Ubu And The Truth Commission:

Ubu and the Truth Commission Jane Taylor, William Kentridge, Handspring Puppet Company, 1998 Ubu and the Truth Commission is the full play text of a multi dimensional theatre piece that tries to make sense of the madness that overtook South Africa during apartheid UBU AND THE TRUTH COMMISSION. , South African Literature After the Truth Commission Shane Graham, 2009-04-15 In the wake of apartheid South African culture conveys the sense of being lost in time and space The Truth Commission provided an opportunity for South Africans to find their bearings in a nation changing at a bewildering pace the TRC also marked the beginning of a long process of remapping space place and memory In this groundbreaking book Shane Graham investigates how post apartheid theatre makers and writers of fiction poetry and memoir have taken this project forward using their art to come to terms with South Africa s violent past and rapidly changing present Ubu and the truth commission, spectacle de Handspring puppet company , 1997 Towards a Transcultural Future Peter H. Marsden, Geoffrey V. Davis, 2004 The volume reflects the human rights situation in many countries from Mauritius to New Zealand from the Cameroon to Canada It includes a focus on the Malawian writer Jack Mapanje The contributors concerns embrace topics as varied as denotified tribes in India female genital mutilation in Africa native residential schools in Canada political violence in Northern Ireland the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission and the discourse of the Treaty of Waitangi Ubu and the Truth Commission , Postcolonial Plays Helen Gilbert, 2013-09-13 This collection of contemporary postcolonial plays demonstrates the extraordinary vitality of a body of work that is currently influencing the shape of contemporary world theatre This anthology encompasses both internationally admired classics and previously unpublished texts all dealing with imperialism and its aftermath It includes work from Canada the Carribean South and West Africa Southeast Asia India New Zealand and Australia A general introduction outlines major themes in postcolonial plays Introductions to individual plays include information on authors as well as overviews of cultural contexts major ideas and performance history Dramaturgical techniques in the plays draw on Western theatre as well as local performance traditions and include agit prop dialogue musical routines storytelling ritual incantation epic narration dance multimedia presentation and puppetry The plays dramatize diverse issues such as globalization political corruption race and class relations slavery gender and sexuality media representation nationalism Memory, Narrative and Forgiveness Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela, Chris N van der Merwe, 2009-03-26 The United Nations declaration of 2009 as the International Year of Reconciliation is testimony to the growing use of historical commissions as instruments of reconciliation in post conflict societies Since the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC has had a profound impact on international efforts to deal with the aftermath of mass violence and societal conflict this is an appropriate time for scholars to debate and reflect on the work of the TRC and the wide ranging scholarship it has inspired across disciplines With a foreword by Harvard Law Professor Martha Minow Memory Narrative and Forgiveness Perspectives on the Unfinished

Journeys of the Past offers readers a front row seat where a team of scholars draw on both theoretical analysis and case studies from around the world to explore the themes of memory narrative forgiveness and apology and how these themes often interact in either mutually supportive or unsettling ways The book is a vibrant discussion by scholars in philosophy psychology psychoanalytic theory history literary theory and Holocaust studies The authors explore the complex interconnected issues of trauma and narrative testimonial and literary narrative and theatre as narrative mourning and the potential of forgiveness to heal the enduring effects of mass trauma and transgenerational trauma memory as a basis for dialogue and reconciliation in divided societies The authors go well beyond the South African TRC and address a wide range of historical events to explore the possibilities and the challenges that lie on the path of reconciliation and forgiveness between victims perpetrators and bystanders in societies with a history of violent conflict and unspeakable injustice The book provides readers with a cohesive theoretically well grounded analysis of the impact of traumatic memories in the personal and communal lives of survivors of trauma It explores how narrative may be creatively applied in processes of healing trauma and how public testimony can often restore the moral balance of societies ravaged by trauma The book deepens understanding of the ways in which lessons from the TRC might be developed and both usefully and cautiously applied in other post conflict situations

Undoing Apartheid Premesh Lalu, 2022-10-27 Post apartheid South Africa still struggles to overcome the past not just because the material conditions of apartheid linger but because the intellectual conditions it created have not been thoroughly dismantled The system of petty apartheid which controlled the minutia of everyday life became a means of dragooning human beings into adapting to increasingly mechanized forms of life that stifle desire and creative endeavour As a result apartheid is incessantly repeated in the struggle to move beyond it In Undoing Apartheid Premesh Lalu argues that only an aesthetic education can lead to a future beyond apartheid To find ways to escape the vicious cycle he traces the patterns created by three theatrical works by William Kentridge Jane Taylor and the Handspring Puppet Company Faustus in Africa Woyzeck on the Highveld and Ubu and the Truth Commission which coincided with the fall of the Berlin Wall and the end of apartheid Through the analysis of these works Lalu uncovers the roots of modern thinking about race and affirms the need to revitalize a post apartheid reconciliation endowed with truth if only to keep alive the rhyme of hope and history

A Companion to Modern African Art Gitti Salami, Monica Blackmun Visona, 2013-12-24 Offering a wealth of perspectives on African modern and Modernist art from the mid nineteenth century to the present this new Companion features essays by African European and North American authors who assess the work of individual artists as well as exploring broader themes such as discoveries of new technologies and globalization A pioneering continent based assessment of modern art and modernity across Africa Includes original and previously unpublished fieldwork based material Features new and complex theoretical arguments about the nature of modernity and Modernism Addresses a widely acknowledged gap in the literature on African Art
