Through Darkness A Story Of The Bosnian Diaspora:

Through Darkness Aldiana Deumic, 2012-05-01 Surviving concentration camp in Bosnia and Herzegovina in the early 1990s being close to losing life to bombings starvation robbed of her childhood at the age of nine forced from her home losing loved ones separated from her father coming to the United States as a teenager without knowledge of English Amna's childhood her teenage years and her early adulthood are dominated by darkness Will she escape the hands of the Angel of Death that constantly follows her from the Land of Blood and Nightmares to the Land of Hopes and Dreams Follow Amna through a journey of innocence faith love perseverance and growth

Bosnian Studies Dzeneta Karabegovic, Adna Karamehic-Oates, 2023-01-30 It has been 27 years since the end of the war in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the history of the conflict its consequences and long term implications for the politics and lives of its citizens has remained a source of interest for scholars across the globe and across disciplines This scholarship has included works by historians and political scientists seeking to explain the war's origins with a view to Bosnia's traditional multi ethnic character and background The country has been used as a case study in state and peace building as well as to study the implications of ongoing transitional justice processes Other scholars within the fields of human rights and genocide studies have focused on documenting the war crimes committed against the people of Bosnia and Herzegovina during the conflict and the mass scale displacement of people mostly Bosnian Muslims from their homes and homelands International law scholars have carried this work further tracing the development of courts created in response to war crimes in Bosnia and their effectiveness in generating justice for victims Diaspora communities have formed in North America especially in St Louis Europe and Australia because of war and displacement and have themselves become a considerable topic of study spanning the disciplines of anthropology migration studies political science memory studies conflict and security studies psychology and geography This volume seeks to illuminate how Bosnian migrant and diaspora scholars are contributing to the development of Bosnian Studies The authors included in this volume are either writing from their new home bases in Australia Austria Canada Switzerland the United Kingdom and the United States among others or they have returned to Bosnia after a period of migration Their chapters have distinct entry points of inquiry demonstrating how scholars have integrated Bosnia as a theme across the range of disciplines in which they are situated The selections included in the volume range from literary analysis to personal memoirs of the conflict from studies of heritage and identity to political science analysis of diaspora voting to genocide studies and questions of or lack of ethics in the growing field of Bosnian Studies

South Asian Diaspora Narratives Amit Sarwal, 2017-05-03 This book analyses the metaphysical and poetical notions and the processes of rooting into a culture and routing out of a culture in the context of South Asian diaspora in Australia These diasporic narratives are often characterised by bifurcated and dislocated identities that exist in a liminal space in between two identities two cultures and two histories Yet home remains through acts of imagination remembering and re creation an important reference point The author argues that a clearer notion of politics of location is required to distinguish between the different kinds of dislocation the immigrants suffer both psychologically and sociologically The diaspora is Australia is an under studied topic and this book fills a lacuna in South Asian diaspora studies by analysing and calling upon a wide range of works in this field from historical anthropological sociological cultural and literary studies The Planetary Turn Amy J. Elias, Christian Moraru, 2015-04-30 A groundbreaking essay collection that pursues the rise of geoculture as an essential framework for arts criticism The Planetary Turn shows how the planet as a territory a sociopolitical arena a natural space of interaction for all earthly life and an artistic theme is increasingly the conceptual and political dimension in which twenty first century writers and artists picture themselves and their work In an introduction that comprehensively defines the planetary model of art culture and cultural aesthetic interpretation the editors explain how the living planet is emerging as distinct from older concepts of globalization cosmopolitanism and environmentalism and is becoming a new ground for exciting work in contemporary literature visual and media arts and social humanities Written by internationally recognized scholars the twelve essays that follow illustrate the unfolding of a new vision of potential planetary community that retools earlier models based on the nation state or political blocs and reimagines cultural political aesthetic and ethical relationships for the post Cold War era

Bibliography of Sources on the Region of Former Yugoslavia Rusko Matulić, 1998 This exhaustive bibliography compiles articles related to the former Yugoslavian region The over 12 000 entries are broken down into sixteen areas of scholarship 1 900 of these deal exclusively with events in the area s recent history Re-Making Kozarac Sebina Sivac-Bryant, 2016-05-13 This book explores agency reconciliation and minority return within the context of ethnic cleansing in Bosnia It focuses on a community in North West Bosnia which successfully reversed the worst episode of ethnic cleansing prior to Srebrenica by fighting for return and then establishing one of the only successful examples of contested minority return in the town of Kozarac The book is a result of a longitudinal decade long study of a group of people who discovered a remarkable level of agency and resilience largely without external support and despite many of the people and institutions who were responsible for their violent expulsion remaining in place Re Making Kozarac considers how a community s traumatic experiences were utilised as a motivational vehicle for return and contrasts their pragmatic approach to local compromise with the ill informed and largely unsuccessful international projects that try to cast them as powerless victims Importantly the book offers critical reflections on the interventions of the trauma and reconciliation industries which can be more harmful than is currently realised It will be of great interest to scholars of criminology anthropology and international relations Jealous of the Dead Aldiana Deumic, 2025-09-05 World Literature Today, 2000 Theatre Record, 1995
