Bernd Horn

Under Arrest Canadian Laws You Wont Believe:

Under Arrest Bob Tarantino, 2007-08-30 Did you know that Canada's Criminal Code still has provisions outlawing the practice of witchcraft and crafty sciences Did you know that blasphemy is a crime in Canada And did you know that putting a picture of a red poppy on your website could get you in trouble with the Royal Canadian Legion Lawyer and author Bob Tarantino takes readers on an entertaining and informative romp through Canada's legal labyrinths in a book that spotlights the country's past and present strange but true laws and legal history He examines odd statutes and arcane jurisprudence across the spectrum of Canadian endeavours from war and religion to sex and culture to politics and business Frequently he demonstrates the parallels between yesterday's prohibitions and today's trends such as the edict against duelling and the legalities of twenty first century hockey slugfests or the confiscation of so called crime comics in the 1950s and the controversy surrounding violence in contemporary video games

The Dundurn Group Bernd Horn, Undressed

Toronto Dale Barbour, 2021-10-01 Undressed Toronto looks at the life of the swimming hole and considers how Toronto turned boys skinny dipping into comforting anti modernist folk figures By digging into the vibrant social life of these spaces Barbour challenges narratives that pollution and industrialization in the nineteenth century destroyed the relationship between Torontonians and their rivers and waterfront Instead we find that these areas were co opted and transformed into recreation spaces often with the acceptance of indulgent city officials While we take the beach for granted today it was a novel form of public space in the nineteenth century and Torontonians had to decide how it would work in their city To create a public beach bathing needed to be transformed from the predominantly nude male privilege that it had been in the mid nineteenth century into an activity that women and men could participate in together That transformation required negotiating and establishing rules for how people would dress and behave when they bathed and setting aside or creating distinct environments for bathing Undressed Toronto challenges assumptions about class the urban environment and the presentation of the naked body It explores anxieties about modernity and masculinity and the weight of nostalgia in public perceptions and municipal regulation of public bathing in five Toronto environments that showcase distinct moments in the transition from vernacular bathing to the public beach the city's central waterfront Toronto Island the Don River the Humber River and Sunnyside Beach on Toronto's western shoreline

Reactions to the Law by Minority Religions Eileen

Barker, James Richardson, 2020-12-30 Much has been written about the law as it affects new and minority religions but relatively little has been written about how such religions react to the law This book presents a wide variety of responses by minority religions to the legal environments within which they find themselves An international panel of experts offer examples from North America Europe and Asia demonstrating how religions with relatively little status may resort to violence or passive acceptance of the law how they may change their beliefs or practices in order to be in compliance with the law or how they may resort to the law itself in order to change their legal standing sometimes by forging alliances with those with more power or authority to achieve their goals The volume concludes by applying theoretical insights from sociological studies of law religion and social movements to the variety of responses The first systematic collection focussing on how minority religions respond to efforts at social control by various governmental agents this book provides a vital reference for scholars of religion and the law new religious movements minority religions and the sociology of religion

Park Cruising Marcus McCann,2023-05-02 An intimate look at one of culture s most enduring taboos public sex Park Cruising takes a long look at the men who cruise for sex in urban parks Human rights lawyer Marcus McCann uses park cruising as a point of departure for discussions of consent empathy public health municipal planning and our relationship to strangers Prompted by his work opposing a police sting in a suburban park McCann s ruminations go beyond targeted enforcement and police indifference to violence to examine cruising as a type of world building The result is a series of insightful and poetic walks through history law literature and popular representations of cruising in search of the social value of sex What McCann ultimately reveals is a world of connection care and unexpected lessons about the value of pleasure

Faith or Fraud Jeremy Patrick,2020-03-15 The growing presence in Western society of non mainstream faiths and spiritual practices poses a dilemma for the law For example if a fortune teller promises to tell the future in exchange for cash and both parties believe in the process has a fraud been committed Building on a thorough history of the legal regulation of fortune telling laws in four countries Faith or Fraud examines the impact of people who identify as spiritual but not religious on the future legal understanding of religious freedom Traditional legal notions of religious freedom were conceived in the context of organized religion Jeremy Patrick examines how the law needs to adapt to a contemporary spirituality in which individuals can select concepts drawn from multiple religions philosophies and folklore to develop their own idiosyncratic belief systems Faith or Fraud exposes the law s failure to recognize individual spirituality as part of modern religious practice concluding that legal understanding of freedom of religion has not evolved along with religion itself Tilted Steven

Skurka,2011-10-20 With the advent of Conrad Black s new appeal Steven Skurka is back to deliver a thorough in depth account of the controversial businessman s legal difficulties It was the trial that captivated observers on both sides of the Atlantic Media titan Conrad Black by turns respected and reviled for decades in Canada and around the world faced off with U S prosecutors on charges of criminal fraud stemming from his activities with Hollinger International As the only Canadian writer to attend the trials of Conrad Black lawyer Steven Skurka delivers a thorough in depth account of the controversial businessman s legal difficulties Skurka offers analysis insights and personal anecdotes to present the clearest picture of the trials to date featuring interviews with key members of the prosecution and defence as well as a peek into the jury room during final deliberations In the first edition of Tilted Skurka showed how the prosecution attempted to tilt the trial in its favour but he also demonstrated how Black unsuccessfully attempted to tilt the trial his way Black lost his appeal to the Court of Appeals and began serving a six and a half year prison sentence in Florida Black s legal battles moved to the U S

Supreme Court followed by a second appeal in Chicago and leading eventually to a dramatic conclusion Now Skurka brings the reader up to date on all of the recent developments in Conrad Black s case including new interviews and behind the scenes strategy Quill & Quire ,2007 The 325: Canada's Criminal Code (w/ Other Acts) - a Case Compilation , A case compilation of the 325 most cited CC Extradition Act and Charter cases that I compiled to facilitate a one file download Assumes a person doesn t want to take the time to immerse themselves in case stream and nuances of the topic in CANLII org where I obtained the cases and did the digesting of same myself to put it all together for you Canadian Criminal Cases Annotated ,1918
