Time and Narrative, Volume 3 Paul Ricoeur, 2024-05-31 In the first two volumes of this work Paul Ricoeur examined the relations between time and narrative in historical writing fiction and theories of literature This final volume a comprehensive reexamination and synthesis of the ideas developed in volumes 1 and 2 stands as Ricoeur s most complete and satisfying presentation of his own philosophy Ricoeur s aim here is to explicate as fully as possible the hypothesis that has governed his inquiry namely that the effort of thinking at work in every narrative configuration is completed in a refiguration of temporal experience To this end he sets himself the central task of determining how far a poetics of narrative can be said to resolve the aporias the doubtful or problematic elements of time Chief among these aporias are the conflicts between the phenomenological sense of time that experienced or lived by the individual and the cosmological sense that described by history and physics on the one hand and the oneness or unitary nature of time on the other In conclusion Ricoeur reflects upon the inscrutability of time itself and attempts to discern the limits of his own examination of narrative discourse As in his previous works Ricoeur labors as an incomparable mediator of often estranged philosophical approaches always in a manner that compromises neither rigor nor creativity Mark Kline Taylor Christian Century In the midst of two opposing contemporary options either to flee into ever more precious readings or to retreat into ever more safe readings Ricoeur s work offers an alternative option that is critical wide ranging and conducive to new applications Mary Gerhart Journal of Religion

The Routledge Critical Thinkers series puts key thinkers and their ideas firmly back in their contexts. Each volume reflects the need to go back to the thinker's own writings and ideas to fully appreciate those ideas. The Power of Narrative Raul P. Lejano, Shondel J. Nero, 2020-09-18. There is an ideological war of words waging in America, one that speaks to a new fundamentalism rising not just within the American public but across other ideologically torn nations around the globe as well. At its heart is climate skepticism, an ideological watershed that has become a core belief for millions of people despite a large scientific consensus supporting the science of anthropogenic climate change. While many scholars have examined the role of lobbyists and conservative think tanks in fueling the climate skepticism movement, there has not yet been a systematic analysis of why the narrative itself has resonated so powerfully with the public. Pulling from science and technology studies, narrative and discourse theory, and public policy, The Power of Narrative examines the strength of climate skepticism as a story, offering a thoughtful analysis and comparison of anti-climate science narratives over time and across geographic boundaries. This book provides fresh insight into the rhetorical and semantic properties on both sides of the climate change debate that preclude dialogue around climate science and proposes a means for moving beyond ideological entrenchment through language mediation, further ethnographic study, and research-informed teaching. The Power of Narrative culminates in the revelation of a parallel between narratives about climate skepticism and those in other issue areas, e.g., gun rights, immigration, health crises, exposing a genetic meta-narrative of public distrust and isolation. Ultimately, The Power of Narrative is not a book about climate change in itself; it is instead a book about how our society understands and interacts with science, how a social narrative becomes ideology, and how we can move beyond personal and political dogma to arrive at a sense of collective rapprochement. Digital Poetics Fernando Nascimento, 2025-07-10. Drawing on Paul Ricoeur's narrative theory and ethics, Fernando Nascimento argues for a new approach to integrating ethics into digital technology development, use, and regulation. This book introduces the concept of digital poetics to address the unprecedented ethical challenges posed by ubiquitous, intimate, and plastic digital technologies. Nascimento proposes narrative deliberation as a framework for ethical decision-making, contextualizing moral principles, encouraging public debate, intertwining technique with ethics, and employing narrative imagination to overcome practical dilemmas. By examining three spheres of deliberation: developers, users, and institutions, Digital Poetics offers a multidimensional analysis of ethical considerations in the digital realm. This book presents digital poetics as both a utopian ideal and an ethical imperative, which can respond to the rapid pace of technological change and the complexity of implementing ethical frameworks in digital contexts. De-colonising the Biblical Narrative. Volume 3 ATF Press, 2023-04-06. De-colonising the Biblical Narrative Volume Three is dedicated to those First Nations Australia peoples who were encouraged by colonists, especially the early missionaries, to believe in God. Early settlers were unaware that the term Lord is not a title for God in the Bible. It is the name of the colonial God YHWH. The name of God in Christian times, according to the Rainbow Spirit Elders, is Father God, the father of Jesus Christ; it is not the colonial

God YHWH who justified the actions of the colonial invaders According to the Rainbow Spirit Elders the colonial curse caused the Creator Spirit of the Land to cry in agony because the Lord was being desecrated dispossessed and polluted with Aboriginal blood According to those Elders the colonial curse traumatised the Land the peoples of the Land and the Creator Spirit in the Land This third volume reflects the de colonising approach developed by Anne Pattel Gray Norm Habel and other First Nations Australia including Ken Sumner Denise Champion Rose Rigney and Sean Weetra The Catholic Charismatic Renewal in the UK Keith Chappell,2023-10-20 Combining ethnographic research with theological analysis this book explores how the Catholic Charismatic Renewal CCR one of the largest new movements within the global Catholic Church has developed in contemporary Britain and Northern Ireland Drawing on extensive fieldwork this study analyses the beliefs behaviour and worldviews of CCR members and considers how these relate to key theological themes in the movement s unique encounter between Pentecostalism and Catholicism The author explores the extent to which the CCR has been integrated into the mainstream of the Catholic Church and how the movement s members have adapted their theology over time Painting a picture of a diverse community this book enriches understanding of the CCR and contemporary Christianity in Britain

Outside, America Hikaru Fujii,2013-04-25 The idea of the outside as a space of freedom has always been central in the literature of the United States This concept still remains active in contemporary American fiction however its function is being significantly changed Outside America argues that among contemporary American novelists a shift of focus to the temporal dimension is taking place No longer a spatial movement the quest for the outside now seeks to reach the idea of time as a force of difference a la Deleuze by which the current subjectivity is transformed In other words the concept is taking a temporal turn Discussing eight novelists including Don DeLillo Richard Powers Paul Theroux and Annie Proulx each of whose works describe forces of given identities masculine identity historical temporality and power etc which block quests for the outside Fujii shows how the outside in these texts ceases to be a spatial idea With due attention to critical and social contexts the book aims to reveal a profound shift in contemporary American fiction

Crypto Crowds Matan Shapiro,2024-03-15 Ownership of cryptocurrencies features contrasting forms of mobilization On one hand it denotes association with a global crowd of unrelated individual investors which expands as it attracts more members On the other hand it includes participation in grassroots communities which are generally more insular Crypto Crowds demonstrates how this tension generates political economic and moral realities in different cultural and geographical contexts Pioneering in its approach to cryptocurrency trading this volume will inspire scholars interested in the sociality of decentralized business models boom and bust cycles on the blockchain libertarian utopias and other postmodern crowding phenomena

Postnational Constitutionalism Paul Linden-Retek, 2023-03-29 At a time when the integration of the European Union's peoples through the rule of law is faltering this book develops a critical theory of postnational constitutionalism Today widely held conceptions of EU law continue to mislead citizens about the nature of political identity sovereignty and agency They lose sight of a critical idea on which post nationalism depends that constitutional self authorship is narrative and the polity is a subject whose identity history and legacy are still in formation Absent this vision EU law reproduces crises of legitimacy the depoliticization of public life emergency rule by executive decree a collapse of solidarity and the rise of nativist movements The book diagnoses this impasse as the product of a problem familiar to modernity reification a process in which social and historical relationships are misattributed as timeless relations among things Reification's shrinking of social dilemmas moral principles and political action to narrow perceptions of the present explains law's role in perpetuating crisis But this diagnosis also points to a remedy It suggests that to sustain the emancipatory potential of EU constitutionalism we must recover law's relationship to time Postnational Constitutionalism Europe and the Time of Law proposes a temporally attuned constitutional theory with principles of anti reification narrative interpretation and non sovereign agency at its centre These principles reimagine essential domains of constitutional order social integration constitutional adjudication and constituent power Spanning various bodies of EU jurisprudence the book devotes particular attention to migration and asylum struggles where questions of solidarity law and belonging are most generative and acute
