Tipping the Velvet Mel Kohlke, 2003 Studies in the Victorian and Neo-Victorian Novel Adrian Radu, 2024-02-29 Readers of the nineteenth century novel expected literature to be a form journalism and fictional history They wanted to read about easily identifiable situations with a chronological straightforward and easily discernible development of plot familiar backgrounds and credible characters About a hundred years later the Victorian novel became the great tradition omnipresent and reliable However today the age and the context are different and novels need more substance including such themes as memory race and empire sex and science spectrality and the heritage industry or key issues like gender sexuality and postmodernism All these elements are considered Neo Victorian which in spite of their novelty do point to a certain Victorian anchor This volume contains ten studies the substance of which is the analysis of novels that according to their date of publication are products of the Victorian and Neo Victorian periods as defined above The authors investigate and discuss Victorian roots and characteristics preserved or recycled Victorian themes Neo Victorian characters and motifs or any other characteristics that may label them as Victorian or Neo Victorian products

The Victorians in the Rearview Mirror Simon Joyce, 2007 Simon Joyce examines heritage culture contemporary politics and the neo Dickensian novel to offer a more affirmative assessment of the Victorian legacy one that lets us imagine a model of social interconnection and interdependence that has come under threat in today s politics and culture spaces of convents and harems whispering words of love We see women beginning to find each other on the streets of London and Amsterdam in the aristocratic circles of Paris in the factories of Shanghai We find women's desire and love for women meeting the light of day as Japanese schoolgirls fall in love and lesbian bars and clubs spread from 1920s Berlin to 1950s Buffalo And we encounter a world of difference in the twenty first century as transnational concepts and lesbian identities meet local understandings of how two women might love each other Giving voice to words from the mouths and pens of women and from men's prohibitions reports literature art imaginings pornography and court cases Rupp also creatively employs fiction to imagine possibilities when there is no historical evidence Sapphistries combines lyrical narrative with meticulous historical research providing an eminently readable and uniquely sweeping story of desire love and sex between women around the globe from the beginning of time to the present Sarah Waters Kaye Mitchell,2013-07-18 A multiple award winning author Sarah Waters is one of the most critically and commercially successful novelists writing today In such novels as Fingersmith Tipping the Velvet Affinity and The Night Watch her writing has played compellingly with popular and generic forms and narrative techniques and covered a number of important contemporary themes This critical guide is the first book to offer a wide range of current critical perspectives on Waters work With chapters written by leading established and emerging scholars the book explores issues such as gender sexuality class time and space in Waters fiction as well as her appropriation of a range of genres from the historical and neo victorian novel to the gothic The book also includes a new interview with Waters herself a timeline of her life chapter summaries and guides to further reading making this an essential guide to the work of one of the most exciting voices in contemporary fiction Alternatives within the Mainstream II Dimple Godiwala,2008-12-18 Alternatives Within the Mainstream II follows from the first volume's dedication to a critical appreciation of and a tracing of trajectories of the theatres of our Others on the British stage The first volume Alternatives Within the Mainstream British Black and Asian Theatres traced a history of Black and Asian British plays playwrights theatre companies and theatre voices The two volumes celebrate the plurality on the post war British stage in terms of class gender race and sexualities Alternatives Within the Mainstream II Queer Theatres in Post war Britain is an introduction to queer sexualities and their presence on the post war British stage From an introduction which addresses the possibilities of an undoing of repressiveness in desiring another this volume charts a history of queer on the British stage from a climate of sexual repressiveness and criminalisation to a period of legal acceptance of homosexual desire It covers gay les trans and queer British theatres the influence of American queer theatre AIDS consciousness black queer theatre and television drama Alternatives Within the Mainstream II Queer Theatres in Post war Britain is aimed as an introductory text which introduces the several plays playwrights theatre companies and queer theorists to students and scholars of contemporary queer British theatres This book is dedicated to Anthony Blair and the Labour government for bringing in the Civil Partnerships Act Neo-Victorian Lesbians on Screen Sarah E. Maier,Rachel M. Friars,2025-09-09 In Neo Victorian

Lesbians on Screen Maier and Friars argue that the on screen portrayal of lesbians situated in the long nineteenth century across various countries is at the very least a dual task the imperative project of revoicing lesbian silence and female companionship is complicated by the lack of and or complex representation of such women in the past The adaptations with varying degrees of success carefully manipulate the gaze of the viewer to illustrate both how crucial the act of looking proves to be for lesbian attachment in these films and how the viewer's own gaze changes the way the lesbian is represented Maier and Friars consider the adaptations awareness of the audience and the ways in which the films implicitly acknowledge the stakes behind bringing the lesbian to life as it were in visual media Because screen adaptations disrupt historical distance by literally picturing Victorian subjects via a medium they did not have film adaptations of novels and biofictions and original screenplays are challenged by the lesbian subject's vivid presence on screen The lesbian is no longer a contained neo Victorian presence in the othered nineteenth century but her very existence on screen signals her effervescent modernity which filmmakers alternately embrace or reject
