Albert,1999-09-01 The author tells the story of how he and his partner Ellen followed their daughter s interests in designing a home school program and used the resources within their community to fill the gaps in their knowledge areas Indian Classical Music and the Gramophone, 1900-1930 Vikram Sampath,2022-06-30 In 1902 The Gramophone Company in London sent out recording experts on expeditions across the world to record voices from different cultures and backgrounds All over India it was women who embraced the challenge of overcoming numerous social taboos and aesthetic handicaps that came along with this nascent technology Women who took the plunge and recorded largely belonged to the courtesan community called tawaifs and devadasis in North and South India respectively Recording brought with it great fame brand recognition freedom from exploitative patrons and monetary benefits to the women singers They were to become pioneers of the music industry in the Indian sub continent However despite the pioneering role played by these women their stories have largely been forgotten Contemporaneous with the courtesan women adapting to recording technology was the anti nautch campaign that sought to abolish these women from the performing space and brand them as common prostitutes A vigorous renaissance and arts revival movement followed leading to the creation of a new classical paradigm in both North Indian Hindustani and South Indian Carnatic classical music This resulted in the standardization universalization and institutionalization of Indian classical music This newly created classical paradigm impacted future recordings of The Gramophone Company in terms of a shift in genres and styles Vikram Sampath sheds light on the role and impact of The Gramophone Company s early recording expeditions on Indian classical music by examining the phenomenon through a sociocultural historical and musical lens The book features the indefatigable stories of the women and their experiences in adapting to recording technology The artists from across India featured are Gauhar Jaan of Calcutta Janki Bai of Allahabad Zohra Bai of Agra Malka Jaan of Agra Salem Godavari Bangalore Nagarathnamma Coimbatore Thayi Dhanakoti of Kanchipuram Bai Sundarabai of Pune and Husna Jaan of Banaras

Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms Teaching Genius Barbara Lourie Sand, 2005-11 The secret of DeLay s success seems obvious to me now but it was a long time before I saw it DeLay is basically in the business of teaching her pupils how to think and to trust their ability to do so effectively This is a much more difficult undertaking than telling them to copy what she does or to repeat a passage over and over until it at least in theory gets better To DeLay learning and thinking are inextricably connected and the core of her philosophy lies in continually challenging her students to look for their own answers Publisher Decolonization, Sovereignty, and Peacekeeping Hanny Hilmy, 2020-09-29 This book analyses three major themes decolonization sovereignty and peacekeeping Their interaction during the national liberation struggle during the Cold War culminating in the 1956 Suez War addresses the principle of national sovereignty after World War II in the framework of the UN Charter The new peacekeeping operations were used in many conflicts during which the Charter s theory and application were tested The rise of the USA as the key Western power and Israel s special role in the Middle East have created a new confrontational dynamic for the entire region The interaction between the book s main themes in the field has led to the principles of peacekeeping in international and national conflicts being reviewed in light of the discredited Capstone Doctrine The author argues that state sovereignty is sacrosanct but humanitarian interventions are equally imperative in his view Striking the right balance is crucial for managing conflicts The author offers a well informed historical account and an authoritative political analysis was exposed to UNEF deployments and termination and knows key peacekeeping actors draws on original documents memoirs and interviews includes unpublished photos and previously unavailable documentary material has experience in government and academia Rhapsody in Red Sheila Melvin, Jindong Cai, 2004 Western classical music has become as Chinese as Peking Opera and it has woven its way into the hearts and lives of ordinary Chinese people This lucidly written account traces the biographies of the bold visionaries who carried out this musical merger Rhapsody in Red is a history of classical music in China that revolves around a common theme how Western classical music entered China and how it became Chinese China's oldest orchestra was founded in 1879 two years before the Boston Symphony Since then classical music has woven its way into the lives of ordinary Chinese people Millions of Chinese children take piano and violin lessons every week Yet despite the importance of classical music in China and of Chinese classical musicians and composers to the world next to nothing has been written on this fascinating subject The authors capture the events with the voice of an insider and the perspective of a Westerner presenting new information original research and insights into a topic that has barely been broached elsewhere Every chapter is as exiting as it is revealing The book is thoroughly researched with superb bibliography I am ecstatic my students will be electrified Clive M Marks Chairman The London College of Music Trestee Trinity College of Music and The London Philharmonic Orchestra

Time's Echo Jeremy Eichler, 2024-09-24 A BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR THE NEW YORK TIMES NPR WINNER OF THREE NATIONAL JEWISH BOOK AWARDS Finalist for the Baillie Gifford Prize for Non Fiction A stirring account of how music bears witness to history and carries forward the memory of the wartime past SUNDAY TIMES OF LONDON HISTORY BOOK OF THE YEAR In 1785 when the great German poet Friedrich Schiller penned his immortal Ode to Joy he crystallized the deepest hopes and dreams of the European Enlightenment for a new era of peace and freedom a time when millions would be embraced as equals Beethoven's Ninth Symphony then gave wing to Schiller's words but barely a century later these same words were claimed by Nazi propagandists and twisted by a barbarism so complete that it ruptured as one philosopher put it the deep layer of solidarity among all who wear a human face When it comes to how societies remember these increasingly distant dreams and catastrophes we often think of history books archives documentaries or memorials carved from stone But in Time's Echo the award winning critic and cultural historian Jeremy Eichler makes a passionate and revelatory case for the power of music as culture's memory an art form uniquely capable of carrying forward meaning from the past With a critic's ear a scholar's erudition and a novelist's eye for detail Eichler shows how four towering composers Richard Strauss Arnold Schoenberg Dmitri Shostakovich and Benjamin Britten lived through the era of the Second World War and the Holocaust and later transformed their experiences into deeply moving transcendent works of music scores that echo lost time Summoning the supporting testimony of writers poets philosophers musicians and everyday citizens Eichler reveals how the essence of an entire epoch has been inscribed in these sounds and stories Along the way he visits key locations central to the music's creation from the ruins of Coventry Cathedral to the site of the Babi Yar ravine in Kyiv As the living memory of the Second World War fades Time s Echo proposes new ways of listening to history and learning to hear between its notes the resonances of what another era has written heard dreamed hoped and mourned A lyrical narrative full of insight and compassion this book deepens how we think about the legacies of war the presence of the past and the renewed promise of art for our lives today Book Review Index ,2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index
