Twelve Ordinary Men John MacArthur, 2002 Philippians John F. MacArthur, 2015-12-29 Circumstances They are not all they're cracked up to be For instance Paul wrote his letter to the Philippians from a Roman prison cell yet despite those dire circumstances his major theme in the letter was joy How did Paul find joy in a Roman prison cell He didn't He took his joy in Christ into jail with him Paul's circumstances did not dictate his attitude In this letter he demonstrated several life attitudes that were shocking in their audacity and counter intuitiveness Rejoice in the Lord always Living means living for Christ and dying is even better Think of others as better than yourselves Whatever things we gain count them as loss You can do all things through Christ who strengthens you ABOUT THE SERIES The MacArthur Bible Study series is designed to help you study the Word of God with guidance from widely respected pastor and author John MacArthur Each guide provides intriguing examinations of the whole of Scripture by examining its parts and incorporates Extensive but straight forward commentary on the text Detailed observations on overriding themes timelines history and context Word and phrase studies to help you unlock the broader meaning and apply it to your life Probing interactive questions with plenty of space to write down your response and thoughts 1 Corinthians John F. MacArthur, 2015-12-29 As the gospel spreads to the far corners of the earth the apostle Paul is under mounting pressure to provide direction to maturing churches before they go astray It's with this urgency that Paul covers many topics that are especially relevant in today's society Pastor John MacArthur will take you through the first letter to the church in Corinth to show how this church in particular allowed their worldliness to affect the church's priority of spreading the gospel and how Paul's response gives Christians black and white boundaries in a gray world. As Paul explains doctrinal truths directly relating to sin and righteousness, he outlines a foundation for godly behavior. Paul's letter is a valuable tool of correction and encouragement for believers then and now to be alert, firm, mature, strong, and loving.
