What Am I Still Doing Here:

What Am I Still Doing Here? Roger Lewis, 2011-10-13 This is Roger Lewis at his best more cantankerous and curmudgeonly wit and musings about the pointlessness of life Dark witty and hilarious Roger Lewis has a real way with words What Am I Doing Here? Donald A. Webster, 2009-02 Few people are lucky enough to experience close up those mutually attracting worlds of politics and entertainment Donald Webster is one of those From his earliest memories he set his sights on Washington D C where he imagined the fate of the world was decided Over the years he realized his youthful dream working in the Congress the Treasury and the White House But his political career failed to provide a sense of creative satisfaction and when his first wife died he cut loose from Washington and headed to a California beach and later to New York to study painting and photography A long and winding trail finally led him to writing as his preferred means of creative self expression His transformation from the world of politics to that of the arts took a decisive leap forward after he fell in love with actress Diana Douglas Now married and living in Los Angeles they have an ongoing creative partnership and a wide circle of vital artistic friends The author's personal transformation in his work his thinking and his innermost nature is substantially complete This is the story of what happened along the way What Am I Doing Here? Leroy R. Maleck O.D., LeRoy R. Maleck, 2009 WHAT AM I DOING HERE by Dr LeRoy Maleck O D is Book III and potentially the most moving of his life experiences This book contains the recollections of that time in life when a 22 year old army combat infantry medic was forced to rapidly mature and change forever The author's first person style and account clearly comes from being there This book chronicles his entry into the army as seen by a new recruit The true account continues through basic training continued training and the introduction to army life and situations that seem as a satire and have humorous moments Follow his journey with the 137th Infantry Regiment aboard a troop ship to England Then in early July D Day 28 Days his Regiment is on Omaha Beach Roughly 11 days later he with his unit is engaged in something his training could not prepare him for combat with a determined entrenched enemy Follow the exploits of war through the eyes of a combat infantry medic who went through survived and helped others survive of some of the most brutal battles faced by the U S Army in World War II Including the Northern France Campaign and the Battle of the Bulge In addition to an army combat medic's first person account of his participation in World War II the author has included a sorry about a rather amazing four legged friend Speed Speed was his Uncle Bill's dog companion and often hunting partner In contrast to the War chronicles you may find this amazing heartwarming and just a great sorry about a truly amazing dog What Am I Doing Here? Liz Cowley, Dorrance, 2013-12-01 Whatever the country most women will identify with Liz's poetry as she explores the tapestry of women's daily lives in more than 100 witty and bittersweet poems in her own unique style original provocative and often with a devilish sting in the tail Dealing with the frustrations and disappointments along with the joys and pleasures of life Liz is delighted when readers say to her I don't normally like poetry but I really love this So, What Am I Doing Here,
