Understanding Canadian Schools : an Introduction to Educational Administration Jonathan C. Young, Benjamin Ruvin Levin, 1997 A Guide to Ontario School Law Benjamin Kutsyuruba, David Burgess, Keith Walker, J. Kent Donlevy, 2014-05 A Guide to Ontario School Law is a comprehensive non partisan fair reading of provincial educational statutes regulations and relevant policies that will be a first aid and reference to the lay reader Our goal is to provide an up to date accessible and user friendly guide to various legal parameters for teachers aspiring teachers trustees school administrators central office administration parents and interested community members In particular the resources and insights in this guide are aimed at helping teacher candidates to develop literacy in educational law and policy and ultimately to successfully transition from teacher education programs into teaching careers Captive Audience Catherine Gidney, 2019-04-02 White Spot a popular BC restaurant chain solicits hamburger concepts from third and fourth grade students and one of the student s ideas becomes a feature on the kids menu Home Depot donates playground equipment to an elementary school and the ribbon cutting ceremony culminates in a community swathed in corporate swag temporary tattoos and a new Home Depot song written by a teacher and sung by the children Kindergarten students return home with a school district prescribed dental hygiene flyer featuring a maze leading to a tube of Crest toothpaste Schools receive five cents for each flyer handed to a student While commercialism has existed in our schools for over a century the corporate invasion of our schools reached unprecedented heights in the 1990s and 2000s after two decades of federal funding cuts and an increasing tendency to apply business models to the education system Constant cutbacks have left school trustees administrators teachers and parents with difficult decisions about how to finance programs and support students Meanwhile studies on the impact of advertising and consumer culture on children make clear that the effects are harmful both to the individual child and the broader culture Captive Audience explores this compelling history of branding the classroom in Canada Rural Transformation and Newfoundland and Labrador Diaspora Amarjit Singh, Mike Devine, 2013-11-08 This book is endorsed by Dr Clar Doyle in his preface to this book Dr Doyle is very well known locally This book is about the contemporary life of grandparents in Newfoundland and Labrador a geographically isolated and culturally unique rural region of Canada The book can be used for courses in the areas of critical social work family studies gerontology nursing rural development critical pedagogy and diaspora studies Clar Doyle Professor of Education Memorial University of Newfoundland and member of the Founding Scholars Advisory Board The Paulo and Nita Freire International Project for Critical Pedagogy This book offers a platform not only to look in on the lives of vital grandparents but paints in broad strokes a mural of coming changing as well as challenging cultural and social settings In what the astute editors call small nuanced studies we find telling narratives of generational connections in the face of changing and challenging odds This book does a great service to the concept of diaspora as well as to the changing nature of that concept This book elevates the status of

grandparents by positioning them as vital members of a complex and challenging society where their skills gifts and sheer presence are most formative As is strongly advocated in this book it is essential that educators curriculum developers and teachers appreciate the place of grandparents in their students lives
