Bolshevism in Art, and Its Propagandists Veritas (pseud.), 1924

The Artist as a Dramatic Character Majeed Mohammed Midhin, 2025-09-10 The use of the artist does not necessarily reflect the playwrights themselves it may be further used to talk about social economic and political situations It has acquired deep significance as it is used as a veneer to criticise the political ruling party throughout its history This book represents a significant contribution to the literature in general and that of theatre and performance in particular by using a tranche of previously unused primary source material to examine the use of the artist and the key role he/she has played in those three decades Its findings are heavily based on new primary sources including interviews with the three playwrights themselves Its unique selling points are therefore that it will be the only book to have examined three playwrights over three decades with reference to some more recent artists from the Middle East especially Iraqi The book's primary audience will be academics particularly students of English literature history and performance studies It will prove a useful secondary text across undergraduate and postgraduate courses on the politics of text analysis which are offered by most US British Australian and Middle Eastern universities and which continue to attract large numbers of students The New Age ,1923 The Connoisseur ,1928 The Touchstone ,1920 The Touchstone and the American Art Student Magazine ,1920 Framing Consciousness in Art Gregory Minissale,2009

Framing Consciousness in Art examines how the conscious mind enacts and processes the frame that both surrounds the work of art yet is also shown as an element inside its space These frames in frames may be seen in works by Teniers Vel zquez Vermeer Degas Rodin and Cartier Bresson and in the films of Alfred Hitchcock and Bu uel The book also deals with framing in a variety of cultural contexts Indian Chinese and African going beyond Euro American formalist and aesthetic concerns which dominate critical theories of the frame The Touchstone Mary Fanton Roberts,1920 The Painter in History Ernest Henry Short,1929

Whispering the Techniques of Language: An Emotional Journey through What Makes A Degas A Degas
