The Vitality of Liberation Theology Craig L. Nesson,2012-09-06 The Vitality of Liberation Theology argues for the ongoing necessity of a liberating theology in a world of endemic poverty and economic globalization Although some have declared liberation theology s demise or even its death Nesson articulates the imperative and logic of it for a new generation Latin American liberation theology burst forth as the most original and compelling theological movement from the developing world in the modern period The story of the emergence and proliferation of liberation theology as well as the opposition to this movement both within and without Latin America is one of the most significant and lasting developments in Christianity since the last third of the twentieth century Together with other forms of liberating theology from contexts of oppression in diverse parts of the world anti apartheid theology in South Africa and Namibia Minjung theology in Korea Dalit theology in India or Palestinian liberation theology Latin American liberation theology takes a prophetic stand against the hegemony of the status quo and joins league with other subaltern peoples in the cause of freedom from all forms of subjugation and oppression The dawn of Latin American liberation theology inaugurated a new era in the global theological landscape Farewell, Fred Voodoo Amy Wilentz, 2013-01-08 Describes the author's long and painful relationship with Haiti before and after the 2010 earthquake tracing the country's turbulent history and its status as a symbol of human rights activism and social transformation Sit on Our Hands, or Stand on Our Feet? Roger Philip Abbott, 2013-01-07 The aim of Sit on Our Hands or Stand on Our Feet is not to present a theology that explains disasters In fact there is no such theology Nor is this work primarily for those who are responded to it is not part of the theological grab bag that Christian responders carry with them to use for the benefit of casualties It is more a part of the Christian's engaged practical theological apprenticeship prior to and during a response This book represents the role of the practical theologian who empowers the church community's legitimation and contribution in disaster response and who encourages individual Christians whose calling into particularly relevant professions whose natural skills and or professional training could find them placed in a major incident responding status paid or voluntary doing their work as unto the Lord It is a serious must read for any Christians who have hearts heavy with compassion but who are not sure what to do or why when disaster strikes Haiti Between Pestilence and Hope Fritznel D. Oh, for the Love of Haiti! JoAnne M. Kuehner, 2018-08-27 Come along on my 30 year love affair with Haiti Well almost thirty years have come and gone since my first visit to Haiti and I am no longer the young idealistic woman who took on the challenge of helping to improve the lives of the children of Haiti In fact now my children not only have children they have grandchildren which make me a great grandmother Looking back in many ways it is ironic that my long term involvement in Haiti came as a result of a little girl simply asking if I could help pay for her to go to school I am not only very grateful to her but to all of the children that I have been able to assist From my moonlighting to raise 120 to educate that first student while volunteering for AmeriCares to facilitating the acquisition and distribution of tens of millions of dollars of medical supplies after the devastating 2010 earthquake it has been a helluva ride One that has truly enriched my life Throughout my journey my family has been most understanding gracious and very supportive in every way However the biggest surprise and my greatest pleasure has been to have my granddaughter Tiffany take over my role and greatly expand the work of Hope for Haiti Although I shall continue to serve the people of Haiti for as long as I am able clearly it will require the dedication of members of the next generation if Hope for Haiti is to continue to prosper I pray that they will do so

Production of Disaster and Recovery in Post-Earthquake Haiti Juliana Svistova, Loretta Pyles, 2018-02-21 Natural disasters have long been seen as naturally generated events but as scientific technological and social knowledge of disasters has become more sophisticated the part that people and systems play in disaster events has become more apparent

Production of Disaster and Recovery in Post Earthquake Haiti demonstrates how social processes impact disasters as they unfold through the distribution of power and resources the use of discourses and images of disaster and the economic and social systems and relations which underlie affected communities The authors show how these processes played out in post earthquake Haiti to set in motion the mechanics of the disaster industrial complex to reproduce disasters and recovery rather than bring sustainable change The book reveals that disaster and recovery rhetoric helped create fertile conditions for neoliberal disaster governance militarized and digital humanitarianism non profiteering and disaster opportunism to flourish while further disenfranchising marginalized populations However the Haiti earthquake as is the case with all disaster sites was ripe with mutual aid community building and collective action all of which further local resilience The authors seek to reconstruct dominant discourses policies and practices to advance equitable participatory partnerships with local community actors and propose a praxis for a people's recovery as an action oriented framework for resisting the transnational disaster industrial machinery The authors argue for new synergies in policymaking and program development that can respond to emergencies and plan for true long term sustainable development after disasters that focuses as much on humans and the natural world as it does on economic progress

Production of Disaster and Recovery in Post Earthquake Haiti will be of great interest to students and scholars of disaster studies humanitarian studies development studies Haitian studies geography and environmental studies as well as to non governmental organizations humanitarians and policymakers      Congressional Record United States.
