The Radical Imagination of Black Women Pearl K. Ford Dowe, Pearl K. Ford, 2023 Historically many Black women have viewed political participation as a means to achieve full equality and improve their status in US society To this end Black women have long engaged in politics through activism voting mobilization and seeking office Since 2016 the number of women particularly Black women seeking office has increased dramatically Including interviews with Black women holding political office at the national state and local levels as well as focus group data The Radical Imagination of Black Women challenges political science s current approach to political ambition by exploring how Black women decide to seek political office Pearl K Ford Dowe argues that ambition for Black women cannot be measured only by political candidacies and ascents of the political chain of power Black women are uniquely positioned within their communities to influence politics and public policy which stems from unique variables of socialization gender and racial identity and marginalization that shape the political attitudes of Black women Thus Dowe asserts that Black women s political ambition often manifests outside formal politics in activism and community building a process that is linked to a wider radical vision for a full democracy This is ambition that occurs in a specific context of marginalization and both motivation and the conditions surrounding such motivation are critical to understanding the full range of Black women s
