DeLong-Bas, 2018-03-12 Most Americans and Europeans have by now heard of Shariah In the West politicians media commentators televangelists and others have stoked fears that Muslims intend to impose a repressive rule based on Shariah in America and Europe Shariah has been portrayed as a medieval system that oppresses women stifles human rights and imposes harsh punishments like stoning and amputation In reality however Shariah is a complex concept that has been interpreted in many ways over time and around the world It plays a vital role in the lives of Muslims around the world offering guidance on everything from personal morality to ritual practices family life and finance In this timely addition to Oxford's What Everyone Needs to Know series John Esposito and Natana DeLong Bas offer an accessible and thorough guide to this little understood but often caricatured system The book provides clear and even handed answers to a wide range of questions covering the history development content and practice of Shariah What are its origins What is a Shariah court and how does it work How does a person become a Muslim in the eyes of Islamic law Does Islamic law allow Muslims to marry non Muslims What are blasphemy laws and how are they enforced How does Islamic law govern trade and contracts of sale Do Muslims in the West want Shariah Law Is there a need to protect American and European societies from the imposition of Shariah By answering the questions that so many people have about Shariah and its role in Muslim life this book makes an invaluable contribution to the crucial task of fostering mutual understanding in our globalizing pluralistic societies
