Uk Pwc Tax Guide 2015:

International Taxation of Banking John Abrahamson, 2020-02-20 Banking is an increasingly global business with a complex network of international transactions within multinational groups and with international customers This book provides a thorough practical analysis of international taxation issues as they affect the banking industry Thoroughly explaining banking s significant benefits and risks and its taxable activities the book s broad scope examines such issues as the following taxation of dividends and branch profits derived from other countries transfer pricing and branch profit attribution taxation of global trading activities tax risk management provision of services and intangible property within multinational groups taxation treatment of research and development expenses availability of tax incentives such as patent box tax regimes swaps and other derivatives loan provisions and debt restructuring financial technology FinTech group treasury interest flows and thin capitalisation tax havens and controlled foreign companies and taxation policy developments and trends Case studies show how international tax analysis can be applied to specific examples The Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development Base Erosion and Profit Shifting OECD BEPS measures and how they apply to banking taxation are discussed The related provisions of the OECD Model Tax Convention are analysed in detail The banking industry is characterised by rapid change including increased diversification with new banking products and services and the increasing significance of activities such as shadow banking outside current regulatory regimes For all these reasons and more this book will prove to be an invaluable springboard for problem solving and mastering international taxation issues arising from banking The book will be welcomed by corporate counsel banking law practitioners and all professionals officials and academics concerned with finance and its tax ramifications

Fighting Fraud and Corruption in the Humanitarian and Global Development Sector Oliver May, 2016-05-12 There are an estimated 40 000 international Non Government Organisations NGOs working in an enormous global aid industry official development assistance alone reached 90bn in 2014 This is supplemented by huge voluntary giving the UK public for example give around 1bn a year to overseas causes These organisations face a unique challenge from fraud and corruption Operating in the world s most under developed and fragile environments with minimal infrastructure and trust based cultures the risk is high And being wholly reliant on donors and supporters for income so are the stakes Researchers make different estimates of the scale of the problem facing the sector Some research implies that losses to the global aid budget caused by occupational fraud and abuse may be in the billions of pounds while those to the British public s voluntary overseas donations could be in the tens of millions For many sector professionals working in the developing world these estimates are readily believable Fighting Fraud and Corruption in the Humanitarian and Global Development Sector by Oliver May is a timely accessible and relevant how to guide which explores the scale and nature of the threat debunks pervasive myths and shows readers how to help their NGOs to better deter prevent detect and respond to fraud and corruption

The Future of the Professions Richard Susskind, Daniel

Susskind,2022-03-31 This book predicts the decline of today's professions and introduces the people and systems that will replace them In an internet enhanced society according to Richard Susskind and Daniel Susskind we will neither need nor want doctors teachers accountants architects the clergy consultants lawyers and many others to work as they did in the 20th century The Future of the Professions explains how increasingly capable technologies from telepresence to artificial intelligence will place the practical expertise of the finest specialists at the fingertips of everyone often at no or low cost and without face to face interaction The authors challenge the grand bargain the arrangement that grants various monopolies to today's professionals They argue that our current professions are antiquated opaque and no longer affordable and that the expertise of their best is enjoyed only by a few In their place they propose five new models for producing and distributing expertise in society The book raises profound policy issues not least about employment they envisage a new generation of open collared workers and about control over online expertise they warn of new gatekeepers in an era when machines become more capable than human beings at most tasks With a new preface exploring recent critical developments this updated edition builds on the authors groundbreaking research into more than a dozen professions Illustrated with numerous examples from each this is the first book to assess and question the relevance of the professions in the 21st century

International Taxation of Energy Production and Distribution John Abrahamson,2018-04-20 Energy is a major global industry with rapid ongoing changes in areas such as carbon taxes emissions trading regimes and the development of renewable energy The cross border nature of the industry calls for the thorough expert and up to date analysis provided in this timely and practical book Taking a down to earth problem solving approach to policy and practice in the field worldwide the author focuses on the international tax framework and the tax regimes in leading energy producing and consuming countries The book introduces and analyses significant international tax issues related to energy production and distribution extending from the tax regime in the country where the oil gas or coal exploration and production activities are located through to cross border transportation using pipelines tankers and bulk carriers to the taxation of power stations and electricity transmission and distribution networks The taxation issues covered include the following upstream oil and gas and mining taxes incentives for renewable energy carbon taxes and emission trading regimes dividend interest and royalty flows foreign tax credits permanent establishments mergers and acquisitions taxation issues for derivatives and hedging transfer pricing regional purchasing marketing service and intangible property structures free trade agreements and customs unions dispute resolution and tax administration and risk management Detailed updates are included on the most recent international tax developments affecting the energy industry including the OECD Action Plan on Base Erosion and Profit Shifting BEPS and the 2017 OECD Transfer Pricing Guidelines Case studies offer an opportunity to apply international tax analysis to specific examples and gain practice in identifying and discussing relevant international taxation issues This book will be of significant value to corporate tax managers and in house counsel together with accountants lawyers economists government officials and academics connected with the energy industry and related international taxation issues
