Merchant, 2022-01-11 Houses in the Argentine and Chilean films of the early twenty first century provide much more than a backdrop to on screen drama Nor are they simply refuges from political turmoil or spaces of oppression Remaking Home argues that domestic spaces are instead the medium through which new fragile common identities are constructed The varied documentary and fiction films analyzed here which include an early work by Oscar winner Sebastián Lelio use the domestic sphere as a laboratory in which to experiment with narrative audiovisual techniques and social configurations Where previous scholarship has focused on the social fragmentation and political disillusionment visible in contemporary film Remaking Home argues that in order to understand the political agency of contemporary cinema it is necessary to move beyond deconstructive critical approaches to Latin American culture In doing so it expands the theoretical scope of studies in Latin American cinema by finding new points of contact between the cultural critique of Nelly Richard the work of Bruno Latour and theories of new materialism Revista canadiense de estudios hispánicos ,2012 Gringoismos Dave Adkins, 2013-07-29 I took two years of Latin at Grinnell Iowa High School and two years of French at Cornell College but I never really committed to using these languages However when I spent three years in Mozambique I had an opportunity to pursue the Portuguese language in an everyday situation When I returned to the U S I studied the spoken and written form of the language with a Brazilian speaking partner and developed a useful fluency I then decided to use the basics of Portuguese in the study of Spanish I had a number of Spanish speaking partners did some work assignments in Tehuacan Mexico and earned an M A from the University of Leon Using some creativity I was able to read write and converse in Spanish as often as I wished in my places of residence in Iowa and Texas I have written this book of bilingual essays called Gringoismos which is a presentation of personal experiences in the Hispanic culture as well as some take offs on Spanish writings Iberian Studies ,1974 The University of Chicago Spanish Dictionary Carlos Castillo, Otto F.
