Stars John J. Ensminger, Ph. D, 2009-02-11 TITLE THE DARKNESS OF 10 000 STARS AUTHOR JOHN J ENSMINGER PhD Meet Arthur Banks a wise gentleman nearly 80 retired Navy chaplain who has been a friend to George Farmer and his sons all his life However after George passed away Arthur experienced a long absence from the Farmer family and he is stunned when suddenly he receives a phone call from Nick Farmer George s youngest son and his godson Although Nick has called primarily to say hello to his old friend he s expressed to Arthur that he s having a serious health problem and that he his wife and children now reside up on the coast highway in a small town called Sinnerville Nick is coming down to Frisco for some tests the following week and he may be able to stop and see Arthur Although Arthur was gladly anticipating Nick s visit nothing ever came of it Therefore Arthur telephones Nick to plan a trip to Sinnerville to meet his family and visit Nick about his illness Arthur makes the 5 1 2 trip to Sinnerville and learns that everything appears to be fine with Nick and his family Nick s problem seems to stem from something terrible going on at the Post Office where he works but Arthur feels sure things will all settle down and work out He promises his constant support and prayers whatever happens However a few days later while Arthur has been home he receives another sudden call this time from Nick s wife Darlene whom he has just met She wants Arthur to return ASAP as Nick is reportedly acting suicidal With tremendous concern Arthur advises Darlene to remove all the weapons from the property if she can do so safely and he promises to return as soon as he can work out his travel plans When he does return to Sinnerville Nick s health had visibly declined he is in a dark confused mood Nick attempts to explain what's been going on at work but it all seems quite unbelievable. However Darlene agrees that it is exactly as her husband has said. Therefore Arthur plans to look into the matter on their behalf if they'll allow it. This is a story of friendship, hope, and courage as Nick and Darlene's fates unravel before our eyes. Arthur learns something about evil from the small town of Sinnerville and its people but in spite of them he carries on to act courageously to try to help and later to try to locate and rescue his lifelong friend and his family. You may wish you had a friend like Arthur Banks who is persistent to the end. You may wish you had his courage and his grit in difficult times.

Downstream from Eden David L. Knight, 2012-05. Downstream from Eden is a celebration of water in a less than perfect world. It will inspire you and bring you hope. Probably the most comprehensive study of water and the Bible you will find anywhere. Well researched and highly readable with stories from Icelandic waterfalls to the Aral Sea from the origins of the universe to the Apocalypse the author weaves a conversation that turns water into wine. You will sip and savor page after page. Water is an urgent global concern with 800 million people living today in parched conditions or with unsafe water. The UN Water for Life Decade 2005-2015 highlights the need for sustainable water solutions. Downstream from Eden adds a unique voice to this discussion with insights from the Bible, science, history, and literature on issues of social justice, the environment, and personal spirituality. Fascinating material. David Knight is a profound, reflective, and interesting writer. Ramez Atallah, The Bible Society of Egypt. A beautiful study of water. Read it slowly and enjoy. You will be refreshed, spirit and soul. Barry Mackay, Habitat for Humanity India. Includes A Manifesto for Action, Ten Disciplines for Living, Downstream from Eden, and Questions for Small Group and Book Club discussion.

A Vision of Nature Michael Tobias, 1995. Tobias examines the ancient cultures of the Mediterranean, the ascetics of Sinai and Tibet, and the Pure Land Buddhists. He introduces the reader to the Jains of India whose lifestyle is one of the most ecologically balanced in all of human history. In profiling various artists of 19th century Europe and America, Tobias discovers incisive continuities among such luminaries as British poet Percy Bysshe Shelley, Austrian impressionist Emilie Mediz Pelikan, and American intimist painters Ralph Blakelock and George Inness.

High-Altitude Woman Jan Reynolds, 2013-07-21. One of the first female extreme athletes reflects on how her feminine strengths led to her success in a male-dominated field. Written by Jan Reynolds, medal winner in World Cup biathlon and former world record holder for women's high altitude skiing. Recounts many of Reynolds' adventures including her Mount Everest expeditions. Explains how she didn't simply emulate the men around her but embraced her feminine strengths of compassion, mediation, cooperation, and observation. Shares insights from her immersion in several indigenous cultures where she identified gender traits found in all cultures. World record breaking skier and climber Jan Reynolds has sought adventure in the Himalayas, the Southern Alps, the Sahara Desert, the Canadian Arctic, and the Amazon Basin, often as the only woman in her expedition. Tasked time and again with having to prove herself in the company of men her tireless dedication on each high risk excursion opened the door for many of today's female extreme athletes. Recounting in vivid detail many of her adventures including multiple Mount Everest expeditions Reynolds explains that her success on each formidable journey didn't arise simply by emulating the men around her but by embracing her feminine strengths of compassion, mediation, cooperation, and observation. As she traveled the world she broadened her insights into the psychologies of men and women with her immersion in several indigenous cultures such as the ancient salt traders of Tibet where she identified gender traits and strengths found in all cultures. Providing a guide for women entering male dominated fields Reynolds explains how women as well as men should nurture their feminine assets for more successful relationships at work, at play, at home, and in our global relationship with the natural world.
