Preaching with All Ages Ally Barrett, 2019-08-30 The all age talk is a task guaranteed to give preachers sleepless nights Very few people feel they have a gift for it and most lack confidence This reflective and practical guide addresses these concerns and aims to build a sure theological understanding develop skills and grow confidence Twelve chapters explore different kinds of engagement with the senses with one another with oneself with scripture with liturgy with the church with God with challenging situations and more to enable preachers make real connections with their listeners whatever the age Each chapter is followed by a practical case study illustrating key principles and providing down to earth tried and tested wisdom for all kinds of contexts and occasions The Country Gentleman ,1906 Bingo Capitalism Kate

Bedford, 2019-09-26 Casinos are often used by political economists and popular commentators to think critically about capitalism Bingo an equal chance numbers game played in many parts of the world is overlooked in these conversations about gambling and political economy Bingo Capitalism challenges that omission by asking what bingo in England and Wales can teach us about capitalism and the regulation of everyday gambling economies The book draws on official records of parliamentary debate case law regulations and in depth interviews with both bingo players and workers to offer the first socio legal account of this globally significant and immensely popular pastime It explores the legal and political history of bingo and how gender shapes and is shaped by diverse state rules on gambling It also sheds light on the regulation of workers players products places and technologies In so doing it adds a vital new dimension to accounts of UK gambling law and regulation Through Bingo Capitalism Bedford makes a key theoretical contribution to our understanding of the relationship between gambling and political economy showing the role of the state in supporting and then eclipsing environments where gambling played a key role as mutual aid In centring the regulatory entanglement between vernacular play forms self organised membership activity and corporate leisure experiences she offers a fresh vision of gambling law from the everyday perspective of bingo The Oxford Companion to the Book: D-Z Michael F. Suarez, H. R.

Woudhuysen, 2010 This is a reference work by an international team of scholars covering the book from ancient times to the present day Introductory essays explore the history and technology of the book and the range of genres It provides surveys of the book around the world which are followed by over 5 000 A Z entries The History of the Study of Landforms or the Development of Geomorphology, Volume 5 T.P. Burt, A.S. Goudie, H.A. Viles, 2022-10-20 Co published with British Society for Geomorphology This volume is the fifth in the definitive series The History of the Study of Landforms or the Development of Geomorphology Volume 1 1964 dealt with contributions to the field up to 1890 Volume 2 1973 with the concepts and contributions of William Morris Davis and Volume 3 1991 covered historical and regional themes during the classic period of geomorphology 1890 1950 Volume 4 2008 concentrated on studies of geomorphological processes and Quaternary geomorphology between 1890 and 1965 by the end of this period process based studies had become dominant

Volume 5 builds on this platform covering in detail the revolutionary changes in approach that characterized the study of geomorphology in the second half of the twentieth century It is divided into three sections the first deals with changes in approach and method the second with changes in ideas and the broader scientific context within which geomorphology is studied and the final section details advances in research on processes and landforms The volume s objective is to describe and analyse many of the developments that provide a foundation for the rich and varied subject matter of twenty first century geomorphology
