Secondary Superheroes of Golden Age Comics Lou Mougin,2020-01-13 When Superman debuted in 1938 he ushered in a string of imitators Batman Wonder Woman Captain Marvel Captain America But what about the many less well known heroes who lined up to fight crooks super villains or Hitler like the Shield the Black Terror Crimebuster Cat Man Dynamic Man the Blue Beetle the Black Cat and even Frankenstein These and other four color fighters crowded the newsstands from the late 1930s through the early 1950s Most have since been overlooked and not necessarily because they were victims of poor publication This book gives the other superheroes of the Golden Age of comics their due

Comics, Trauma, and the New Art of War Harriet E. H. Earle,2017-06-19 Conflict and trauma remain among the most prevalent themes in film and literature Comics has never avoided such narratives and comics artists are writing them in ways that are both different from and complementary to literature and film In Comics Trauma and the New Art of War Harriet E H Earle brings together two distinct areas of research trauma studies and comics studies to provide a new interpretation of a long standing theme Focusing on representations of conflict in American comics after the Vietnam War Earle claims that the comics form is uniquely able to show traumatic experience by representing events as viscerally as possible Using texts from across the form and placing mainstream superhero comics alongside alternative and art comics Earle suggests that comics are the ideal artistic representation of trauma Because comics bridge the gap between the visual and the written they represent such complicated narratives as loss and trauma in unique ways particularly through the manipulation of time and experience Comics can fold time and confront traumatic events be they personal or shared through a myriad of both literary and visual devices As a result comics can represent trauma in ways that are unavailable to other narrative and artistic forms With themes such as dreams and mourning Earle concentrates on trauma in American comics after the Vietnam War Examples include Alissa Torres s American Widow Doug Murray s The Nam and Art Spiegelman s much lauded Maus These works pair with ideas from a wide range of thinkers including Sigmund Freud Mikhail Bakhtin and Fredric Jameson as well as contemporary trauma theory and clinical psychology Through these examples and others Comics Trauma and the New Art of War proves that comics open up new avenues to explore personal and public trauma in extraordinary necessary ways
