Tiger in the Barbed Wire Howard R. Simpson, 1992 An American in Vietnam 1952 1991 The Indochinese Experience of the French and the Americans Arthur J. Dommen, 2002-02-20 Dommen's book promises to be the definitive political history of Indochina during the Franco American era William M Leary E Merton Coulter Professor of History University of Georgia This magisterial study by Arthur J Dommen sets the Indochina wars French and American in perspective as no book that has come before He summarizes the history of the peninsula from the Vietnamese War of Independence from China in 930 39 through the first French military actions in 1858 when the struggle of the peoples of Indochina with Western powers began Dommen details the crucial episodes in the colonization of Indochina by the French and the indigenous reaction to it The struggle for national sovereignty reached an acute state at the end of World War II when independent governments rapidly assumed power in Vietnam and Cambodia When the French returned the struggle became one of open warfare with Nationalists and Communists gripped in a contest for ascendancy in Vietnam while the rulers of Cambodia and Laos sought to obtain independence by negotiation The withdrawal of the French after their defeat at Dien Bien Phu brought the Indochinese face to face whether as friends or as enemies with the Americans In spite of an armistice in 1954 the war between Hanoi and Saigon resumed as each enlisted the help of foreign allies which led to the renewed loss of sovereignty as a result of alliances and an increasingly heavy loss of lives Meticulous and detailed Dommen's telling of this complicated story is always judicious Nevertheless many people will find his analysis of the Diem coup a disturbing account of American plotting and murder This is an essential book for anyone who wants to understand Vietnam and the people who fought against the United States and won Parameters ,1995 Military Review ,1993 The CIA and Third Force Movements in China during the Early Cold War Roger B. Jeans, 2017-11-27 When the Chinese Communists defeated the Chinese Nationalists and occupied the mainland in 1949 1950 U S policymakers were confronted with a dilemma Disgusted by the corruption and more importantly failure of Chiang Kai shek's Nationalist armies and party and repelled by the Communists revolutionary actions and violent class warfare in the early 1950s the U S government placed its hopes in a Chinese third force While the U S State Department reported on third forces the CIA launched a two prong effort to actively support these groups with money advisors and arms In Japan Okinawa and Saipan the agency trained third force troops at CIA bases The Chinese commander of these soldiers was former high ranking Nationalist General Cai Wenzhi He and his colleagues organized a political group the Free China Movement His troops received parachute training as well as other types of combat and intelligence instruction at agency bases Subsequently several missions were dispatched to Manchuria the Korean War was raging then and South China All were failures and the Chinese third force agents were killed or imprisoned With the end of the Korean War the Americans terminated this armed third force movement with the Nationalists on Taiwan taking in some of its soldiers while others moved to Hong Kong The Americans flew Cai to

Washington where he took a job with the Department of Defense The second prong of the CIA's effort was in Hong Kong The agency financially supported and advised the creation of a third force organization called the Fighting League for Chinese Freedom and Democracy It also funded several third force periodicals Created in 1951 and 1952 in 1953 and 1954 the CIA ended its financial support As a consequence of this as well as factionalism within the group in 1954 the League collapsed and its leaders scattered to the four winds At the end even the term third force was discredited and replaced by new force Finally in the early 1950s the CIA backed as a third force candidate a Vietnamese general With his assassination in May 1955 however that effort also came to naught

A War of Logistics Charles R. Shrader, 2015-10-23 Following the French reoccupation of Indochina at the end of World War II the pro Communist Vietnamese nationalists or Viet Minh launched a grassroots insurgency that erupted into a full fledged war in 1949 After nearly ten years of savage combat the western world was stunned when Viet Minh forces decisively defeated the French Union army at the battle of Dien Bien Phu in May 1954 Logistics dominated every aspect of the First Indochina War dictating the objectives the organization of forces the timing and duration of the operations and even the final outcome In A War of Logistics Charles R Shrader meticulously examines both French Union and Viet Minh logistical units during the period of active conventional warfare as well as external support provided to the French by the United States and to the Vietnamese by China Although the Vietnamese had few advantages over their opponents their military leaders brilliantly employed a highly committed network of soldiers and civilians outfitted to accommodate the challenging terrain on which they fought Drawing on extensive research such as declassified intelligence documents the reports of French participants and accounts by Viet Minh leaders including Vo Nguyen Giap and Ho Chi Minh A War of Logistics provides in depth coverage of the often ignored but critically important topic of logistics in modern military campaigns

Small Wars, Faraway Places Michael Burleigh, 2014-11-25 A sweeping history of the Cold War's many hot wars born in the last gasps of empire The Cold War reigns in popular imagination as a period of tension between the two post World War II superpowers the United States and the Soviet Union without direct conflict Drawing from new archival research prize winning historian Michael Burleigh gives new meaning to the seminal decades of 1945 to 1965 by examining the many largely forgotten hot wars fought around the world As once great Western colonial empires collapsed counter insurgencies campaigns raged in the Philippines the Congo Iran and other faraway places Dozens of new nations struggled into existence the legacies of which are still felt today Placing these vicious struggles alongside the period defining United States and Soviet standoffs in Korea Vietnam and Cuba Burleigh swerves from Algeria to Kenya to Vietnam and Kashmir interspersing top level diplomatic negotiations with portraits of the charismatic local leaders The result is a dazzling work of history a searing analysis of the legacy of imperialism and a reminder of just how the United States became the world's great enforcer
