Tuned Out ,2005 The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the American News Media Diane Winston,2012-08-29

Whether the issue is the rise of religiously inspired terrorism the importance of faith based NGOs in global relief and development or campaigning for evangelical voters in the U S religion proliferates in our newspapers and magazines on our radios and televisions on our computer screens and increasingly our mobile devices Americans who assumed society was becoming more and more secular have been surprised by religions rising visibility and central role in current events Yet this is hardly new the history of American journalism has deep religious roots and religion has long been part of the news mix Providing a wide ranging examination of how religion interacts with the news by applying the insights of history sociology and cultural studies to an analysis of media faith and the points at which they meet The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the American News Media is the go to volume for both secular and religious journalists and journalism educators scholars in media studies journalism studies religious studies and American studies Divided into five sections this handbook explores the historical relationship between religion and journalism in the USA how religion is covered in different media how different religions are reported on the main narratives of religion coverage and the religious press The State of the American Mind Mark Bauerlein,Adam Bellow,2015-05-22 In 1987 Allan Bloom s The Closing of the American Mind was published a wildly popular book that drew attention to the shift in American culture away from the tenants that made America and Americans unique Bloom focused on a breakdown in the American curriculum but many sensed that the issue affected more than education The very essence of what it meant to be an American was disappearing That was over twenty years ago Since then the United States has experienced unprecedented wealth more youth enrolling in higher education than ever before and technology advancements far beyond what many in the 1980s dreamed possible And yet the state of the American mind seems to have deteriorated further Benjamin Franklin s self made man has become a man dependent on the state Independence has turned into self absorption Liberty has been curtailed in the defense of multiculturalism In order to fully grasp the underpinnings of this shift away from the self reliant well informed American editors Mark Bauerlein and Adam Bellow have brought together a group of cultural and educational experts to discuss the root causes of the decline of the American mind The writers of these fifteen original essays include E D Hirsch Nicholas Eberstadt and Dennis Prager as well as Daniel Dreisbach Gerald Graff Richard Arum Robert Whitaker David T Z Mindich Maggie Jackson Jean Twenge Jonathan Kay Ilya Somin Steve Wasserman Greg Lukianoff and R R Reno Their essays are compiled into three main categories States of Mind Indicators of Intellectual and Cognitive Decline These essays broach specific mental deficiencies among the population including lagging cultural IQ low Biblical literacy poor writing skills and over medication Personal and Cognitive Habits Interests These essays turn to specific mental behaviors and interests including avoidance of the news short attention spans narcissism and conspiracy obsessions National Consequences These essays examine broader trends affecting populations and institutions including rates of entitlement claims voting habits and a low performing higher education system The State of the American Mind is both an assessment of our current state as well as a warning foretelling what we may yet become For anyone interested in the intellectual fate of America The State of the American Mind offers an accessible and critical look at life in America and how our collective mind is faring The Rise of 24-hour News Television Stephen Cushion,Justin Lewis,2010 De westernising journalism studies in an intelligent way this book deserves to be read around the world Professor James Curran Goldsmiths University of London United Kingdom Media Literacy W. James Potter,2008 Media Literacy is a captivating engaging reader friendly textbook essential for introductory Media Studies courses in communication sociology film studies and English SirReadaLot org In this media saturated world it is critical to approach media influences using critical thought and active participation Media Literacy Fourth Edition uses an engaging and conversational style to help students gain the skills needed to navigate the rocky terrain of mass messages which are designed to inform them to entertain them and to sell them This captivating book offers a plan of action for gaining a clearer perspective on the borders between the real world and the simulated media world helping readers become responsible media consumers Cybermedia Go to War Ralph D. Berenger,2006 What impact is cyberspace having on the creation and distribution of news during war time Can the Internet be used to hold government more accountable Can it mobilize opposition to or support for a war These are some of the questions the editor and 33 other media scholars from around the world tackle in Cybermedia Go to War the sequel to the best selling companion volume Global Media Go to War 2004 Marquette Books The Nightly News Nightmare Stephen J. Farnsworth,S. Robert Lichter,2007 Beginning with the 1988 presidential election and now updated through 2004 The Nightly News Nightmare shows how network news coverage of what is arguably the nation s most important political event has declined Through extensive analysis of news content from the Big Three and Fox acclaimed media scholars Farnsworth and Lichter compare what the candidates said with what the networks say they said and judge the disparity a nightmare The authors go on to suggest that perhaps the candidates themselves do a better job of portraying the campaigns than those who used to be the trusted network guardians of the news While making clear that overall coverage of the Bush Kerry race marked an improvement compared to previous elections Farnsworth and Lichter also point out that in other ways things were worse RTNDA Communicator ,2005 Looking at it Sideways Jennifer Rauch,2006 Discourse analysis revealed that although both groups distanced their own perspectives from those of an imagined mass audience they did so in disparate ways Unlike students activists played games of interpretation such as role playing inventing dialogue and using conditional clauses contrary to fact If They contrasted their own critical activity with the passive susceptibility they perceived in other people who were not engaged in a counter public sphere Annual Editions: Mass Media 09/10 Joan Gorham,2009-02-09 Annual Editions is a series of over 65 volumes each designed to provide convenient inexpensive access to a wide range of current articles from some of the most respected
