The Cinema of Mike Leigh Garry Watson, 2004 A keen observer of British manners and mores Mike Leigh has been hailed as a celebrator of ordinary people Comparing and contrasting all his films from Bleak Moments and High Hopes through Naked the Oscar nominated Secrets and Lies and Topsy Turvy to All or Nothing Garry Watson considers this claim examining both their influence and their effect Through careful textual detail and wider social and literary comparison with the works of Charles Dickens and T S Eliot he argues ultimately for the artistic and cultural significance of Leigh's work as one of Britain's most respected film makers Mike Leigh Tony Whitehead, 2013-07-19 Mike Leigh may well be Britain's greatest living film director his worldview has permeated our national consciousness This book gives detailed readings of the nine feature films he has made for the cinema as well as an overview of his work for television Written with the co-operation of Leigh himself this is the first study of his work to challenge the critical privileging of realism in histories of the British cinema placing the emphasis instead on the importance of comedy and humour of jokes and their functions of laughter as a survival mechanism and of characterisations and situations that disrupt our preconceptions of realism Striving for the all important quality of truth in everything he does Leigh has consistently shown how ordinary lives are too complex to fit snugly into the conventions of narrative art From the bittersweet observation of Life is Sweet or Secrets and Lies to the blistering satire of Naked and the manifest compassion of Vera Drake he has demonstrated a matchless ability to perceive life's funny side as well as its tragedies Mike Leigh Sean O'Sullivan, 2011-08-01 In this much needed examination of Mike Leigh Sean O'Sullivan reclaims the British director as a practicing theorist a filmmaker deeply invested in cinema's formal conceptual and narrative dimensions In contrast with Leigh's prevailing reputation as a straightforward crafter of social realist movies O'Sullivan illuminates the visual tropes and storytelling investigations that position Leigh as an experimental filmmaker who uses the art and artifice of cinema to frame tales of the everyday and the extraordinary alike O'Sullivan challenges the prevailing characterizations of Leigh's cinema by detailing the complicated constructions of his realism positing his films not as transparent records of life but as aesthetic transformations of it Concentrating on the most recent two decades of Leigh's career the study examines how Naked Secrets and Lies Topsy Turvy Vera Drake and other films engage narrative convergence and narrative diffusion the tension between character and plot the interplay of coincidence and design cinema's relationship to other systems of representation and the filmic rendering of the human figure The book also spotlights such earlier less discussed works as Four Days in July and The Short and Curlies illustrating the recurring visual and storytelling concerns of Leigh's cinema With a detailed filmography this volume also includes key selections from O'Sullivan's several interviews with Leigh Topsy-Turvy Jules Verne, 2021-07-27T20:04:31Z Two decades after Jules Verne's From the Earth to the Moon and Around the Moon the Baltimore Gun Club returns with its sights on the North Pole's rich coal deposits Access to the area would be facilitated under a more temperate climate which the team believes can be achieved by slightly altering the Earth's axis of rotation This climate change would affect every region of the globe to various degrees thus creating anxiety and opposition worldwide Sans Dessus Dessous number 34 in the Voyages Extraordinaires collection appeared in French in 1889 and was published in English the following year by J G Ogilvie as Topsy Turvy This book is part of the Standard Ebooks project which produces free public domain ebooks      The Gilbert & Sullivan Sorting System Geoffrey Dixon,2001      All Or Nothing Edward Trostle Jones,2004 This critical study of Mike Leigh's cinema is a comprehensive assessment of his thirty plus years in film including his television features from the first feature length Bleak Moments to All or Nothing Through his own species of tragicomedy and favored thematic content concentrating on relationships Leigh enlarges the emotional boundaries of cinema for performers and audience alike His deep and fully realized characters often subvert both decorum and irony traditionally associated with British film and television Leigh's sense of the reciprocity and interpenetration of the material mundane the ridiculous and the humanistic sublime brings respect for the complexity of the ordinary and merits celebration within the democratic and demotic art of film      Devised and Directed by Mike Leigh Bryan Cardinale-Powell,Marc DiPaolo,2013-07-22 Renowned for making films that are at once sly domestic satires and heartbreaking social realist dramas British writer director Mike Leigh confronts his viewers with an unromanticized dramatization of modern day society in the hopes of inspiring them to strive for greater self awareness and compassion for others This collection features new interdisciplinary essays that cover all phases of the BAFTA award winner's film career from his early made for television film work to his theatrical releases including Life is Sweet 1990 Naked 1993 Secrets the collaborative process of devising and directing a Mike Leigh film that involves character building world construction plotting improvisations and script writing the process of funding and marketing for these seemingly uncommercial projects and a survey of Leigh's critical reception and the existing writing on his work      Variety International Film Guide ,1995      Two Thousand Years Mike Leigh,2006 In Two Thousand Years Mike Leigh explores in a gentle tragi comic way a wide range of issues including politics religion identity and the vexed question of Israel and the Middle East BOOK JACKET      G.K.
