As a result of the three advantages we've had to serve our readers, but it would indeed be a shame to have them leave.

The inclusion of music news is particularly appealing to subscribers.

This week's feature has several articles that discuss special events and community news that would be of interest to our readers.

What we would like to see is an article in the "Bawling In Jack" column that would discuss the importance of the Legislature to our state.

We had the pleasure of having the Governor at his home in Austin and we believe the program is to be presented at the University of Texas at Austin.

The Governor talks for three hours, followed by a question and answer session. The last night of the program will be presented at the University of Texas at Austin.

One part of the Governor's speech, Saturday night, was that of Texas Governor, coming up with several suggestions for the state.

One of the suggestions was that the Governor should be elected for a four-year term, with the right to be re-elected for one term.
