Zeitgeist In Babel The Postmodernist Controversy:

Zeitgeist in Babel Ingeborg Hoesterey, 1991 Lawrence Durrell, Postmodernism and the Ethics of Alterity Stefan Herbrechter, 1999 This book is of interest for any reader wishing to explore the interface between literature and critical and cultural theory It investigates the notions of alterity which underlie the work of Lawrence Durrell and postmodernist theory Grass Irmgard Elsner Hunt Weakening Philosophy Santiago Zabala, 2006-12-12 Moving away from Jacques Derrida's deconstructionism and Paul Ricoeur's hermeneutics and building on his experiences as a politician Vattimo asks if it is still possible to speak of moral imperatives individual rights and political freedom Acknowledging the force of Nietzsche's God is dead Vattimo argues for a philosophy of pensiero debole or weak thinking that shows how moral values can exist without being guaranteed by an external authority His secularising interpretation stresses anti metaphysical elements and puts philosophy into a relationship with postmodern culture Playing with Picturebooks C. Allan, 2012-10-10 Offers new insights into the continuing influence of postmodernism on a wide range of international picture books for children published between 1963 and 2008 Its chapters include metafiction disruption to narrative conventions interrogation of truths historiographic metafiction difference and ex centricity globalisation and media Reading Revelation as Pastiche Michelle Fletcher, 2017-05-18 Scholars have often read the book of Revelation in a way that attempts to ascertain which Old Testament book it most resembles Instead we should read it as a combined and imitative text which actively engages the audience through signalling to multiple texts and multiple textual experiences in short it is an act of pastiche Fletcher analyses the methods used to approach Revelation's relationship with Old Testament texts and shows that although there is literature on Revelation's imitative and multi vocal nature these aspects of the text have not yet been explored in sufficient depth Fletcher's analysis also incorporates an examination of Greco Roman imitation and combination before providing a better way to understand the nature of the book of Revelation as pastiche Fletcher builds her case on four comparative case studies and uses a test case to ascertain how completely they fit with this assessment These insights are then used to clarify how reading Revelation as imitative and combined pastiche can challenge previous scholarly assumptions transforming the way we approach the text Challenging Ideas in Psychiatric Nursing Liam Clarke, 2003-09-01 Challenging Practice in Mental Health Nursing questions theories and practices which have become central in mental health care today The book is inspired by the growing concerns of both the public and professionals about accepted methods of practice and their effects on patients and clients Liam Clarke argues that while many different theories and models exist their validity and effectiveness in caring for patients has yet to be proved Chapters examine holism Rogerian and other counselling theories forensic psychiatry rational emotive therapy This will be an essential and thought provoking read for nurses and other mental health professionals who want to develop as critical practitioners After Rhetoric Stephen R Yarbrough, 2016-06-08 Drawing on philosopher Donald Davidson Yarbrough establishes the idea that community can be a consequence of communication but is not a prerequisite for it By disassociating our thinking from conceptual schemes we can avoid the problems that come with believing in an abstract structure that predates any utterance The Language of Public Administration David John Farmer,1995-07-30 Coping with the practical problems of bureaucracy is hampered by the limited self conception and the constricted mindsets of mainstream public administration thinking Modernist public administration theory although valuable and capable of producing ever more remarkable results is limiting as an explanatory and catalytic force in resolving fundamental problems about the nature size scope and functioning of public bureaucracy and in transforming public bureaucracy into a more positive force This original study specifies a reflexive language paradigm for public administration thinking and shows how a postmodern perspective permits a revolution in the character of thinking about public bureaucracy The author considers imagination deconstruction deterritorialization and alterity Farmer s work emphasizes the need for an expansion in the character and scope of public administration s disciplinary concerns and shows clearly how the study and practice of public administration can be reinvigorated The Tragedy and Comedy of Resistance Carole Anne Taylor,2017-01-30 A major contribution to literary and cultural studies bold illuminating and persuasively argued Karla Holloway Duke University Modernism and Masculinity Gerald Izenberg,2000-11 Modernism and Masculinity argues that a crisis of masculinity among European writers and artists played a key role in the modernist revolution Gerald Izenberg revises the notion that the feminine provided a premodern refuge for artists critical of individualism and materialism Industrialization and the growing power of the market inspired novelist Thomas Mann playwright Frank Wedekind and painter Wassily Kandinsky to feel the problematic character of their own masculinity As a result these artists each came to identify creativity transcendence and freedom with the feminine But their critique of masculinity created enormous challenges How could they appropriate a feminine aesthetic while retaining their own masculine identities How did appropriating the feminine affect their personal relationships or their political views Modernism and Masculinity seeks to answer these questions In this absorbing combination of biography and formal critique Izenberg reconsiders the works of Mann Wedekind Kandinsky and demonstrates how the curses of masculinity they endure are found not just within the images and forms of their art but in the distinct and very personal impulses that inspired it Left Hemisphere Razmig Keucheyan,2013-07-02 As the crisis of capitalism unfolds the need for alternatives is felt ever more intensely The struggle between radical movements and the forces of reaction will be merciless A crucial battlefield where the outcome of the crisis will in part be decided is that of theory Over the last twenty five years radical intellectuals across the world have produced important and innovative ideas The endeavour to transform the world without falling into the catastrophic traps of the past has been a common element uniting these new approaches This book aimed at both the general reader and the specialist offers the first global cartography of the expanding intellectual field of critical contemporary thought More than thirty authors and intellectual currents of every continent are presented in a clear and succinct manner A history of critical thought in the twentieth and twenty first centuries is also provided helping situate current thinkers in a broader historical and sociological perspective

Contemporary Fiction Jago Morrison,2003-09-02 This is the ideal guide for those studying contemporary fiction for the first time The last twenty five years have seen an explosion of new developments in the English language novel Because of its enormous diversity however the field of contemporary fiction studies can appear complex and confusing Jago Morrison s Contemporary Fiction provides a much needed accessible introduction to the field He enables readers to navigate the subject by introducing the key areas of debate and offers in depth discussions of many of the most significant texts Writers examined include Ian McEwan Maxine Hong Kingston Jeanette Winterson Toni Morrison Salman Rushdie Angela Carter Hanif Kureishi Buchi Emecheta and Alice Walker Tackling issues such as history time and narrative the body race and ethnicity this represents an important contribution to the understanding of contemporary fiction

Jean François Lyotard: Politics and history of philosophy Victor E. Taylor,Gregg Lambert,2006

Media and Communication Research Methods Arthur Asa Berger,2018-12-27 This step by step introduction to conducting media and communication research offers practical insights along with Arthur Asa Berger s signature lighthearted style to make discussion of qualitative and quantitative methods easy to comprehend The Fifth Edition of Media and Communication Research Methods includes a new chapter on discourse analysis expanded discussion of social media including discussion of the ethics of Facebook experiments and expanded coverage of the research process with new discussion of search strategies and best practices for analyzing research articles Ideal for research students at both the graduate and undergraduate level this proven book is clear concise and accompanied by just the right number of detailed examples useful applications and valuable exercises to help students to understand and master media and communication research

Second World Postmodernisms Vladimir Kulic,2019-02-21 If postmodernism is indeed the cultural logic of late capitalism why did typical postmodernist themes like ornament colour history and identity find their application in the architecture of the socialist Second World How do we explain the retreat into paper architecture and theoretical discussion in societies still nominally devoted to socialist modernization Exploring the intersection of two areas of growing scholarly interest postmodernism and the architecture of the former socialist world this edited collection stakes out new ground in charting architecture s various transformations in the 1970s and 80s Fourteen essays together explore the question of whether or not architectural postmodernism had a specific Second World variant The collection demonstrates both the unique nature of Second World architectural phenomena and also assesses connections with western postmodernism The case studies cover the vast geographical scope from Eastern Europe to China and Cuba They address a wealth of aesthetic discursive and practical phenomena interpreting them in the broader socio political context of the last decades of the Cold War The result provides a greatly expanded map of recent architectural history which redefines postmodernist architecture in a more theoretically comprehensive and global way

The New Modernist Studies Reader Sean Latham,Gayle

Rogers, 2021-01-28 Bringing together 17 foundational texts in contemporary modernist criticism in one accessible volume this book explores the debates that have transformed the field of modernist studies at the turn of the millennium and into the 21st century The New Modernist Studies Reader features chapters covering the major topics central to the study of modernism today including Feminism gender and sexuality Empire and race Print and media cultures Theories and history of modernism Each text includes an introductory summary of its historical and intellectual contexts with guides to further reading to help students and teachers explore the ideas further Includes essential texts by leading critics such as Anne Anlin Cheng Brent Hayes Edwards Rita Felski Susan Stanford Friedman Mark Goble Miriam Bratu Hansen Andreas Huyssen David James Heather K Love Douglas Mao Mark S Morrisson Michael North Jessica Pressman Lawrence Rainey Paul K Saint Amour Bonnie Kime Scott Urmila Seshagiri Robert Spoo and Rebecca L Walkowitz Mapping Postcommunist Cultures Vitaly Chernetsky, 2007-01-08 In Mapping Postcommunist Cultures Chernetsky argues that Russia and Ukraine exemplify the principal paradigms of post Soviet cultural development In Russia this has manifested itself in the subversive dismantling of the totalitarian linguistic regime and the foregrounding of previously marginalized subject positions In Ukraine work in these areas shows how the traumas of centuries of colonial oppression are being overcome through the carnivalesque decrowning of ideological dogmas and an affirmation of a new type of community most recently demonstrated in the peaceful Orange Revolution of 2004 Mapping Postcommunist Cultures also critiques the neglect of the former communist world in current models of cultural globalization People of the Book Jeffrey Rubin-Dorsky, Shelley Fisher Fishkin, 1996 A Mark Twain scholar An African American philosopher A lesbian feminist literary critic A Cuban American anthropologist A German immigrant to the United States A professor of English at a Jesuit university All share their reflections on the interconnectedness of identities and ideas in People of the Book the first collection in which Jewish American scholars examine how their Jewishness has shaped and influenced their intellectual endeavors and how their intellectual work has deepened their sense of themselves as Jews The contributors are highly productive and respected Jewish American scholars critics and teachers from departments of English history American studies Romance literature Slavic studies art women's studies comparative literature anthropology Judaic studies and philosophy Nearly an equal mix of men and women the authors of these analytical and autobiographical essays include white Jews and black Jews orthodox conservative reform and totally secular Jews Jews by birth and Jews by conversion heterosexual Jews and homosexual Jews past presidents of the Modern Language Association and American Studies Association and young scholars at the start of their careers The Poetics of Self-consciousness Jonathan Mayhew, 1994 Twentieth century poetry engages in a highly self-conscious meditation on the nature of poetic language Spanish poetry however has sometimes been considered an exception to this tendency This book with its focus on linguistic self-reflexivity refutes the notion that major Spanish poets such as Jorge Guillen and Vicente Aleixandre are theoretically naive creators In a series of nuanced readings Jonathan Mayhew demonstrates the extent to which modern Spanish poets are conscious of their linguistic medium Previous books on Spanish poetry published in English have been more limited in scope usually including poets of a single generation The Poetics of Self Consciousness is the first to study well known writers of the earlier part of the century along with more recent poets such as Jose Angel Valente Jaime Gil de Biedma Jose Maria Alvarez and Juan Lamillar Interpreting poetic texts written from the 1920s through the 1980s Mayhew is able to trace the evolving function of literary self consciousness in Spanish poetry while remaining attentive to the differences among writers of the same historical moment The modernist poets of the earlier part of the century are preoccupied by the problem of literary mimesis the representation of reality through language In the postwar years poets turned their attention to the social and ethical dimensions of poetic language The postmodernists of more recent decades finally are increasingly concerned with their own belatedness with respect to cultural traditions of the past Critics hailed Jonathan Mayhew's first book Claudio Rodriguez and the Language of Poetic vision as an enlightening and timely book on perhaps Spain's greatest living poet and a signal first effort from a critic with high scholarly standards and a penetrating insight into contemporary poetry With The Poetics of Self Consciousness Twentieth Century Spanish Poetry readers will discover another probing study of other modern and postmodern Spanish poets
