Onscreen/Offscreen Constantine V. Nakassis, 2022-12-01 Based on over a decade of ethnographic fieldwork in the South Indian state of Tamil Nadu Onscreen Offscreen is an exploration of the politics and being of filmic images The book examines contestations inside and outside the Tamil film industry over the question what is an image Answers to this question may be found in the ontological politics that take place on film sets in theatre halls and in the social fabric of everyday life in South India from populist electoral politics and the gendering of social space to caste uplift and domination Bridging and synthesizing linguistic anthropology film studies visual studies and media anthropology Onscreen Offscreen rethinks key issues across a number of fields concerned with the semiotic constitution of social life from the performativity and ontology of images to questions of spectatorship realism and presence In doing so it offers both a challenge to any approach that would separate image from social context and a new vision for linguistic anthropology beyond the question of language

The Greatest Possible Good Ben Brooks, 2025-07-15 A sharp witted tragicomedy about money morality and a family teetering on the brink A splendidly funny novel Jenny Jackson New York Times bestselling author of Pineapple Street For readers of Paul Murray's The Bee Sting and Jenny Jackson's Pineapple Street an irresistibly funny and incisive novel about a wealthy family that is confident in its good intentions until the discovery that their patriarch has secretly given all their money to charity ruins their lives Meet the Candlewicks Seventeen year old Evangeline a k a Dubbin wants to change the world has a penchant for throwing fake blood during protests and despairs at the smug complacency of the rest of her family Emil is fifteen and a painfully shy math prodigy who has just begun dabbling in narcotics Their mother Yara arrives at airports four hours early and fears that AI and climate change will leave her children unemployed and unable to go outside for longer than ten minutes And Arthur the father a hapless and always neutral man who can't decide if he is a good person or a doormat forgiving and understanding or weak and terrified Their comfortable lives are thrown into disarray when Arthur walks out into the woods one night for a stroll in his calfskin slippers only to fall down an abandoned mineshaft Disoriented and unable to move he remains there for three days with only a bottle of mid range Bordeaux his son's confiscated stash of LSD and his daughter's book on the concept of Effective Altruism for company When he is rescued he is a man transformed Determined to give away all of his wealth and devote the rest of his life to the statistically proven most worthy causes his metamorphosis shocks his family and triggers a chain of events that will have far reaching and unforeseen consequences for them all Equal parts hilarious and achingly human The Greatest Possible Good spans ten years in the lives of the Candlewicks asking universal questions about what it means to live a good life and if there is a right way to be a good person while introducing the world to one of the most memorable and dysfunctional families in contemporary literature Focus On:
