Whale Rider :

The Whale Rider Witi Ihimaera, 2008-11-27 An international bestseller that was made into a multiple award winning film. Eight year old Kahu craves her great grandfather's love and attention. But he is focused on his duties as chief of a Maori tribe in Whangara on the East Coast of New Zealand, a tribe that claims descent from the legendary whale rider. In every generation since the whale rider, a male has inherited the title of chief. But now there is no male heir; there's only Kahu. She should be the next in line for the title, but her great grandfather is blinded by tradition and sees no use for a girl. Kahu will not be ignored. And in her struggle, she has a unique ally: the whale rider himself, from whom she has inherited the ability to communicate with whales. Once that sacred gift is revealed, Kahu may be able to re-establish her people's ancestral connections, earn her great grandfather's attention, and lead her tribe to a bold new future. The Whale Rider Witi Ihimaera, 2025-08-05

Karen Siess, 2020-06-21 On the east coast of New Zealand, the Whangara people believe their presence there dates back a thousand years or more to a single ancestor, Paiea, who escaped death when his canoe capsized by riding to shore on the back of a whale. From then on, Whangara chiefs, always the first born, always male, have been considered Paiea's direct descendants. Pai, an 11 year old girl in a patriarchal New Zealand tribe, believes she is destined to be the new chief. But her grandfather, Koro, is bound by tradition to pick a male leader. Pai loves Koro more than anyone in the world, but she must fight him and a thousand years of tradition to fulfill her destiny. Whale Rider Witi Ihimaera, 2003-05-01 As her beloved grandfather, chief of the Maori tribe of Whangara, New Zealand, struggles to lead in difficult times and to find a male successor, young Kahu is developing a mysterious relationship with whales, particularly the ancient bull whale whose leg

Cinema at the Periphery Dina Iordanova,David Martin-Jones,Belén Vidal,2010 Highlights the industries markets identities and histories that distinguish cinema beyond the traditional hubs of mainstream Western cinema From Iceland to Iran from Singapore to Scotland a growing intellectual and cultural wave of production is taking cinema beyond the borders of its place of origin exploring faraway places interacting with barely known peoples and making new localities imaginable In these films previously entrenched spatial divisions no longer function as firmly fixed grid coordinates the hierarchical position of place as center is subverted and new forms of representation become possible In Cinema at the Periphery editors Dina Iordanova David Martin Jones and Bel n Vidal assemble criticism that explores issues of the periphery including questions of transnationality place space passage and migration Cinema at the Periphery examines the periphery in terms of locations practices methods and themes It includes geographic case studies of small national cinemas located at the global margins like New Zealand and Scotland but also of filmmaking that comes from peripheral cultures like Palestinian stateless cinema Australian Aboriginal films and cinema from Quebec Therefore the volume is divided into two key areas industries and markets on the one hand and identities and histories on the other Yet as a whole the contributors illustrate that the concept of periphery is not fixed but is always changing according to patterns of industry ideology and taste Cinema at the Periphery highlights the inextricable interrelationship that exists between production modes and circulation channels and the emerging narratives of histories and identities they enable In the present era of globalization this timely examination of the periphery will interest teachers and students of film and media studies

Heim, 1998 Covering the two decades from 1972 Swiss scholar Otto Heim presents detailed readings of the novels and short fiction by Heretaunga Pat Baker Alan Duff Patricia Grace Keri Hulme Witi Ihimaera Bruce Stewart J C Sturm Apirana Taylor and Ngahuia Te Awekotuku His book places the fiction by Maori writers in the context of a culture of survival and traces its textual engagement with violence between empathy and sacrifice from the privacy of domestic violence to the public arenas of systemic violence and war He argues that out of this confrontation with violence emerges a distinctive ethnic world view created by the construction of individual experience the development of an ideological stance and the expression of a spiritual orientation Heim's analysis shows works of fiction by contemporary Maori writers as challenging explorations of the constraints placed on the literary imagination by the urgent facts of the human condition and the imperatives of culture

World Cinema, Theology, and the Human Antonio Sison, 2012-05-04 Forging an open minded but reasoned dialogue between nine acclaimed titles of world cinema and a range of theological perspectives that touch on the theme of human experience World Cinema Theology and the Human offers fresh portals of insight for the interdisciplinary area of Theology and Film In Sison's approach it is the cinematic representation of vivid humanity not necessarily propositional statements about God and religion that lays down a bridge to a conversation with theology Thus the book's project is to look for the divine presence written not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts depicted on screen by way of audiovisual language Seeking to redress the interdisciplinary's narrow predilection for Hollywood blockbusters the book casts its net wider to include a culturally diverse selection of case studies from festival gems such as Singapore's Be With Me and South Africa's Yesterday to widely acclaimed sleeper hits such as Britain's Slumdog Millionaire and New Zealand's Whale Rider The book will appeal to scholars of theology and religious cultural studies interested in the Theology Religion Film interface and because of its commitment to an examination of film qua film a crossover readership from film studies
