A Journey into the Human Experience of Incurable Disease Malcolm de Roubaix,2023-06-05 Incurable disease is a natural phenomenon inherent to the human condition This book critically investigates the uniquely human experience of and response to illness and treatment which affects the body the mind and the very core of human existence and identity Uncertainties regarding the outcomes of laboratory and other investigations that aid in the diagnosis and assessment of disease exacerbate the apprehension inherent to the diagnosis of incurable disease An excessively scientific approach may disregard the suffering patient The book begins by analysing the nature meaning and significance of hope in the context of disease and goes on to reflect on the language of medicine and the role of emotion ideology and politics in disease treatment and research The epilogue reflects on healing as distinct from physical cures Without hope there is no future without healing no holistic recovery The final chapters are devoted to the end of life period of this journey This book is a revision extension and reconceptualization of the original Afrikaans publication Hoop Heling en Harmonie Dink Nuut Oor Siekte en Genesing winner of the 2021 Andrew Murray Prize for Theological Publications Communicating With Families Michelle O'Reilly, Nikki Kiyimba, 2023-09-21 This textbook uniquely highlights the particular complexities of working systemically with couples and families with children It is designed to be student and practitioner oriented by drawing on real world examples of therapeutic encounters in mental health settings to illustrate how theory can inform practice Good communication is the cornerstone of good clinical practice and is foundational for building therapeutic alliance Although therapists and counsellors are often highly skilled in their therapeutic modalities this book offers additional practical suggestions about how families engage in social actions and positioning themselves and others in their talk The book also takes wider micro and macro ecological systems within which systemic psychotherapists and counsellors work into account and consider the ways that these larger social influences are experienced within institutional discourses The book will be a valuable resource across a broad spectrum of professions and researchers including counsellors psychotherapists family therapists psychiatrists nurses play therapists speech and language therapists and mental health social workers Pastoral Care Dr. Karen D. Scheib, 2016-02-16 Christian pastoral care is a narrative ecclesial theological practice NET As a narrative practice pastoral care attends to the inseparable interconnection between our own lifestories others stories the larger cultural stories and God's story As a ministry of the church pastoral care is an ecclesial practice that derives its motivation purpose and identity from the larger mission of the church to bear witness to and embody God's mission of love that extends beyond the church for the transformation of the world As a theological practice pastoral care is grounded in God's love story God's profound love for humankind heals our brokenness when human love fails and invites us into an ongoing process of growth in love of God self and neighbor Intended for those who provide care with and on behalf of religious communities author Karen Scheib focuses on listening and restorying practices occurring in the context and setting of congregations By coauthoring narratives that promote healing and growth in love pastoral caregivers become cocreators and companions who help others revise and construct life stories reshaped by the grace of God What Karen Scheib has done in this book is to reposition pastoral care as a theological activity performed in the context of the church She draws deeply upon her Wesleyan theological heritage upon an understanding of life in its fullness as growth in love and grace and upon a communion ecclesiology undergirded by a communal understanding of the Trinitarian life of God. Thus grounded, she envisions pastoral care first as a rhythm of the life of the whole church and secondarily as a work of trained pastors. In her vision, pastoral care is rescued from a narrow understanding of it as exceptional acts of intervention performed only in moments of dire crisis. Instead, it becomes a daily practice of pastoral care: attending in love to the stories of others and listening for ways God is already present in a life story. Solidly theological, grounded in the life of the church and eminently teachable, Karen Scheib has given us a great gift in this book.

Foreword Thomas G. Long, Bandy Professor of Preaching Emeritus, Candler School of Theology, Emory University, Atlanta, GA. In a wonderfully engaging, reflective, and useful way, Karen Scheib captures something absolutely essential to pastoral care and yet often overlooked: the utter centrality of storytelling, listening, the power of stories to heal, and their vital connection to bigger stories told within religious communities. This book is a real milestone reclaiming the importance of narrative knowing and grounding care not only in community but also within a comprehensive theological framework.

Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, E. Rhodes and Leona B. Carpenter Professor of Religion, Psychology, and Culture, The Divinity School and Graduate Department of Religion, Vanderbilt University Divinity School, Nashville, TN. Implementing narrative, personality, and therapy theories and anchored in ecclesiology and Wesleyan theology, NET: Karen Scheib's book advances a long-awaited and holistic approach to pastoral care. Her NET approach presents the embodiment of pastoral care by emphasizing both narrative and paradigmatic knowing, proposes the subjectivity of our stories in pastoral care by pointing out the interchangeability between us and our stories as subject and object, and underscores the dynamic process of pastoral care through the interconnection of the storyteller, listener, and context. Scheib's image of story companion contributes to the field as a new paradigm of pastoral care and promises to be a significant resource in generating hope and growth in love for both pastoral caregiver and receiver.

Angella Son, Associate Professor, Drew University, Madison, NJ. Pastoral theologian, Scheib describes a narrative, ecclesial, and theological approach for listening to people's life stories in such a way as to engender spiritual formation and growth in love. Scheib clarifies the connections between caring conversations and Christian theology. Clear and accessible prose, as well as helpful exercises and discussion starters, make this a fine teaching text.
