Terrier Town David Menary,2006-01-01 Debate still rages on about who invented baseball But one thing is certain it was alive and fractious in southwestern Ontario in the summer of 1949 It was a remarkable summer For Charlie

Hodge just finishing his last year of high school the summer of 1949 begins with great fanfare and excitement He has made the Galt Terriers roster and will be riding the bench with a star studded team many of whom had played with the major leagues When those seasoned pros arrive in town big things are expected and they don't disappoint There is the towering home run that Goody Rosen hits into the Grand River the frozen baseball scheme that backfires and the busload of promotional cooking oil hijacked just before game time It all comes down to Game 7 in the Terriers semi final series with the Brantford Red Sox when a convicted gambler playing centre field that night makes one of the most controversial plays ever seen at Dickson Park Based on exhaustive research and extensive interviews David Menary recreates that post war season in Terrier Town through the eyes of Charlie Hodge While Charlie is a fictional character the other players are not This is a story that will resonate with young and old alike baseball fans or not This is a team that became a vital part of the town and the town an elemental part of the team This is a time rapidly fading from memory a summer of myths and legends This is a story of how life could be in the small southwestern town of Galt And all this is our heritage

Prime Time Soap Operas

Douglas M. Snauffer, 2009-09-03 Prime time soaps are often revered long after their runs on television have ended as Dallas Twin Peaks and Beverly Hills 90210 readily demonstrate Due to their profound impact it's easy to forget how recently the genre itself was born Dallas premiered in 1978 and was originally intended to air solely as a five part mini series Then in 1981 producer Aaron Spelling stepped in and introduced his own ultra glitzy entry Dynasty Between these two mega hits the era of the nighttime soap was born Soaps soon spun off into non traditional avenues as well in sitcoms like Filthy Rich and the supernatural drama Twin Peaks Then with the arrival of the more youth oriented Fox Network producers were able to hook an entirely new generation on programs such as Beverly Hills 90210 Melrose Place and Party of Five Pay cable channels have also stepped into the picture and now act as trendsetters with hits like Sex and the City Six Feet Under The Sopranos and The L Word Now from the spiritually themed 7th Heaven to the naughty neighbors of ABC's Desperate Housewives soaps dominate prime time Prime Time Soaps covers all the major shows within the soap opera genre and also investigates all the ways that soaps have contributed to the development of more general television trends Interviews with producers actors and other artistic collaborators also supplement this revealing and entertaining account Even outside of their genre these shows continue to influence current programming Few series on TV today are purely episodic instead containing on going storylines involving the personal dilemmas of their characters Another very recognizable contribution from soaps occurred on the evening of March 21 1980 when Dallas finished out its third year with J R Ewing being shot by an unknown assailant leaving fans to wait until the fall for the resolution This was the beginning of the cliffhanger endings that are now implemented by just about every series on television Prime Time Soaps covers all the major shows and also investigates all the ways that soaps have contributed to the development of more general television trends Interviews with producers actors and other artistic collaborators supplement this revealing and entertaining account
