and commonalities which helps explain contemporary politics
