A movie poster for the film 'Troll'. The background is a dark, textured rock face. On the left, a large, realistic-looking troll face is carved into the rock, with its right eye visible. Two small human figures are climbing the rock face: one in a red shirt is higher up, and another in a blue shirt is lower down. The word 'TROLL' is written in large, white, blocky letters across the bottom right.

Seven decades after India's independence, women members occupy 1 in 10 seats in the Lok Sabha, the lower house of the Indian Parliament. In analysing women's limited presence in the Indian Parliament, Performing Representation breaks new ground in scholarship on gender and politics. It explores the possibilities and limits of parliamentary democracy and the participation of women in its institutional performances. This book offers new insights into the gendered nature of the performance, aesthetics and norms of parliamentary life through an examination of electoral data, legislative debates and life stories of women MPs. The authors avoid both the framing of women MPs either simply as challengers of masculinized institutional politics or only as docile actors in a gendered institution. Making a strong case for taking parliamentary politics seriously in these times of populism, the book raises critical questions about the politics of difference, claim making, representation and intersectionality and addresses these as part of global feminist debates on the importance of the women's representation in political institutions. The International Folk-lore Congress of the World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, July, 1893 ... Helen Wheeler Bassett, Frederick Starr, 1898. The Mega Misconception Book James Egan, 2016-11-02. This book is a combination of 365 Things People Believe That Aren't True, 365 More Things People Believe That Aren't True, Another 365 Things People Believe That Aren't True, 500 Things People Believe That Aren't True. The world map is inaccurate. Silencers don't exist. Everyone mispronounces Mt Everest. Samurais rarely used swords. The Wild West was nothing like you would imagine. The Illuminati only existed for eight years. Satanists don't worship the Devil. Abraham Lincoln didn't care about black people. Amelia Earhart did not mysteriously vanish. Egypt doesn't have the most pyramids nor the biggest. Radiation isn't dangerous. We don't know anything about Druids. Not all pirates were criminals. Some of them were government agents. Rastafarians don't call themselves Rastafarians. The Sun is not on fire. Hamlet wasn't a popular play during Shakespeare's time. Archeologists know who built the Easter Island heads. The Amish do use electricity. Nazis never called themselves Nazis. Graphic Novels Michael Pawuk, David S. Serchay, 2017-05-30.
