Sexuality in Muslim Contexts Anissa Helie, Homa Hoodfar, 2012-10-11

This groundbreaking book explores resistance against the harsh policing of sexuality in some Muslim societies. Many Muslim majority countries still use religious discourse to enforce stigmatization and repression of those especially women who do not conform to sexual norms promoted either by the state or by non state actors. In this context Islam is often stigmatized in Western discourse for being intrinsically restrictive with respect to women's rights and sexuality. The authors show that conservative Muslim discourse does not necessarily match practices of believers or of citizens and that women's empowerment is facilitated where indigenous and culturally appropriate strategies are developed. Using case studies from Pakistan, Iran, Indonesia, China, Bangladesh, Israel and India they argue persuasively that Muslim religious traditions do not necessarily lead to conservative agendas but can promote emancipatory standpoints. An intervention to the construction of Muslim women as uniformly subordinate, this collection spearheads an unprecedented wake of organizing around sexualities in Muslim communities.

Women in Tourism in Asian Muslim Countries Nataša Slak Valek, Hamed

Almuhri, 2021-03-15 This book focuses on women in tourism in Muslim countries specifically where a woman can be seen as a tourism consumer or a woman producing tourism. This book discusses the role of women in the Muslim world and finds that socio culturally Islam has a greater impact on women than men. The process of identity construction and the religious values of women have also been extensively researched. But little is known about the role of Muslim women in the tourism industry and this book addresses these themes in the Asian context. This book explores these ideas as defined key categories: Muslim women from Asia travelling to a non Muslim country; non Muslim women travelling to Asian Muslim countries; and Women working in the tourism field in Muslim countries. This book highlights Asian countries as holding a complex mixture of cultures and identities. As Muslim communities are central in many Asian countries the tourism experience is different mainly because of cultural norms and religion. Ultimately this book examines whether and how these complexities enrich both women and tourism industry within Asian context.
