200 Say "Fights Must Stop"

People packed into the Canton City Hall last Thursday night, many standing along the walls. Many more stood outside at the south windows and watched proceedings in the small room. At least 200 people, and probably more, were there for one purpose—to seek a solution to the fighting problem of Canton. Before the meeting was over the group elected the Rev. Billy Milford president; Raymond M. Delbert, secretary. They also elected a list which would be used in addressing lawmakers. In them and contributed $228.30 which had been passed around. At least 100 families were represented at the hall.

The group, Canton's Citizens' Committee, plans to use the money to hire an attorney to seek legal means for investigating facts to help end a stop to Canton's fighting.

Next Meeting Set

They also plan to continue meeting and to ask county officials, city councilmen, and school officials to meet with them to seek ways to end the fighting. Rev. Milford announced this week that the next meeting will be on April 28 at 8 p.m. in the School Cafeteria. He also asked that anyone who is not at the meeting but may need their name to C.C.C., P.O. Box 378, Canton, Texas 75013.

Rev. Milford and Raymond M. Delbert were moderators at the meeting last Thursday. Rev. Milford

Canton Gets Publicity

Canton received more publicity this week much less flattering than the usual First Monday publicity that runs in newspapers all across the United States.

This time the coverage was confined to the Dallas area, and this time it was of a type to discourage people from coming to Canton rather than to encourage them to come. It was the Channel 5, WFAA, newscasts on Friday, Monday and Tuesday.

On Friday night, when news at the Thursday night news 5:30 meeting were shown, Dennis Harrell was shown with tears in his eyes making a plea for Canton boys, whom he said can be good, outstanding young men. And the people were given a chance to become that type of people after all, he was referring to the fact that the fighting around Canton should be stopped and boys of all factions should be strongly encouraged to behave.

Docket Call Of April 19 Is Of Special Interest

The following story appeared in The Canton Herald on March 27. It is an indication by County Judge Richard Ray of the change that will take place at the County Court Docket Call on Tuesday, April 19. Due to several problems involved in the

"I don't object to any Christian activity," he said, "but I do object to a man who is doing all his time in the church."

John Glenn Winkler, Jr. of the Canton Police Department said that he had been told that the County Court Docket Call on Tuesday, April 19, was a "big deal" and that it was a "big deal" for the County Court. Several charges were filed on the result of the fight at a party near Canton on Saturday night, March 12, according to county officials. County Judge Richard Ray said Wednesday, March 16, that he realizes that a number of the youth who are involved in seeing the crime brought to a speedy trial and he has, therefore, set them for trial on April 19.
