Tipping The Velvet :

Tipping the Velvet Sarah Waters, 2018-01-30 Piercing the shadows of the naked stage was a single shaft of rosy limelight and in the centre of this was a girl the most marvellous girl I knew it at once that I had ever seen A saucy sensuous and multi layered historical romance Tipping the Velvet follows the glittering career of Nan King oyster girl turned music hall star turned rent boy turned East End tom It launched the career of one of Britain's most exciting and successful writers One of the best storytellers alive today Independent Sarah Waters has written five subsequent bestselling novels all of which have been filmed or are currently in production and she has received critical and popular acclaim and prize shortlists She was awarded the Stonewall Writer of the Decade in 2016 Tipping the Velvet was adapted by Andrew Davies and filmed by Sally Head Productions for the BBC

Tipping the Velvet Sarah Waters, 2002 Adaptation in Contemporary Culture Rachel Carroll, 2009-11-30 A comprehensive interdisciplinary collection offering a survey of adaptation of literary texts across media including animation film TV fan fiction biopics and music video Tipping the Velvet Mel Kohlke, 2003 The Victorians in the Rearview Mirror Simon Joyce, 2007 Simon Joyce examines heritage culture contemporary politics and the neo Dickensian novel to offer a more affirmative assessment of the Victorian legacy one that lets us imagine a model of social interconnection and interdependence that has come under threat in today's politics and culture Sapphistries Leila J Rupp, 2009-10-28 A lyrical and meticulously researched mapping of the ways in which diverse societies have shaped female same sex sexuality across time and geography From the ancient poet Sappho to tomboys in contemporary Indonesia women throughout history and around the globe have desired loved and had sex with other women In beautiful prose Sapphistries tells their stories capturing the multitude of ways that diverse societies have shaped female same sex sexuality across time and place Leila J Rupp reveals how from the time of the very earliest societies the possibility of love between women has been known even when it is feared ignored or denied We hear women in the sex segregated spaces of convents and harems whispering words of love We see women beginning to find each other on the streets of London and Amsterdam in the aristocratic circles of Paris in the factories of Shanghai We find women's desire and love for women meeting the light of day as Japanese schoolgirls fall in love and lesbian bars and clubs spread from 1920s Berlin to 1950s Buffalo And we encounter a world of difference in the twenty first century as transnational concepts and lesbian identities meet local understandings of how two women might love each other Giving voice to words from the mouths and pens of women and from men's prohibitions reports literature art imaginings pornography and court cases Rupp also creatively employs fiction to imagine possibilities when there is no historical evidence Sapphistries combines lyrical narrative with meticulous historical research providing an eminently readable and uniquely sweeping story of desire love and sex between women around the globe from the beginning of time to the present

Sarah Waters Kaye Mitchell, 2013-07-18 A multiple award winning author Sarah Waters is one of the most critically and commercially successful novelists writing today In such novels as Fingersmith

Tipping the Velvet Affinity and The Night Watch her writing has played compellingly with popular and generic forms and narrative techniques and covered a number of important contemporary themes This critical guide is the first book to offer a wide range of current critical perspectives on Waters work With chapters written by leading established and emerging scholars the book explores issues such as gender sexuality class time and space in Waters fiction as well as her appropriation of a range of genres from the historical and neo victorian novel to the gothic The book also includes a new interview with Waters herself a timeline of her life chapter summaries and guides to further reading making this an essential guide to the work of one of the most exciting voices in contemporary fiction

Consuming History Jerome de Groot,2016-02-08

Consuming History examines how history works in contemporary popular culture Analysing a wide range of cultural entities from computer games to daytime television it investigates the ways in which society consumes history and how a reading of this consumption can help us understand popular culture and issues of representation In this second edition Jerome de Groot probes how museums have responded to the heritage debate and how new technologies from online game playing to internet genealogy have brought about a shift in access to history discussing the often conflicted relationship between public and academic history and raising important questions about the theory and practice of history as a discipline Fully revised throughout with up to date examples from sources such as Wolf Hall Game of Thrones and 12 Years a Slave this edition also includes new sections on the historical novel gaming social media and genealogy It considers new ground breaking texts and media such as YouTube in addition to entities and practices such as re enactment that have been underrepresented in historical discussion thus far Engaging with a broad spectrum of source material and comparing the experiences of the UK the USA France and Germany as well as exploring more global trends Consuming History offers an essential path through the debates for readers interested in history cultural studies and the media

Studies in the Victorian and

Neo-Victorian Novel Adrian Radu,2024-02-29 Readers of the nineteenth century novel expected literature to be a form journalism and fictional history They wanted to read about easily identifiable situations with a chronological straightforward and easily discernible development of plot familiar backgrounds and credible characters About a hundred years later the Victorian novel became the great tradition omnipresent and reliable However today the age and the context are different and novels need more substance including such themes as memory race and empire sex and science spectrality and the heritage industry or key issues like gender sexuality and postmodernism All these elements are considered Neo Victorian which in spite of their novelty do point to a certain Victorian anchor This volume contains ten studies the substance of which is the analysis of novels that according to their date of publication are products of the Victorian and Neo Victorian periods as defined above The authors investigate and discuss Victorian roots and characteristics preserved or recycled Victorian themes Neo Victorian characters and motifs or any other characteristics that may label them as Victorian or Neo Victorian products

Alternatives within the Mainstream II Dimple Godiwala,2008-12-18 Alternatives Within the Mainstream II follows from the first volume's dedication to a critical appreciation of and a tracing of trajectories of the theatres of our Others on the British stage. The first volume, Alternatives Within the Mainstream: British Black and Asian Theatres, traced a history of Black and Asian British plays, playwrights, theatre companies and theatre voices. The two volumes celebrate the plurality on the post-war British stage in terms of class, gender, race and sexualities. Alternatives Within the Mainstream II: Queer Theatres in Post-war Britain is an introduction to queer sexualities and their presence on the post-war British stage. From an introduction which addresses the possibilities of an undoing of repressiveness in desiring another, this volume charts a history of queer on the British stage from a climate of sexual repressiveness and criminalisation to a period of legal acceptance of homosexual desire. It covers gay, lesbian and queer British theatres, the influence of American queer theatre, AIDS consciousness, black queer theatre and television drama. Alternatives Within the Mainstream II: Queer Theatres in Post-war Britain is aimed as an introductory text which introduces the several plays, playwrights, theatre companies and queer theorists to students and scholars of contemporary queer British theatres. This book is dedicated to Anthony Blair and the Labour government for bringing in the Civil Partnerships Act.
