Perspectives on Learning Cities Séamus Ó Tuama,Eric Agbessi,Tina Neylon,2025-09-01 This book examines the social political and economic rationales which lead to the development of learning cities in diverse settings in Africa Australia Asia and Europe Many of the contributors are practitioners who have played an active part in the development of their learning city Some contributors are both practitioners and researchers on learning cities Some are primarily researchers who are focused on understanding learning cities gauging the benefits and potential of learning cities and formulating new theories and approaches The book also includes interviews with and contributions from key founding figures in the learning cities movement and in the development of UNESCO's Global Network of Learning Cities. The book explores diverse initiatives that are shaping the lives of people in cities today and into the future, fostering inclusivity, sustainability, and resilience. Each chapter offers a unique perspective on the transformative power of lifelong learning and collective commitment. Contributors share their insights from grassroots to high-level policy discussions, shedding light on the challenges and triumphs encountered along the way. This is the first major book looking at learning cities across the globe from both theoretical and practical perspectives. What sets it apart is the diversity in the material offered and the geographical and cultural spread of contexts. Cities are becoming ever more important to the future of humanity; learning cities are a vast laboratory of new and innovative ways in which people can learn together to create more fulfilling lives, better opportunities, and put into practice on a daily basis the four principles outlined in the Delors Report 1996: Learning to know, Learning to do, Learning to live together, Learning to be. This book is a valuable resource for policymakers, educators, and community leaders striving to build more inclusive and sustainable societies. Whether embarking on the journey of developing a learning city or seeking inspiration from successful initiatives, readers will find practical insights and thought-provoking perspectives within these pages.

The Gender Pay Gap and Social Partnership in Europe Hazel Conley, Donata Gottardi, Geraldine Healy, Barbara Mikołajczyk, Marco Peruzzi, 2018-12-06. The gender pay gap (GPG) exists in every European country but it varies considerably even in EU member states covered by the same legal principles on pay equality. Part of the variation can be explained by different patterns of social partnership. With current policy pressure to decentralise collective bargaining and increase the percentage of pay linked to productivity, what role can social partnership play in tackling the GPG? Reporting on the findings of the European Commission-funded research project 'Close the Deal: Fill the Gap', this book uses an interdisciplinary analysis involving legal, economic, and sociological expertise to explore the role of social partnership in GPG in Italy, Poland, and the UK. Selected on the basis of their contrasting profiles in terms of legal regulation, industrial relations systems, of collective bargaining coverage, of collective agreements, and differing rates of the GPG, the in-depth study provides important insights into the main issues underlying the problem of reducing the gender pay gap, which have led to guidelines in the negotiation of arrangements on GPG-related issues. Based on a unique comparative interdisciplinary and action-oriented research project, it will be of great interest to all researchers and advanced students with an interest in women's representation in the workforce and the gender pay gap, as well as practitioners and policy makers in organisations such as trade unions and employers' associations.

OECD Skills Studies Towards a Skills Strategy for Southeast Asia Skills for Post-COVID Recovery and Growth OECD, 2021-03-02. Skills are central to the capacity of countries and people to thrive in a rapidly changing world. Recovering from the COVID-19 pandemic will require countries to coordinate interventions to help recent graduates find jobs, reactivate the skills of displaced workers, and use skills effectively in workplaces. Africa and the Sustainable Development Goals Maano Ramutsindela, David Mickler, 2019-06-13. The book draws upon the expertise and international research collaborations forged by the Worldwide Universities Network Global Africa Group to critically engage with the intersection in theory and practice of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and Africa's development agendas and needs. Further, it argues that and demonstrates how the SDGs should be understood as an aspirational blueprint for development with multiple meanings that are situated in dynamic and contested terrains. As the SDGs have substantial implications for development policy and resourcing at both the macro and micro levels, their relevance is not only context specific but should also be assessed in terms of the aspirations and needs of ordinary citizens across the continent. Drawing on analyses and evidence from both the natural and social sciences, the book demonstrates that progress towards the SDGs must meet demands for improving human well-being under diverse and challenging socio-economic, political, and environmental conditions. Examples include those from the mining industry, public health, employment, and the media. In closing, it highlights how international collaboration in the form of research networks can enhance the production of critical knowledge on and engagement with the SDGs in Africa.

International and Comparative Librarianship Peter Johan Lor, 2019-06-17. Based on his extensive experience in international librarianship, Peter Johan Lor, South Africa's first National Librarian and a former Secretary General of the IFLA, has written the first comprehensive and systematic overview of international and comparative librarianship. His book provides a conceptual framework and methodological guidelines for the field and covers the full range of international relations among libraries and information services, with particular attention to the international political economy of information, the international diffusion of innovations, and policy in library and information services, LIS development, and international aid. It concludes with a discussion of the practical relevance and future of international and comparative studies in LIS. The Handbook of Adult and Continuing Education Tonette S. Rocco, M. Cecil Smith, Robert C. Mizzi, Lisa R. Merriweather, Joshua D. Hawley, 2023-07-03. Co-published with Colleges and universities are increasingly becoming significant sites for adult education scholarship, in large part due to demographic shifts. With fewer U.S. high school graduates on the horizon, higher education institutions will need to attract non-traditional, i.e., older adult learners to remain viable, both financially and politically. There is a need to develop a better corpus of scholarship on topics as diverse as what learning theories are useful for understanding adult learning; how are higher education institutions changing in response to the surge of adult students; what academic programs are providing better learning and employment outcomes for adults in college; and how adult education scholars can offer much to the policy debates taking place in higher education. A main premise of this handbook is that adult and continuing education should not simply respond to rapidly changing social, economic, technological, and political environments across the globe but should lead the way in preparing adults to become informed, globally connected, critical citizens who are knowledgeable, skilled, and open and adaptive to change and uncertainty. The Handbook of Adult and Continuing Education provides rich information on the contemporary issues and trends that are of concern to adult and continuing education of the programs and resources available to adult learners and of opportunities to challenge and critique the structures embedded in the field that perpetuate inequity and social injustice Adult education is a discipline that foresees a better tomorrow and The Handbook is designed to engage and inspire readers to assist the field to seek new paths in uncertain and complex times ask questions and to help the field flourish The Handbook is divided into five sections The first Foundations situates the field by describing the developments core debates perspectives and key principles that form the basis of the field The second Understanding Adult Learning includes chapters on adult learning adult development motivation access participation and support of adult learners and mentoring Teaching Practices and Administrative Leadership the third section offers chapters on organization and administration program planning assessment and evaluation teaching perspectives andragogy and pedagogy public pedagogy and digital technologies for teaching and learning The fourth section is Formal and Informal Learning Contexts Chapters cover adult basic GED and literacy education English as a Second Language Programs family literacy prison education workforce development military education international development education health professions education continuing professional education higher education human resource development and workplace learning union and labor education religious and spiritual education cultural institutions environmental education social and political movements and peace and conflict education The concluding Contemporary Issues section discusses decolonizing adult and continuing education adult education and welfare teaching social activism lesbian gay bisexual trans queer and straight allies gender and its multiple forms disability older adults and intergenerational identities race and ethnicity working class whiteness and privilege and migrants and migrant education The editors culminate with consideration of next steps for adult and continuing education and priorities for the future

Promoting sustainable local economic development initiatives Marius Venter, 2022 This book endeavours to outline case studies that promote sustainable Local Economic Development LED initiatives It is generally believed that local governments are the foot soldiers of LED However this seems to be a myth as local governments in South Africa and elsewhere have not yet fulfilled this mandate and have been struggling for several years to implement LED initiatives The distinctive merit of this book lies in the way it combines the South African context with the wider international development context in ways that there is a flow of information and ideas both ways The book is an essential part of this sequence of ideas development and action at a critical time for strategic action directed at a sustainable future It showcases case studies and responses to the impacts of globalisation as a bridge between urban rural and institutional action and reveals avenues for local government leadership in communities research student engagement and wider interactions
