What A Difference A Haiku Makes A Of Haiku:

What a Difference a Haiku Makes David Barbour, 2008-09-28 This book of haiku is a collection of haiku I wrote mostly in college when I found myself bored in classes There are over 200 of them in my collection and they run a gamut of different topics Although haiku are usually associated with nature I wanted to use this simple poetic form to take a look at more serious and deeper topics so in a way this is a book of haiku for adults Transpacific Correspondence Yuichiro

Onishi, Fumiko Sakashita, 2019-03-12 Since 1954 Japan has become home to a vibrant but little known tradition of Black Studies Transpacific Correspondence introduces this intellectual tradition to English speaking audiences placing it in the context of a long history of Afro Asian solidarity and affirming its commitments to transnational inquiry and cosmopolitan exchange More than six decades in the making Japan's Black Studies continues to shake up commonly held knowledge of Black history culture and literature and build a truly globalized field of Black Studies Developing Multilingual Writing

Hiroe Kobayashi, Carol Rinnert, 2023-02-14 With millions of people becoming multilingual writers in the globalized digital world this book helps to empower writers to connect with their readers and project their identities effectively across languages social contexts and genres In a series of closely related studies that build on each other we look comprehensively at how writers develop their ability to construct meaning for different audiences in multiple languages This book which draws on various approaches including a social view of writing multicompetence adaptive transfer complex systems theory motivation and translanguaging contributes to on going efforts to integrate differing approaches to multilingual writing research This book focusses on how writer agency control over text construction audience awareness ability to meet expectations of prospective readers and writer identity projection of image of the writer in the text progress as multilingual writers gain more experience across languages The within writer cross sectional text analysis Chapters 2-5 examines 185 essays written in Japanese and English by eight groups of writers from novice to advanced N 103 supplemented by insights from these writers reflections We explore how they employ three kinds of text features discourse types metadiscourse and self representation which relate to their developing agency audience and writer identity in their text construction and propose a new model for writer voice construction based on those features The four case studies Chapters 6-9 focus on five university students and six professionals to examine closely how individual writers agency audience and identity are interrelated in their text construction in two or three languages and diverse genres including academic and creative writing The combined studies provide new insights into multilingual writing development by revealing the close interrelationship among these three principal aspects of writing across languages They also demonstrate the writers multi directional use of dynamic transfer reuse and reshaping for L1 L2 and L3 text construction and the use of mixed languages L1 L2 or L1 L3 translanguaging for composing processes in addition to the creative power of multilingual writers One significant contribution of this book is to provide models of innovative ways to analyze text and new directions for writing research that go beyond complexity accuracy and fluency Categories and detailed examples of text features used for writer voice construction e g specific characteristics of Personal Emergent and Mature Voice are helpful for writing teachers and for developing writers to improve ways of conveying their own intended writer identity to the reader The studies break new ground by extending our analysis of L2 writing to the same writers L1 and L3 writing and multiple genres Atomic Tunes Tim Smolko,Joanna Smolko,2021-05-11 What is the soundtrack for a nuclear war During the Cold War over 500 songs were written about nuclear weapons fear of the Soviet Union civil defense bomb shelters McCarthyism uranium mining the space race espionage the Berlin Wall and glasnost This music uncovers aspects of these world changing events that documentaries and history books cannot In Atomic Tunes Tim and Joanna Smolko explore everything from the serious to the comical the morbid to the crude showing the widespread concern among musicians coping with the effect of communism on American society and the threat of a nuclear conflict of global proportions Atomic Tunes presents a musical history of the Cold War analyzing the songs that capture the fear of those who lived under the shadow of Stalin Sputnik mushroom clouds and missiles Consciousness, Theatre, Literature and the Arts 2015 Daniel Meyer-Dinkgräfe,2016-12-14 This book brings together essays based on papers presented at the 6th International Conference on Consciousness Theatre Literature and the Arts CTLA held from June 10 to 12 2015 at St Francis College Brooklyn Heights New York The conference was attended by seventy delegates from twenty countries across the world the twenty three essays collected here come from delegates from twelve of those countries The range of contributions reflects the variety of material presented and discussed at the conference across the fields of philosophy literature fine arts music dance performance and theatre The book the sixth in the series will appeal to the growing international community of researchers active and interested in the study of literature theatre and the arts from a consciousness studies perspective Transactions of the Asiatic Society of Japan Asiatic Society of Japan,1925 List of transactions v 1 41 in v 41 □□□□ ,1995 Translation Translation ,2021-07-26 Translation Translation contributes to current debate on the question of translation dealt with in an interdisciplinary perspective with implications not only of a theoretical order but also of the didactic and the practical orders In the context of globalization the question of translation is fundamental for education and responds to new community needs with reference to Europe and more extensively to the international world In its most obvious sense translation concerns verbal texts and their relations among different languages However to remain within the sphere of verbal signs languages consist of a plurality of different languages that also relate to each other through translation processes Moreover translation occurs between verbal languages and nonverbal languages and among nonverbal languages without necessarily involving verbal languages Thus far the allusion is to translation processes within the sphere of anthroposemiosis But translation occurs among signs and the signs implicated are those of the semiotic sphere in its totality which are not exclusively signs of the linguistic verbal order Beyond anthroposemiosis translation is a fact of life and invests the entire biosphere or biosemiosphere as clearly evidenced by research in biosemiotics for where there is life there are signs and where there are signs or semiotic processes there is translation indeed semiotic processes are translation processes According to this approach reflection on translation obviously cannot be restricted to the domain of linguistics but must necessarily involve semiotics the general science or theory of signs In this theoretical framework essays have been included not only from major translation experts but also from researchers working in different areas in addition to semiotics and linguistics also philosophy literary criticism cultural studies gender studies biology and the medical sciences All scholars work on problems of translation in the light of their own special competencies and interests The Canner ,1934 New York Supreme Court , Canner and Dried Fruit Packer ,1927 Fusion ,1989 Asia ,1934 Commonweal ,1935 The East ,1971 Art and Language Lessons for the Elementary Classroom Ruth L. Peck, Helen E. Peck,1969 Triveni ,2003 Themes Teachers Use Marjorie J.
