What Is a Madrasa? Ebrahim Moosa, 2015-04-06 Taking us inside the world of the madrasa the most common type of school for religious instruction in the Islamic world Ebrahim Moosa provides an indispensable resource for anyone seeking to understand orthodox Islam in global affairs Focusing on postsecondary level religious institutions in the Indo Pakistan heartlands Moosa explains how a madrasa can simultaneously be a place of learning revered by many and an institution feared by many others especially in a post 9 11 world Drawing on his own years as a madrasa student in India Moosa describes in fascinating detail the daily routine for teachers and students today He shows how classical theological legal and Qur'anic texts are taught and he illuminates the history of ideas and politics behind the madrasa system Addressing the contemporary political scene in a clear eyed manner Moosa introduces us to madrasa leaders who hold diverse and conflicting perspectives on the place of religion in society Some admit that they face intractable problems and challenges including militancy others Moosa says hide their heads in the sand and fail to address the crucial issues of the day Offering practical suggestions to both madrasa leaders and U S policymakers for reform and understanding Moosa demonstrates how madrasas today still embody the highest aspirations and deeply felt needs of traditional Muslims

A World Beyond Global Disorder Fred Dallmayr, Edward Demenchonok, 2017-05-11 A world which like ours has been ravaged by some sixty wars in recent decades can rightly be described as the scene of global disorder Even today the same world is traumatized by hot and cold wars proxy wars and repeated outbursts of blood filled mayhem not to mention the threat of a nuclear holocaust unleashed by big power rivalries These are not mere statistics but wounds in the body of humanity calling for healing and reconciliation In biblical terms human beings are not meant to be the owners or the destroyers of the world but rather its custodians or caretakers This collection is a summons to responsible care taking and it approaches the subject from an intercultural perspective in a variety of fields including religion and politics The topics covered range from accounts of major global calamities today to explorations of possible political economic and societal reforms and to the invocation of basic religious and philosophical resources needed for the recovery of a world beyond global disorder China's Muslims and Japan's Empire Kelly A. Hammond, 2020-09-30 In this transnational history of World War II Kelly A Hammond places Sino Muslims at the center of imperial Japan's challenges to Chinese nation building efforts Revealing the little known story of Japan's interest in Islam during its occupation of North China Hammond shows how imperial Japanese aimed to defeat the Chinese Nationalists in winning the hearts and minds of Sino Muslims a vital minority population Offering programs that presented themselves as protectors of Islam the Japanese aimed to provide Muslims with a viable alternative and at the same time to create new Muslim consumer markets that would the Japanese hoped act to subvert the existing global capitalist world order and destabilize the Soviets This history can be told only by reinstating agency to Muslims in China who became active participants in the brokering and political jockeying between the Chinese Nationalists and the Japanese Empire Hammond argues that the competition for their loyalty was central to the creation of the ethnoreligious identity of Muslims living on the Chinese mainland Their wartime experience ultimately helped shape the formation of Sino Muslims religious identities within global Islamic networks as well as their incorporation into the Chinese state where the conditions of that incorporation remain unstable and contested to this day Hajj to the Heart Scott Kugle, 2021-12-28 Against the sweeping backdrop of South Asian history this is a story of journeys taken by sixteenth century reformist Muslim scholars and Sufi mystics from India to Arabia At the center is the influential Sufi scholar Shaykh Ali Muttaqi and his little known network of disciples Scott Kugle relates how Ali Muttaqi an expert in Arabic scriptural hermeneutics and hadith left his native South Asia and traversed treacherous seas to make the Hajj to Mecca Settling in Mecca he continued to influence his homeland from overseas Kugle draws on his original translations of Arabic and Persian manuscripts never before available in English to trace Ali Muttaqi's devotional writings revealing how the Hajj transformed his spiritual life and political loyalties The story expands across three generations of peripatetic Sufi masters in the Mutaqqi lineage as they travel for purposes of pilgrimage scholarship and sometimes simply for survival along Indian Ocean maritime routes linking global Muslim communities Exploring the political intrigue scholarly debates and diverse social milieus that shaped the colorful personalities of his Sufi subjects Kugle argues for the importance of Indian Sufi thought in the study of hadith and of ethics in Islam We are proud to announce that this book is freely available in an open access enhanced edition thanks to TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem a collaboration of the Association of American Universities the Association of University Presses and the Association of Research Libraries and the generous support of Emory University and the Andrew W Mellon Foundation Learn more at the TOME website openmonographs.org The open access enhanced edition of Hajj to the Heart can be found here <https://manifold.eds.emory.edu/projects/hajj-to-the-heart>

Realizing Islam Zachary Valentine Wright, 2021-07-01 The Tijaniyya is the largest Sufi order in West and North Africa In this unprecedented analysis of the Tijaniyya's origins and development in the late eighteenth century Zachary Valentine Wright situates the order within the broader intellectual history of Islam in the early modern period Introducing the group s founder Ahmad al Tijani 1737 1815 Wright focuses on the wider network in which al Tijani traveled revealing it to be a veritable global Islamic revival whose scholars commanded large followings shared key ideas and produced literature read widely throughout the Muslim world They were linked through chains of knowledge transmission from which emerged vibrant discourses of renewal in the face of perceived social and political corruption Wright argues that this constellation of remarkable Muslim intellectuals despite the uncertainty of the age promoted personal verification in religious learning With distinctive concern for the notions of human actualization and a universal human condition the Tijaniyya emphasized the importance of the realization of Muslim identity Since its beginnings in North Africa in the eighteenth century the Tijaniyya has quietly expanded its influence beyond Africa with significant populations in the Middle East Southeast Asia and North America We are proud to offer this book in our usual print and ebook formats plus as an open access edition available through the Sustainable History Monograph Project

Islam without Europe Ahmad S. Dallal, 2018-04-20 Replete with a cast of giants in Islamic thought and philosophy Ahmad S Dallal s pathbreaking intellectual history of the eighteenth century Muslim world challenges stale views of this period as one of decline stagnation and the engendering of a widespread fundamentalism Far from being moribund Dallal argues the eighteenth century prior to systematic European encounters was one of the most fertile eras in Islamic thought Across vast Islamic territories Dallal charts in rich detail not only how intellectuals rethought and reorganized religious knowledge but also the reception and impact of their ideas From the banks of the Ganges to the shores of the Atlantic commoners and elites alike embraced the appeals of Muslim thinkers who while preserving classical styles of learning advocated for general participation by Muslims in the definition of Islam Dallal also uncovers the regional origins of most reform projects showing how ideologies were forged in particular sociopolitical contexts Reformists ventures were in large part successful up until the beginnings of European colonization of the Muslim world By the nineteenth century the encounter with Europe changed Islamic discursive culture in significant ways into one that was largely articulated in reaction to the radical challenges of colonialism

In a Pure Muslim Land Simon Wolfgang Fuchs, 2019-03-05 Centering Pakistan in a story of transnational Islam stretching from South Asia to the Middle East Simon Wolfgang Fuchs offers the first in depth ethnographic history of the intellectual production of Shi is and their religious competitors in this Land of the Pure The notion of Pakistan as the pinnacle of modern global Muslim aspiration forms a crucial component of this story It has empowered Shi is who form about twenty percent of the country s population to advance alternative conceptions of their religious hierarchy while claiming the support of towering grand ayatollahs in Iran and Iraq Fuchs shows how popular Pakistani preachers and scholars have boldly tapped into the esoteric potential of Shi ism occupying a creative and at times disruptive role as brokers translators and self confident pioneers of contemporary Islamic thought They have indigenized the Iranian Revolution and formulated their own ideas for fulfilling the original promise of Pakistan Challenging typical views of

Pakistan as a mere Shi'i backwater Fuchs argues that its complex religious landscape represents how a local South Asian Islam may open up space for new intellectual contributions to global Islam Yet religious ideology has also turned Pakistan into a deadly battlefield sectarian groups since the 1980s have been bent on excluding Shi'is as harmful to their own vision of an exemplary Islamic state

The Politics of Knowledge in Premodern Islam Omid Safi, 2006-05-26 The eleventh and twelfth centuries comprised a period of great significance in Islamic history The Great Saljuqs a Turkish speaking tribe hailing from central Asia ruled the eastern half of the Islamic world for a great portion of that time In a far reaching analysis that combines social cultural and political history Omid Safi demonstrates how the Saljuqs tried to create a lasting political presence by joining forces with scholars and saints among them a number of well known Sufi Muslims who functioned under state patronage In order to legitimize their political power Saljuq rulers presented themselves as champions of what they alleged was an orthodox and normative view of Islam Their notion of religious orthodoxy was constructed by administrators in state sponsored arenas such as madrasas and khanaqahs Thus orthodoxy was linked to political loyalty and disloyalty to the state was articulated in terms of religious heresy Drawing on a vast reservoir of primary sources and eschewing anachronistic terms of analysis such as nationalism Safi revises conventional views both of the Saljuqs as benevolent Muslim rulers and of the Sufis as timeless ethereal mystics He makes a significant contribution to understanding premodern Islam as well as illuminating the complex relationship between power and religious knowledge

Everyday Islamic Law and the Making of Modern South Asia Elizabeth Lhost, 2022-05-10 Beginning in the late eighteenth century British rule transformed the relationship between law society and the state in South Asia But qazis and muftis alongside ordinary people without formal training in law fought back as the colonial system in India sidelined Islamic legal experts They petitioned the East India Company for employment lobbied imperial legislators for recognition and built robust institutions to serve their communities By bringing legal debates into the public sphere they resisted the colonial state's authority over personal law and rejected legal codification by embracing flexibility and possibility With postcards letters and telegrams they made everyday Islamic law vibrant and resilient and challenged the hegemony of the Anglo Indian legal system Following these developments from the beginning of the Raj through independence Elizabeth Lhost rejects narratives of stagnation and decline to show how an unexpected coterie of scholars practitioners and ordinary individuals negotiated the contests and challenges of colonial legal change The rich archive of unpublished fatwa files qazi notebooks and legal documents they left behind chronicles their efforts to make Islamic law relevant for everyday life even beyond colonial courtrooms and the confines of family law Lhost shows how ordinary Muslims shaped colonial legal life and how their diversity and difference have contributed to contemporary debates about religion law pluralism and democracy in South Asia and beyond
