

THUNDER OUT OF CHINA

The book cover features a dramatic landscape. The upper half shows a dark, stormy sky with heavy, grey clouds. Below the sky is a body of water, possibly a sea or a large river, with a white, misty or foggy horizon. The lower half of the cover is a bright red field with a black grid pattern. A black, wavy line, resembling a river or a path, winds across the red field. The title 'THUNDER OUT OF CHINA' is printed in large, yellow, serif capital letters across the top half of the cover.

War brings to light the striking fact that war related hunger and famine was not only caused by Nazi Germany and Imperial Japan but was also the result of Allied mismanagement and neglect particularly in India Africa and China American dominance both during and after the war was not only a result of the United States immense industrial production but also of its abundance of food This book traces the establishment of a global pattern of food production and distribution and shows how the war subsequently promoted the pervasive influence of American food habits and tastes in the post war world A work of great scope The Taste of War connects the broad sweep of history to its intimate impact upon the lives of individuals
