Truth To Tell The Gospel As Public Truth Osterhaven Lecture:

Truth to Tell Lesslie Newbigin, 1991 Theology and Ethics for the Public Church Samuel Yonas Deressa, Mary Sue Dreier, 2023-11-24 How might the Christian church effectively engage today's politically charged profit motivated world while remaining faithful to its biblical and theological roots The contributors in this book argue that public theology provides a promising pathway forward The public theology emerging from these pages has been influenced by the theological interests and commitments of Gary M Simpson Lutheran pastor and systematic theologian His approach to public theology is intersectional and global he artfully weaves together Lutheran theology and the civil society arena of Critical Social Theory These essays provide three angles of vision on faith active in twenty first century public contexts contextual ethical and theological While not mutually exclusive these distinct strands of thought engage and challenge the church to substantial reflection on the challenging and often bewildering circumstances of the twenty first century social world Some reflect on God's activity within particular global contexts others offer new perspectives on Lutheran confessional traditions still others step boldly into innovative theological assertions As the Christian church is ever forming and reforming this book urges it to grapple with the publicness of its timely and timeless mission The Congregation as Hermeneutic of the Gospel

Shawn P. Behan, 2024-10-31 Lesslie Newbigin's concept of the congregation as hermeneutic of the gospel has been used for over thirty years to discuss the overlap of mission and ecclesiology This book provides the contextual background to the congregation as hermeneutic of the gospel then discusses the important components of this concept and how they connect with Newbigin's lifetime of writings on the nature and identity of the church Within this discussion there are three key elements to Newbigin's ecclesiology as it pertains to the congregation as hermeneutic of the gospel the relationship between the Holy Spirit and the local congregation the kingdom of God and the local congregation and the local congregation within itself These three components can be found throughout Newbigin's discussions about the nature of the church ranging from the 1940s until the 1990s Pulling all these components together and showing how they shed light on Newbigin's intended meaning by calling the local congregation the hermeneutic of the gospel for their society provides a new interpretation of this concept that will both strengthen and challenge contemporary uses of this concept within the church today

Revelation and Reconciliation Stephen Williams, 2021-01-01 This substantially revised second edition of Revelation and Reconciliation first published by Cambridge University Press in 1995 gives a fresh account of the intellectual breakdown of Christianity in the West In contrast to the familiar focus on epistemological questions and the collision between reason and revelation Stephen Williams argues that underlying this collision is a deeper conflict between belief in human moral self sufficiency and Christian belief in reconciliation in history Taking issue with thinkers including the philosopher of science Michael Polanyi and the theologian Colin Gunton the argument proceeds by examining the contributions of Descartes Locke Barth and Nietzsche before coming to conclusions on the theological reading of intellectual history and the prospects of revitalising a contemporary Christian belief in reconciliation in history Students of both theology and the history of modern thought will find in Williams analysis an alternative interpretation of the balance of forces in post Reformation Western thought with implications for how they should be addressed Eschatological Discipleship Trevin Wax,2018-04-01 Discipleship is eschatological in nature because the church that makes and receives disciples is eschatological in nature Often eschatology is thought to refer only to last things doctrines However eschatology in its broader sense encompasses the Christian view of time and the future of the world informing both one s evangelism and ecclesiology Failing to relate the eschatological dimension to discipleship leaves one with an incomplete worldview imbalanced discipleship and eventually a tragic inability to model the Christian way of life By answering questions like What time is it and Where is history going Trevin Wax helps Christians view the past present and future biblically and shapes their understanding of following Jesus

Speak the Truth Carmen LaBerge, 2017-09-25 Animosity confrontation confusion from cable news right down to our kids classrooms Christians are waking up to a world very different from the one we once knew We are quick to blame everyone else from Hollywood to Washington but it is not the culture s fault God is sidelined If God is missing from the conversation then it is because His people have failed to represent Him there Christians have been far too silent for far too long retreating out of fear of offending someone or the unpleasantness of stepping outside our comfort zone When Christians have spoken up too often it has not been in ways that honor Jesus We have inserted our own opinion obscuring the beauty and truth of the Gospel in favor of our political ideological or personal agenda It s time for us to embrace our calling as Christ s ambassadors To do that we must be equipped to engage the world in ways that bring the mind of Christ to bear on the matters of the day Carmen LaBerge s Speak the Truth seeks to give believers the confidence to speak the truth and the tools to re engage in the culture and address the problems we are facing today by boldly and lovingly bringing God back into every conversation

TRUTH.,1827 No Half-Truths Allowed Study Guide: Understanding the Complete Gospel Message Christine Paxson,Rose Spiller,2020-05-08 When it comes to proclaiming the Gospel message half truths vague notions and generalizations can be dangerous In today s Church many people are spreading a gospel that is full of half truths unaware that they are believing lies about Who God is and what our roles as Christians are Our responsibility as Christians is to dive into God s Word and find His truths for ourselves In this study guide you will be directed to explore the Scriptures for yourself to find the true Gospel Designed as a companion piece to No Half Truths Allowed Understanding the Complete Gospel Message by Christine Paxson and Rose Spiller No Half Truths Allowed Study Guide is an interactive study guide with questions and Scriptures to help readers delve even deeper into understanding the complete Gospel message Though this study guide can stand alone without the book it is designed to supplement the book to give a richer and deeper understanding of the Gospel message and is easily adaptable for individual or small group study Learning is enriched and more fun when you do it together To Tell the Truth Hazlett Lynch,2018-08-18 This book will help Christians witness to others from a base of solid biblical teaching While several how to be a Christian witness books exist there are fewer on what it is the Christian witness is to tell those to whom they are speaking This book was written to meet this need It is a basic introduction to some of the truths of the Gospel that will form a grounding that will enable you to bring the Gospel to the lost and perishing whether they are in the church or out in the world As a Christian witness you will need to have an accurate knowledge of the Gospel so that when you go out To Tell The Truth to others you will be sure of where you stand Personal witnessing is not the easiest thing in the world to do and if you are unsure of the truths of the Gospel that only makes the matter worse Read and study this book both alone and preferably in a small group This will generate discussion and that will help you clarify what you believe and what you can then say to those whom you want to win for the Saviour The world stands in need of the Gospel like never before because there are so many gospels being spread that are not the biblical Gospel at all The Gospel of Jesus Christ is the world s only hope And there is hope for all in the Gospel God so loved the world and sent His Son Jesus Christ to die for the sins of all men So provision has already been made for all they only have to see their desperate need and turn to the Saviour for forgiveness and salvation
