Theory of Unipolar Politics Nuno P. Monteiro, 2014-04-21 Theory of Unipolar Politics studies the durability and peacefulness of the post Cold War international system Theory of Unipolar Politics Nuno P. Monteiro, 2014-04-21 Since the collapse of the Soviet Union the United States has enjoyed unparalleled military power The international system is therefore unipolar A quarter of a century later however we still possess no theory of unipolarity Theory of Unipolar Politics provides one Dr Nuno P Monteiro answers three of the most important questions about the workings of a unipolar world Is it durable Is it peaceful What is the best grand strategy a unipolar power such as the contemporary United States can implement In our nuclear world the power preponderance of the United States is potentially durable but likely to produce frequent conflict Furthermore in order to maintain its power preponderance the United States must remain militarily engaged in the world and accommodate the economic growth of its major competitors namely China This strategy however will lead Washington to wage war frequently In sum military power preponderance brings significant benefits but is not an unalloyed good Nuclear Politics Alexandre Debs, Nuno P. Monteiro, 2017 A comprehensive theory of the causes of nuclear proliferation alongside an in depth analysis of sixteen historical cases of nuclear development Justice and Reconciliation in World Politics Catherine Lu, 2017-11-07 This book examines how justice and reconciliation in world politics should be conceived in response to the injustice and alienation of modern colonialism Global Norms with a Local Face Lisbeth Zimmermann, 2017-08-03 To what extent are global rule of law norms which external actors promote in post conflict states localized Who decides whether global standards or local particularities prevail This book offers a new approach to the debate about how the dilemma between the diffusion of global norms and their localization is dealt with in global politics Studying the promotion of children s rights access to public information and an international commission against impunity in Guatemala Lisbeth Zimmermann demonstrates that rule of law promotion triggers domestic contestation and thereby changes the approach taken by external actors and ultimately the manner in which global norms are translated However the leeway in local translation is determined by the precision of global norms Based on an innovative theoretical approach and an in depth study of rule of law translation Zimmermann argues for a shift in norm promotion from context sensitivity to democratic appropriation speaking to scholars of international relations peacebuilding democratization studies international law and political theory Russian Realism Andrei P. Tsygankov, 2022-03-17 Russian Realism analyzes Russian contemporary geopolitical thinking or realism and explores the notion of Derzhava as the foundation of Russian realism The author defines Russian realists as all those favoring actions by the Russian state in defense of its interests including protection of national sovereignty security power and prestige on the international scene What makes Russian realism distinct is its vision of Russianness formed by the country s historical cultural religious experience and its semi peripheral position in the international system The vision stresses the importance of survival preservation of strong state and protection of national interests from external infringement Mainstream literature especially in the West tends to ignore Russian theoretical debates and narratives this book remedies this by providing significant insights into Russian realist thinking It explores the historical unfolding of the longstanding national debates about Russia's role in Europe the West and how realists have reframed these debates in response to multiple international and domestic developments The book also identifies distinct groups and debates within the broad school of Russian realism This book will be of interest to students and scholars of Russian foreign policy IR theory diplomatic studies political science and European history It will also appeal to a broader general audience of those interested in Russia and international politics

Strategic Adjustment and the Rise of China Robert S. Ross, Øystein Tunsjø, 2017-06-20 Strategic Adjustment and the Rise of China demonstrates how structural and domestic variables influence how East Asian states adjust their strategy in light of the rise of China including how China manages its own emerging role as a regional great power The contributors note that the shifting regional balance of power has fueled escalating tensions in East Asia and suggest that adjustment challenges are exacerbated by the politics of policymaking International and domestic pressures on policymaking are reflected in maritime territorial disputes and in the broader range of regional security issues created by the rise of China Adjusting to power shifts and managing a new regional order in the face of inevitable domestic pressure including nationalism is a challenging process Both the United States and China have had to adjust to China's expanded capabilities China has sought an expanded influence in maritime East Asia the United States has responded by consolidating its alliances and expanding its naval presence in East Asia The region's smaller countries have also adjusted to the rise of China They have sought greater cooperation with China even as they try to sustain cooperation with the United States As China continues to rise and challenge the regional security order the contributors consider whether the region is destined to experience increased conflict and confrontation Contributors Ian Bowers Norwegian Defence University College and Norwegian Institute for Defence Studies Daniel W Drezner Tufts University Brookings Institution and Washington Post Taylor M Fravel Massachusetts Institute of Technology Bjørn Elias Mikalsen Grønning Norwegian Defence University College and Norwegian Institute for Defence Studies Chung in Moon Yonsei University and Chairman Presidential Committee on Northeast Asia Cooperation Initiative Republic of Korea James Reilly University of Sydney Robert S Ross Boston College and Harvard University Randall L Schweller The Ohio State University Øystein Tunsjø Norwegian Defence University College and the Norwegian Institute for Defence Studies Wang Dong Peking University
