Steve Brown's Bunyip, and Other Stories John Arthur Barry & Rudyard Kipling ill. Sir Lionel Lindsay,2024-01-05 Excerpt There have been occasions when after long rest as a hulk lying in some land locked cove with little of its past history except the name left in people s memories that once again the old ship has been brought forth staunch as ever to perform it is hoped faithful service on the outer seas Something of this kind has happened in the case of Steve Brown s Bunyip The book has been so long out of print as to perhaps render any apology for its re appearance needless All the more so as from many quarters through the years that have elapsed since its retirement there have been frequent and kindly enquiries after its welfare Also numerous requests have reached the author that the book might again be allowed to test the weather of popular opinion and if possible hold its own as it did aforetime Thus in a new guise and in a new land the old Bunyip rejuvenated and embellished with so to speak colours flying and band playing leaves its long rest at moorings and once more sets sail in modest confidence that age will not have rendered its timbers less seaworthy but rather have preserved and toughened them in such wise as may enable the old vessel to successfully compete with the modern craft of her class that have since appeared
