Tibet Through the Red Box Peter Sís, 2014-07-15 A father's diary and an artist's memoir By the author of the best selling Three Golden Keys While my father was in China and Tibet he kept a diary which was later locked in a red box We weren't allowed to touch the box The stories I heard as a little boy faded to a hazy dream and my drawings from that time make no sense I cannot decipher them It was not until I myself had gone far far away and received the message from my father that I became interested in the red box again In New York Peter Sís receives a letter from his father The Red Box is now yours it says The brief note worries him and pulls him back to Prague where the contents of the red box explain the mystery of his father's long absence during the 1950s Czechoslovakia was behind the iron curtain Vladimir Sís a documentary filmmaker of considerable talent was drafted into the army and sent to China to teach filmmaking He left his wife daughter and young son Peter thinking he would be home for Christmas Two Christmases would pass before he was heard from again Vladimir Sís was lost in Tibet He met with the Dalai Lama he witnessed China's invasion of Tibet When he returned to Prague he dared not talk to his friends about all he had seen and experienced But over and over again he told Peter about his Tibetan adventures Weaving their two stories together that of the father lost in Tibet and that of the small boy in Prague lost without his father Sís draws from his father's diary and from his own recollections of his father's incredible tales to reach a spiritual homecoming between father and son With his sublime pictures inspired by Tibetan Buddhist art and linking history to memory Peter Sís gives us an extraordinary book a work of singular artistry and rare imagination This title has Common Core connections Tibet Through the Red Box is a 1999 Caldecott Honor Book and the winner of the 1999 Boston Globe Horn Book Award for Special Citation
