

The background of the slide is a photograph of a landscape. In the foreground, there are dark, silhouetted trees, including a prominent evergreen on the left. The middle ground shows a range of mountains under a sky filled with large, billowing clouds. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, orange and yellow glow that illuminates the clouds and the mountains. The overall mood is contemplative and majestic.

Fantasies of Time and Death Anna Vaninskaya, 2019-12-26 This book reveals the unique contribution made by the three founding fathers of British fantasy Lord Dunsany E R Eddison and J R R Tolkien to our culture s perennial reassessment of the meanings of time death and eternity It traces the poetic philosophical and theological roots of the striking preoccupation with mortality and temporality that defines the imagined worlds of early fantasy fiction and gives both the form of such fiction and its ideas the attention they deserve Dunsany Eddison and Tolkien raise some of the oldest questions in existence about the limits of nature human and divine cosmic creation and destruction the immortality conferred by art and memory and the paradoxes and uncertainties generated by the universal experience of transience the fear of annihilation and the desire for transcendence But they respond to those questions by means of thought experiments that have no precedent in modern literary history This book has won the 2021 Mythopoeic Scholarship Award for Myth and Fantasy Studies The God Who Plays Brian Edgar, 2017-12-20 Many people would be surprised to hear that a playful attitude towards God and the world lies at the heart of Christian faith Traditionally Christians have focused on the serious responsibilities of service sacrifice and commitment But the prophets say that the future kingdom is full of people laughing and playing which has implications for Christians who are called to live out the future kingdom in the present Play is not trivial or secondary to work and service only a playful way of living does justice to the seriousness of life Play is the essential and ultimate form of relationship with God which is why Jesus told people to learn from children Indeed a playful attitude is an important part of all significant relationships This book explores grace faith love worship redemption and the kingdom from the perspective of a playful attitude It describes how to create a play ethic to match the work ethic and discusses play as a virtue Aquinas's warning against the sin of not playing enough and Bonhoeffer's claim that in a world of pain it is only the Christian who can truly play A Moment in Time Carol Pierce-Davis PhD, 2025-06-30 With clear vision scripture driven insight and a down to earth style Dr Carol Pierce Davis presents a collection of meditations titled A Moment in Time Meditations on the Seasons of Faith Loosely based on the church calendar to which she added a few new seasons of her own she leads you into a Biblical journey as contemporary as today touching on the realities of life and death love and division war and peace She showcases her love of scripture and her intimate relationship with the players in Biblical history In her meditation My Man Moses she writes I have always said that when I die and go to heaven presumptuous I know I am going to hang out with the cool guys Isaiah David and Jesus After reading today's scripture I have added another candidate Moses With his outrageous relationship with God he took down the walls of power and mystery between human and God to cajole annoy and get his way when it came to protecting God's people With her psychological awareness and grasp of scripture she offers a spiritual look into communication relationships and life transitions Add in her sense of humor and fearless theology and you have A Moment in Time Meditations on the Seasons of Faith
