Gerald Roche

Tibet Since 1950 Silence Prison Or Exile:

Tibet Since 1950 Orville Schell, Jeffrey Aaronson, 2000 A look at the political oppression of the Tibetan people by the Chinese government The Politics of Language Oppression in Tibet Gerald Roche, 2024-11-15 In The Politics of Language Oppression in Tibet Gerald Roche sheds light on a global crisis of linguistic diversity that will see at least half of the world's languages disappear this century Roche explores the erosion of linguistic diversity through a study of a community on the northeastern Tibetan Plateau in the People's Republic of China Manegacha is but one of the sixty minority languages in Tibet and is spoken by about 8 000 people who are otherwise mostly indistinguishable from the Tibetan communities surrounding them Recently many in these communities have switched to speaking Tibetan and Manegacha faces an uncertain future The author uses the Manegacha case to show how linguistic diversity across Tibet is collapsing under assimilatory state policies He looks at how global advocacy networks inadequately acknowledge this issue highlighting the complex politics of language in an inter connected world The Politics of Language Oppression in Tibet broadens our understanding of Tibet and China the crisis of global linguistic diversity and the radical changes needed to address this crisis Words and Wounds Sean Akerman, 2019-06-04 In this study of exile Sean Akerman chronicles the ways in which narrative approaches provide opportunities to understand and represent the lives of those who have been displaced after violence Drawing on fieldwork he conducted with Tibetan exiles in New York City and supplemented with archival research from other exiles around the world Akerman investigates how narrative approaches can reveal what it's like to embody historical tensions how identity becomes contested within displaced groups and how personal stories can impact political realities The book also engages with the ethics of research practices more generally How does a researcher write in a way that does justice to displaced lives while working within a scientific framework What sort of ethics are at stake as one spends long hours interviewing an informant and then interprets that person's stories The exploration of narrative approaches then becomes a way to imagine new possibilities of representation and call attention to the limitations and power dynamics within the discipline of psychology In light of massive upheavals and displacements all over the world Words and Wounds provides a timely consideration of how to understand and chronicle one of the most pressing issues of this age The Tibetan Diaspora Tenzin Dolma, 2019-01-01

The book is an anthology of hand picked articles written on Tibetan refugees livelihood in exile Each writer did a thorough research and their work clearly reflects their hardwork unique in its own way Backed by their study some shared their opinion and some synthesized different views and studies Without limiting to the socio political condition of Tibetan refugees the book touches large array of subjects the tradition culture most importantly their dedication The book will help you understand the struggle of Tibetan refugee from early stages to have become self reliant Civil Wars of the World Karl DeRouen Jr., Uk Heo, 2007-05-10 This unique two volume reference is the most authoritative up to date resource available for information and data on the most volatile civil wars around the globe since World War II At a time when historians are devoting more and more research to conflicts within nations Civil Wars of the World Major Conflicts since World War II is an invaluable addition to the available resources In two volumes it ranges around the globe to cover the most volatile and deadly civil wars of the past 60 years including the bloody impasses in the Middle East devastating tribal warfare in Africa Cold War fueled conflicts in Eastern Europe and Asia the seemingly unbreakable cycle of rebellion and repression in some regions of Latin America and more Civil Wars of the World moves country by country to describe the causes course and consequences of internal conflicts within each nation Coverage includes the historical background of each country geographic and economic factors descriptions of rebel groups and governments e g regime type size of military capacity terrorism foreign and or intergovernmental organization IGO intervention UN foreign support for rebels foreign aid and prospects for peace

Recent Developments in Tibet United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations. Subcommittee on East Asian and Pacific Affairs, 2001 Tibetan Diary Geoff Childs, 2004-09-27 High in the Nepali Himalaya are a number of ethnic Tibetan communities Geoff Childs presents a portrait of Nubri Kutang in which he chronicles the daily lives of community members in all their tangled intricacies Tibet Michael Buckley, 2012 Exploring ethnic Tibet independently is a challenge With the land of snows having some of the wildest and roughest road routes in high Asia motoring mountain biking and trekking options are all given due attention in this new edition High quality numerous maps set this guide apart from other guides on Tibet and the trekking section has been expanded to include more on the main treks including Everest Base Camp Genden to Samye Namtso trek and Kailash region treks Particular attention has been paid to the Amdo and Kham regions not usually covered in guidebooks Political and cultural issues make Tibet a sensitive destination for Westerners so Michael Buckley's authoritative advice includes guidelines on cultural etiquette local customs and travelling with minimum impact on the culture and environment The chapter on language includes a section covering Tibetan script The Museum on the Roof of the World Clare E. Harris, 2012-10-30 For millions of people around the world Tibet is a domain of undisturbed tradition the Dalai Lama a spiritual guide By contrast the Tibet Museum opened in Lhasa by the Chinese in 1999 was designed to reclassify Tibetan objects as cultural relics and the Dalai Lama as obsolete Suggesting that both these views are suspect Clare E Harris argues in The Museum on the Roof of the World that for the past one hundred and fifty years British and Chinese collectors and curators have tried to convert Tibet itself into a museum an image some Tibetans have begun to contest This book is a powerful account of the museums created by for or on behalf of Tibetans and the nationalist agendas that have played out in them Harris begins with the British public's first encounter with Tibetan culture in 1854 She then examines the role of imperial collectors and photographers in representations of the region and visits competing museums of Tibet in India and Lhasa Drawing on fieldwork in Tibetan communities she also documents the activities of contemporary Tibetan artists as they try to displace the utopian visions of their country prevalent in the West as well as the negative assessments of their heritage common in China Illustrated with many previously unpublished images this book addresses the pressing question of who has the right to represent Tibet in museums and beyond Governing China's Multiethnic Frontiers Morris Rossabi, 2004 Leading scholars examine the Chinese government's administration of its ethnic minority regions particularly border areas where ethnicity is at times a volatile issue and where separatist movements are feared Chapters focus on the Muslim Hui multiethnic southwest China Inner Mongolia Xinjiang and Tibet Together these studies provide an overview of government relations with key minority populations against which one can view evolving dialogues and disputes Contributors are Gardner Bovington David Bachman Uradyn E Bulag Melvyn C Goldstein Mette Halskov Hansen Matthew T Kapstein and Jonathan Lipman
