Tradition and Modernity Idoia Puig, 2009 The Spanish Golden Age novelist Miguel de Cervantes has long cast a shadow over the writers who have followed in his wake This book explores the great novelist s influence on contemporary Spanish writers The links between the Golden Age tradition and contemporary writing are examined by leading academics in the field of the Spanish contemporary novel The collection focuses on aspects of literary technique and metafiction particularly the role of the narrator the mixing of fictional and real characters and self reflection and literary criticism within the novel These are all techniques that have recognisable Cervantine traits Other parallels with Cervantes s writing are explored such as the portrayal of a hero with quixotic characteristics and the imitation of specific episodes from Cervantes s works Espectros Alberto Ribas-Casasayas, Amanda L. Petersen, 2015-12-24 Espectros is a compilation of original scholarly studies that presents the first volume length exploration of the spectral in literature film and photography of Latin America Spain and the Latino diaspora In recent decades scholarship in deconstructionist hauntology trauma studies affect in image theory and a renewed interest in the Gothic genre has given rise to a Spectral Studies approach to the study of narrative Haunting the spectral and the effects of the unseen carry a special weight in contemporary Latin American and Spanish cultures referred to in the book as Transhispanic cultures due to the ominous legacy of authoritarian governments and civil wars as well as the imposition of the unseen yet tangible effects of global economics and neoliberal policies Ribas and Petersen s detailed introductory analysis grounds haunting as a theoretical tool for literary and cultural criticism in the Transhispanic world with an emphasis on the contemporary period from the end of the Cold War to the present The chapters in this volume explore haunting from a diversity of perspectives in particular engaging haunting as a manifestation of trauma absence and mourning The editors carefully distinguish the collective cultural dimension of historical trauma from the individual psychological experience of the aftermath of a violent history always taking into account unresolved social justice issues The volume also addresses the association of the spectral photographic image with the concept of haunting because of the photograph s ability to reveal a presence that is traditionally absent or has been excluded from hegemonic representations of society The volume concludes with a series of studies that address the unseen effects and progressive deterioration of the social fabric as a result of a globalized economy and neoliberal policies from the modernization of the nation state to present

A Companion to Javier Marías David K. Herzberger, 2011 This book provides the most comprehensive study to date of the full range of Marías writing including discussion and analysis of his literary and intellectual formation his development as a novelist and short story writer and his unique perspective offered in nearly twenty five years of newspaper columns on topics ranging from religion to football Above all Marías is examined as a writer of fictions As a translator of several canonical works from English to Spanish Marías came to appreciate the preciseness of words as well as their ambiguity their capacity to represent as well as their propensity to distort The author examines Marías's constant awareness of how language can be used to construct stories as the foundation for engaging the world as well as for imagining it The nature of Marías's storytelling and the way in which he imagines form the principal focus of this Companion Publisher description

MARÍAS EN LA PRENSA. OPINIÓN Y CREACIÓN Pablo NÚÑEZ DÍAZ, 2011-04-15 En esta tesis doctoral se estudia el conjunto de las colaboraciones en prensa de Javier Marías desde sus inicios como escritor hasta el 31 de diciembre de 2008 El trabajo se lleva a cabo desde una amplia perspectiva que tiene como fundamento la reflexión sobre las relaciones entre la creación literaria y la escritura periodística La tesis aporta una unificación sistemática de dichos textos así como el análisis de sus temáticas y de sus principales características literarias La consulta hemerográfica permite localizar varios artículos de Marías que no forman parte de sus libros recopilatorios de escritos periodísticos ni se mencionan en los estudios sobre su obra que han aparecido hasta la fecha Anglo-American Hispanists and the Spanish Civil War S. Faber, 2008-08-04 In this book Faber assesses the long term impact of the Spanish Civil War on Hispanic Studies as an academic field in the United States and Great Britain Combining institutional history with biography the book gives a compelling account of the dilemmas that the war posed for four Hispanists who turned their love of Spain into their life's work Novela española del siglo XXI José

María Pozuelo Yvancos, 2017-10-05 Jos María Pozuelo Yvancos desarrolla diferentes estudios sobre la novela española aparecida en los años transcurridos del siglo XXI. La selección tanto de autores como de problemas tratados no tiene un afán exhaustivo ni implica un canon. Se incluyen capítulos monográficos dedicados a Luis Mateo Díez, Javier Marías, Enrique Vila Matas, Arturo Pérez-Reverte, Manuel Longares, Soledad Puértolas, Ignacio Martínez de Pisón, Ricardo Menéndez Saldaña y Clara Usón. Capítulos aparte merece la Guerra Civil en la novela española del siglo XXI, uno ofrece un panorama y corpus bibliográfico del tema y otro dos revisiones de la Guerra Civil a través de la obra de Javier Cercas y Almudena Grandes.

Memory Battles of the Spanish Civil War Sebastiaan Faber, 2018-01-31 The ability to forget the violent twentieth century past was long seen as a virtue in Spain even a duty. But the common wisdom has shifted as increasing numbers of Spaniards want to know what happened, who suffered and who is to blame. Memory Battles of the Spanish Civil War shows how historiography, fiction and photography have shaped our views of the 1936-39 war and its long painful aftermath. Faber traces the curious trajectories of iconic Spanish Civil War photographs by Robert Capa, Gerda Taro and David Seymour, critically reads a dozen recent Spanish novels and essays, interrogates basic scholarly assumptions about history, memory and literature and interviews nine scholars, activists and documentarians who in the past decade and a half have helped redefine Spain's relationship to its past. In this book Faber argues that recent political developments in Spain from the grassroots call for the recovery of historical memory to the indignados movement and the foundation of Podemos provide an opportunity for scholars in the humanities to engage in a more activist, public and democratic practice.

Ni aquí ni allí (AdN) Tommy Orange, 2018-10-11 Estamos ante una voz que nunca hemos escuchado, una voz llena de poesía y de rabia que estalla en la página con un apremio y una fuerza asombrosos. Una novela que sorprende por su forma de abordar una historia compleja y dolorosa, un legado de belleza y de una profunda espiritualidad así como la plaga de adicción, maltrato y suicidio entre los nativos americanos. Ni aquí ni allí es un relato intergeneracional con un ritmo implacable sobre la violencia y la superación, la memoria y la identidad, la belleza y la desesperación incrustadas en la historia de una nación y su pueblo. Cuenta la historia de doce nativos americanos, cada uno con una razón personal para ir al gran powwow de Oakland. Jacquie Red Feather hace poco que ha dejado el alcohol y está intentando recuperar a la familia a la que para su vergüenza abandonó. Dene Oxendene está reconstruyendo su vida después de la muerte de su tío y va a trabajar en el powwow para honrar su memoria. Opal Viola Victoria Bear Shield ha ido a ver bailar a su sobrino Orvil que ha aprendido danzas tradicionales indias viendo videos en YouTube y en esta reunión será la primera vez que baile en público. Allí vivirá una gloriosa comunidad y un espectáculo de tradición sagrada y gran boato. Y también vivirá el sacrificio, el heroísmo y una sensación de pérdida inenarrable.

Allí donde uno diría que ya no puede haber nada Alexis Grohmann, Maarten Steenmeijer, 2009 Tu rostro más allá es sin duda alguna la obra más ambiciosa y abarcadora de Javier Marías. En ella culmina su larga trayectoria como novelista en la que se percibe una evolución cuya coherencia, consistencia y excelencia no tienen parangón en la narrativa española actual. A lo largo de cuatro décadas la afilada sensibilidad literaria del autor matritense no ha fallado nunca en la ideación e imaginación de una obra narrativa en la que cada nuevo volumen abre nuevos horizontes y al mismo tiempo robustece los fundamentos de un universo idiosincrásico e inconfundible que se ha convertido en una de las referencias esenciales de la narrativa europea actual. En este volumen destacados autores y especialistas tales como Félix de Azúa, Jordi Gracia, David K. Herzberger, Gonzalo Navajas, Edmundo Paz Soldán, Elide Pittarello y Jos María Pozuelo Yvancos exploran desde distintas perspectivas lo que podría calificarse como el non plus ultra de la aventura marinesca. El libro incluye además el discurso de ingreso de Javier Marías en la Real Academia Española y la contestación de Francisco Rico así como una extensiva relación de las citas y alusiones incluidas en la novela de Marías compilada y comentada por Antonio Iriarte y autorizada por el propio autor.

Genre Fusion Sara J. Brenneis, 2014-05-15 Although the boom in historical fiction and historiography about Spain's recent past has found an eager readership these texts are rarely studied as two halves of the same story. With Genre Fusion: A New Approach to History Fiction and Memory in Contemporary Spain Sara J. Brenneis argues that fiction and nonfiction written by a single author and focused on the same historical moment deserve to be read side by side. By proposing a literary model that examines these genres together, Genre Fusion gives equal importance to fiction and historiography in Spain. In her book Brenneis develops a new theory of genre fusion to show how authors who write both historiography and fiction produce a more accurate representation of the lived experience of Spanish history than would be possible in a single genre. Genre Fusion opens with a straightforward overview of the relationships among history fiction and memory in contemporary culture. While providing an up-to-date context for scholarly debates about Spain's historical memory, Genre Fusion also expands the contours of the discussion beyond the specialized territory of Hispanic studies. To demonstrate the theoretical necessity of genre fusion, Brenneis analyzes pairs of interconnected texts: one a work of literature, the other a work of historiography, written by a single author. She explores how fictional and nonfictional works by Montserrat Roig, Carmen Martín Gaité, Carlos Blanco Aguinaga, and Javier Marías unearth the collective memories of Spain's past. Through these four authors, Genre Fusion traces the transformation of a country once enveloped in a postwar silence to one currently consumed by its own history and memory. Brenneis demonstrates that when read through the lens of genre fusion, these Spanish authors shelve the country's stagnant official record of its past and unlock the collective and personal accounts of the people who constitute Spanish history.

Liminal Fiction at the Edge of the Millennium Jessica A. Folkart, 2014-10-08 Liminal Fiction at the Edge of the Millennium: The Ends of Spanish Identity investigates the predominant perception of liminality, identity situated at a threshold, neither one thing nor another, but simultaneously both, and neither caused by encounters with otherness while negotiating identity in contemporary Spain. Examining how identity and alterity are parleyed through the cultural concerns of historical memory, gender roles, sex, religion, nationalism, and immigration, this study demonstrates how fictional representations of reality converge in a common structure wherein the end is not the end, but rather an edge, a liminal ground.

On the border between two identities the end materializes as an ephemeral limit that delineates and differentiates yet also adjoins and approximates In exploring the ends of Spanish fiction both their structure and their intentionality Liminal Fiction maps the edge as a constitutive component of narrative and identity in texts by Najat El Hachmi Cristina Fernández Cubas Javier Marías Rosa Montero and Manuel Rivas In their representation of identity on the edge these fictions enact and embody the liminal not as simply a transitional and transient mode but as the structuring principle of identification in contemporary Spain

Constructing Spain Nathan Richardson, 2012 Does fiction do more than just represent space Can our experiences with fictional storytelling be in themselves spatial In Constructing Spain The Reimagination of Space and Place in Fiction and Film Nathan Richardson explores relations between cultural representation and spatial transformation across fifty years of Spanish culture Beginning in 1953 the year Spanish space was officially reopened to Western thought and capital and culminating in 2003 the year of Aznar's unpopular involvement of his country in the second Iraq War Richardson traces in popular and critically acclaimed fiction and film an evolution in Spanish storytelling that while initially representative in nature increasingly engages its audience in spatial practices that go beyond mere perception or conception of local material geographies In original readings of films by Luis Berlanga Luis Buñuel Alex de la Iglesia Alejandro Amenábar and Julio Medem and novels by Juan Goytisolo Antonio Muñoz Molina and Javier Marías Richardson shows this formal evolution as a necessary response to developments restorations and transformations of local landscapes that resulted during these years from various human migrations tourist invasions urban development plans resurgent nationalisms and finally globalization As these changes occur Richardson traces a shift in the works studied from mere representation of spatial change toward actual engagement with shifting physical and social geographies as they inch ever closer toward the production of an actual spatial experience for their audiences In the final chapters of this book Richardson offers in depth and highly original readings of the storytelling projects of Medem and Marías in particular showing how these two artists invite readers to not only reconceive hegemonic notions of space and place but to practice alternative notions of being in place In these final readings Constructing Spain points to the newest developments in contemporary Spanish narrative and film a rise of new grammars of creation to challenge the ongoing capital driven creative destruction of globalized Spanish geography
