Troy Duster Berkeley Sociologist Activist:

Troy Duster John F. Galliher, 2015-12-03 This book is a biography of University of California Berkeley sociology professor Troy Duster. Troy Duster received an MA and PhD in sociology from Northwestern University in Evanston IL. Duster is a black man who was born in South Chicago. His maternal grandmother is the famous Ida B Wells. He initially had a research interest in the sociology of law and later in human genetics. He worked with approximately 100 graduate students at Berkeley, all minority students. Each of his research interests had a special slant given that Troy Duster is an African American. Troy Duster has always been firmly committed to the idea that race is a sociological, not a biological concept.

Women and Inequality in a Changing World Hoda Mahmoudi, Jane L. Parpart, Kate Seaman, 2023-10-24. Women and Inequality in a Changing World explores the obstacles women continue to face to their equal participation in all areas of daily life: political, social, and economic, which persist despite the growth in the education of girls, large-scale social movements, and political waves. The volume widens and deepens understanding of women in relation to the inequalities they face, based not only on gender but also on race, class, religion, and more. It also highlights the progress that women have made and how this progress contributes to the creation of more peaceful and prosperous societies. This interdisciplinary book brings together leading scholars and practitioners from across the globe to provide a wide range of perspectives and experiences, examine crucial questions, and offer new ideas and innovative solutions to increasing the role of women moving forward. This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of gender studies, women's studies, and political science, as well as practitioners working at the intersection of women and global issues. Illiberal Education Dinesh D'Souza, 1991. As it illuminates the crisis of liberal education and offers proposals for reform, which deserve full debate. Morton Halperin, American Civil Liberties Union. Illiberal Education documents how the politics of race and gender in our universities are rapidly eating away traditions of scholarship and reward for individual achievement. Robert H. Bork, Education Teaching. Erving Manuel Goffman Dmitri N. Shalin, 2024-12-03. Erving Goffman is the most cited American sociologist. There is no shortage of studies exploring Goffman's scholarship, but no extant biography of Erving Goffman. The chief reason is that a man who looked behind the facades people erect to protect their private selves zealously guarded his own backstage. This book is the first comprehensive biography of Goffman, an intellectual of Russian Jewish descent who turned the Potemkin village trope into a powerful research program.

The present study shows how key turns in Goffman's career reflected dramatic events in his family and personal history. It is based on the materials gathered in the Erving Goffman Archives, a repository curated by the author who has been collecting documents and conducting interviews with Goffman's relatives, colleagues and friends. The archival work turned up documents which improve our understanding of Goffman: the scholar, the teacher and the man. The approach adopted in this investigation sheds new light on Goffman's scholarship, which has had an enormous and continuous impact across the social sciences and humanities.

Sociologists Backstage Sarah Fenstermaker, Nikki Jones, 2011-04-27. Published social science rarely gives real attention to the actual doing of research, making the process appear magical or at least self-evident and simple. This book is intended to right the balance by illuminating the craft and the choices made as the research process unfolds for the sociologist. The metaphorical image of going backstage speaks to the reader's experience with each of the seventeen interviews, which illuminate the choices and constraints of researchers as well as unanticipated developments, good and bad. The volume represents a range of interests, themes, research philosophies and approaches from a diverse group of contributors. Particularly suited for advanced undergraduate and graduate research methods students, the volume addresses virtually all of the most vexing methods questions through accessible and compelling first-hand descriptions of sociological research. The volume is an invaluable addition to the library of all social science researchers. From the Foreword by Howard Becker. The stories in Sociologists Backstage tell how the contributors, who differ in so many ways, dealt with the situations they found themselves in as they did their research and how who they were and what they had become in their lives intersected with those situations. The stories will fascinate you and give you a lot to think about as you go ahead with your own research adventure.

Between Fear and Hope Andrew L. Barlow, 2003-06-05. Globalization is transforming societies everywhere in paradoxical and contradictory ways. This book examines globalization's impact on race in the United States since the mid 1970s. On one hand, globalization is creating conditions that support intensified efforts to claim white privileges. But globalization also creates new possibilities for anti-racist movements and thus the potential to undermine racial privileges. Globalization is thus transforming the terrain of all racial projects in the United States. This book is an original contribution to the study of race. It provides a structural analysis of race and a methodology for connecting global to national and local racial processes. Written in a lively and down-to-earth style, this book is a call to action in a time of fear and hope.

For several decades the field of bioethics has played a dominant role in shaping the way society thinks about ethical problems related to developments in science, technology and medicine.
