Zakir Naik Son:

Religious Television and Pious Authority in Pakistan Taha Kazi, 2021-04-06 In Pakistan religious talk shows emerged as a popular television genre following the 2002 media liberalization reforms. Since then these shows have become important platforms where ideas about Islam and religious authority in Pakistan are developed and argued. In Religious Television and Pious Authority in Pakistan Taha Kazi reveals how these talk shows mediate changes in power, belief, and practice. She also identifies the sacrifices and compromises that religious scholars feel compelled to make in order to ensure their presence on television. These scholars, of varying doctrinal and educational backgrounds including madrasa educated scholars and self-taught celebrity preachers, are given screen time to debate and issue religious edicts on the authenticity and contemporary application of Islamic concepts and practices. In response, viewers are sometimes allowed to call in live with questions. Kazi maintains that these featured debates inspire viewers to reevaluate the status of scholarly edicts, thereby fragmenting religious authority. By exploring how programming decisions inadvertently affect viewer engagements with Islam, Religious Television and Pious Authority in Pakistan looks beyond the revivalist impact of religious media and highlights the prominence of religious talk shows in disrupting expectations about faith. Da'wa Matthew J. Kuiper, 2021-03-31 In this engaging study, Matthew J. Kuiper tells the fascinating story of how Islam became a world religion and cultural phenomenon of immense scale, astonishing diversity, and global impact. His starting point is the dramatic upsurge in da'wa inviting to Islam or Islamic missionary activism. Farewell to Islam Saiid Rabiipour, 2009 FAITH TRIALS AND VICTORIES A true story of a man and his rescue from Iran. It's a story of an ordinary person who faced many challenges in life yet only One Jesus Christ was in control all along. You will meet Him in a unique way and see how He influenced my life and be inspired and encouraged that He can and will do the same for you. Faith. Although I was born to have a Father-child relationship with the almighty God, the truth of that had not been revealed to me until God removed the veil and opened my eyes to this truth, and conversion took place in my heart. Trials. Thirty years later, when visiting my homeland for the second time, I was faced with an unpleasant surprise when the government of Iran did not permit me to leave the country. Victories. After two months of going between government offices and courtrooms, I realized that I might be there for a very long time. Then I chose a daring path and escaped from Iran with the aid of some men as my angels. These men, using horses, secretly brought me out of Iran in a dangerous adventure over the mountains into Turkey. God used these men to rescue me from the hands of my adversaries to safety. The New Pakistani Middle Class Ammara Maqsood, 2017-11-13 Images of religious extremism and violence in Pakistan and the narratives that interpret them inform global events but also twist back to shape local class politics. Ammara Maqsood focuses on life in Lahore where she untangles these narratives to show how central they are for understanding competition between middle class groups. Islam and the Fate of Others Mohammad Hassan Khalil, 2012-05-03 Can non-Muslims be saved? And can those who are damned to Hell ever be redeemed? In Islam and the Fate of Others Mohammad Hassan Khalil examines the writings of influential medieval and modern Muslim scholars on the controversial and consequential question of non Muslim salvation This is an illuminating study of four of the most prominent figures in the history of Islam Ghazali Ibn Arabi Ibn Taymiyya and Rashid Rida Khalil demonstrates that though these paradigmatic figures tended to affirm the superiority of the Islamic message they also envisioned a God of mercy and justice and a Paradise populated by Muslims and non Muslims Along the way Khalil examines the writings of many other important writers such as Ibn Qayyim al Jawziyya Mulla Sadra Shah Wali Allah of Delhi Muhammad Ali of Lahore James Robson Sayyid Qutb Yusuf al Qaradawi Farid Esack Reza Shah Kazemi T J Winter and Muhammad Legenhausen Jacket Young Muslim Women in India Kabita Chakraborty,2015-12-14 This book based on extensive original research details the changing lives of youth living in slum communities bustees in Kolkata formerly Calcutta Using young people s own photos art and narratives the book explores how Muslim girls and young women are contributing to and impacted by changing youth culture in India We are invited into the risky world of mixed sex dance taking place in clandestine spaces in the slums We join young people on their journeys to find premarital romance and witness their strategic and savvy risk taking when participating in transgressive aspects of consumer culture The book reveals how social changes in India including greater education and employment opportunities as well as powerful middle class Muslim reform discourses are impacting youth the very local level More than just fantasy we see that Bollywood is an important role model which young people consult By carefully negotiating risks and performing multiple identities inspired by modernity globalization and most of all Bollywood culture young people actively participate in a changing India and disrupt dominant discourses about slum youth as poor victims who are excluded from social change Muslim Women and Misogyny Samia Rahman,2024-06-06 Muslim women are among the most fetishised and objectified groups in society today Much is assumed and imagined about their lives and it is all too easy to succumb to orientalist myths For too long Muslim women have been reduced to two dimensional stereotypes empowered heroines rejecting patriarchal religious teachings or victims of a misogyny believed to run deep within Islam But why is this neatly packaged view so pervasive Are oppression and subjugation actually so central to Muslim women s lives How is this misogyny influenced by white supremacy and Islamophobia And where do the biggest threats to Muslim women s freedom and safety really come from In this bold new book Samia Rahman explores the relationships between misogyny and Muslim women s experiences in Britain today untangling complex issues such as Muslim feminism representation toxic masculinity marriage and sexuality Based on extensive interviews with both women and men from Islamic communities she offers a powerful much needed response to the misappropriation of female Muslim voices revealing the many faces of Muslim womanhood within the UK Extremist Islam Kumar Ramakrishna,2022 Since the Bali terrorist attacks in 2002 law enforcement agencies have rigorously combatted terrorist networks in Southeast Asia yet groups motivated by violent extremist interpretations of Islam remain resilient and dangerous This book shines a light on specific beliefs behaviors and policies that impact these challenges ultimately offering cutting edge effective tools for response The book begins by challenging misguided and controversial notions that depict Islam as an inherently violent religion arguing that the theological ideological amalgam of what has been called Salafabism is the more useful lens for recognizing closed minded extremist currents The book carefully distinguishes this Salafabist extremist mindset from relatively open minded Salafabist radicalism paying due attention to nonviolent extremists and the ways they can contribute to rather than reduce violent terrorist activity in the region Using poignant case studies from Malaysia Singapore the Philippines and Indonesia the book clarifies a bewildering range of terminology associated with Islamist violence and explains how imprecise and oversimplified narratives are destructive to progress and worse empowering to terrorist organizations These chapters build up to research informed policies and rhetorical recommendations for improved outcomes With its novel insights into the root causes of extremist terrorism in Southeast Asia the ineffective policies that prohibit progress and promote unrest in this region and the avenues for positive change this book offers a comprehensive strategy for fostering theologically sound yet culturally authentic counterterrorist measures that defend the complex richly textured tapestry of culture in Southeast Asia

Islam and Sectarian Violence in Pakistan Eamon Murphy, 2018-10-23 This book analyses the growth of sectarian based terrorist violence in Pakistan one of the Muslim majority states most affected by sectarian violence ever since it was established in 1947 Sectarian violence among Muslims has emerged as a major global security problem in recent years The author argues that the upsurge in sectarian violence in Pakistan particularly since the late 1970s has had less to do with theological differences between the various sects of Islam but is a consequence of the specific political social economic demographic and cultural changes that have taken place in Pakistan since it was established as an independent state A major theme of the book is the increasing violence extent and expressions of sectarian conflict which have emerged as new forms of sectarian terrorism The volume provides an in depth empirical case study which addresses some major theoretical questions raised by Critical Terrorism Studies researchers in respect of the links between religion and sectarian terrorism in Pakistan and more widely This book will be of much interest to students of critical terrorism studies Asian politics and history religious studies and International Relations in general
